U. S. Invincible In All-Out War, Say Military Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's military leaders have assured Congress the United States would be invincible this year in an all-out war—and more power is in sight.

Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, said bluntly that if the Soviet Union starts an all-out war "we would break her back."

In censored versions released today of the military leaders' testimony last January and February to the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee, Burke and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor said they think America already has too much atomic retalitory power. Taylor is the army chief of staff.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, summed up the administration's cause for optimism.

Twining said a Soviet nuclear assault, if delivered today, would come almost entirely from manned aircraft. And the Soviet Union's air threat, he added, is "not half as big as ours and not nearly so effective."

Burke said that in an all-out war "we can destroy her (the Soviet Union) many times over with the weapons we now have in existence. There is no way that she can stop that. We would break her back."

Burke, whose Navy will pack a growing atomic wallop, said he thought the United States has "too much retaliatory power." He urged a bigger share of defense spending for small wars in which the U.S.S.R. might not be a direct participant.

MISSILES READY

Taylor said U.S. atomic retaliatory power is overwhelming. He said the nation has thousands of vehicles which could rain nuclear destruction on the Soviets, whereas, he added, the job could be done with hundreds.

The testimony shows the Air Force is confident it knows the location of major Soviet strategic targets.

The military leaders, bolstered by their civilian defense chiefs in testimony, backed up their confidence with many facts about American might and intelligence estimates of Soviet strength and intentions.

They said both the United States and the Soviet Union will have a few operational intercontinental ballistic missiles later this year.

The United States is in a stronger position "by far" to use missiles this year, said Twining. His reason: American-built Thor missiles, with 1,500-mile range and carrying a nuclear payload as big as that of the 5,000-mile Atlas are "sitting there and ready to go" from bases in England. More such American missiles are going to Europe this year.

Novato Father Of 4 Dies In Truck Plunge

Roy Otto Nagel, 46, Novato father of four, was killed this morning when the state-owned truck he was driving plunged down an embankment near Skyline boulevard in Belmont after skidding off a rain-slicked road.

Nagel had lived at the Palm Lane Trailer Village with his wife, Lucille, and three of their children, Patricia, 15, Barbara, 12, and Douglas, 8. The eldest child is attending college in Southern California.

Nagel a member of a state survey crew, was on his way to a job in Santa Cruz when the accident happened, reported trailer court owner, Mrs. Henry Lautrup.

A witness to the accident said it was raining when Nagel's truck skidded off Ralston avenue near Skyline. Nagel's body was thrown from the truck to a point 60 feet below the roadway and crushed under the weight of the overturning truck, which rolled another 190 feet down the embankment, dragging the body with it, the Associated Fress reported.

Gerald Nordstrom, San Mateo County deputy coroner, said Nagel was "so badly mangled he looked like he had fallen out of a plane."

Mrs. Nagel went to Redwood City this morning to make funeral arrangements, Mrs. Lautrup said.

Castro Denies Innuendoes On Land Deal

Anonymous Letter Hints Scandal On Civic Center

Walter R. Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, spread a public accountant's records of his dealings with Henry Scettrini Jr. for public view today in reply to an anonymous letter hinting there was something wrong with his public and private dealings with the Scettrini family.

The letters, copies of which were sent to several county officials Saturday—mailed from San Francisco and unsigned—posed a series of questions and answers about the county's purchase of the civic center site in Santa Venetia from Henry Scettrini Jr. and Castro's sale of his San Rafael garage to Scettrini Jr.

PARTIAL TEXT

It read, in part:

"Answer: Henry Scettrini.

"Question: At what price was the land available?

"Answer: A realty firm had authorization to sell the land for $237,000 starting Aug. 10, 1953 through a period ending Feb. 19, 1954. During this period sales negotiations were conducted with the County of Marin."

The letter then recited that Castro sold his garage at 718-30 4th street, San Rafael, to Henry Scettrini Jr., who changed the name to D and S Garage. The sale, said the letter, was "on Sept. 1, 1953 during negotiations for sale of land ($237,000) to county by Scettrini Sr."

It closed: "How much did the County of Marin finally pay Henry Scettrini for his land.

Answer: $417,000."

Castro presented for public inspection figures and dates extracted from his books by Peter Helms, certified public accountant who lives in Sleepy Hollow.

4 Youths Still At Large In Juvenile Hall Escape

ASSAULTED IN BREAK — James Hasson, supervisor at Marin County Juvenile Hall, holds iron bar of type which Russell Mancebo swung at him as 12 boys and three girls staged break from hall Saturday night. The 16-year-old Mancebo first smashed the bar against refrigerator at Hasson's right. Hasson said Mancebo then swung for his head, but he deflected the blow with his wrist.

Search Concentrates In Tennessee Valley

An assault charge will be filed against a 16-year-old thug who struck a supervisor with an iron pipe to touch off the biggest outbreak and mass escape in the history of Marin Juvenile Hall Saturday night.

Four juveniles, including ringleader Russell Mancebo, 16, of Sausalito were still at large today, possibly armed with two table knives. With Mancebo are believed to be a 16-year-old boy and two girls, 15 and 16.

15 FLEE

Of 26 boys and five girls held at juvenile hall, 12 boys and three girls broke out shortly before 9 p.m. Saturday. Ten boys and a girl have been recaptured in various parts of the county. In one instance, a deputy sheriff fired a warning shot to capture one of the youths.

A cast iron bar swung by Mancebo against the wrist of Supervisor James Hasson, 26, of Fairfax was found discarded near the hospital grounds. But two table knives are missing from the kitchen and may be in the hands of the four at large.

HILLS SCOURED

Search concentrated today in hills of Tennessee Valley, where a car stolen from Terra Linda was found abandoned at 1:30 this morning with the engine still warm.

Alfred E. Boccone, San Francisco fireman who lives at 1075 Las Ovejas, Terra Linda, got up yesterday morning and found his two-door sedan missing. Early this morning, Deputy Sheriff Fredrick Marcus noticed the car abandoned on Tennessee Valley road. The ignition and the panel lights were still on.

Russia Agrees To Foreign Ministers Meet At Geneva

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia today handed notes to the Big Three Western powers agreeing to an East-West foreign ministers conference beginning in Geneva May 11, Tass Agency reported.

Tass said "according to information received," the Soviet government agreed to attend the parley "in order to consider questions concerning Germany, including the peace treaty with Germany and the Berlin question."

Tass said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko received the U.S., British and French ambassadors and handed them the Soviet notes in reply to the three Western notes of March 26.

The notes had differences in emphasis, but all looked beyond the foreign ministers conference to a summit meeting later in the year.

The Soviet government expressed regret in its notes "that complete mutual understanding has not yet been reached" on the participation of Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The Allies have suggested the two Communist nations should join the later stages of the talks.

Moscow said it "considers it possible that the question of the participation of Poland and Czechslovakia should be solved during the conference."

"The question of the representation of the two German states at the conference of foreign ministers can be regarded as mutually agreed," Tass reported.

The West has proposed that both West and East German representatives sit in on the parley as observers.

Corte Maderan Confesses To 13 Burglaries

A 20-year-old unemployed Corte Maderan, caught hiding in a Mill Valley service station late last night, has admitted 13 burglaries and is being quizzed in connection with six more, Mill Valley police said today.

Michael Robert Parkhurst, who said he was living in a Sixth street hotel in San Francisco, was caught at 11:30 p.m. inside Lou's Chevron Station on East Blithedale avenue by Officer Carl E. Mead Jr. of Mill Valley police.

TWIN CITIES THEFTS

His arrest may solve a string of break-ins that has been puzzling police in Corte Madera and Larkspur as well as Mill Valley, officers claimed today.

He admitted breaking into the Chevron station, de Beaubien Pontiac, Shell Service Station, Pierotti Buick, Andy's Auto Parts, the Laundromat, Dill and Sederberg Plumbing, Union Service, Don Geddes Realty and Larry Brink Motors, Officer Mead said. He stole warying amounts of cash in each place.

He also admitted breaking into three Larkspur business houses last Feb. 19, reported Mead. These were Corbett's Hardware, the Pizza Parlor and a newly opened bakery. His cash "take" was small for all three, according to Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark.

PLACES LOOTED

Places which have been entered in Corte Madera in recent months include Brown-Ely, Nelson's Bike Shop, Bowman Electric, Rich's Garden Supply, the Variety Store and the Texaco Service Station. Corte Madera Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said Parkhurst was being quizzed todav on these break-ins.

Chief Clark said Parkhurst had been sought by his office for several weeks for investigation after his fingerprints were found following one of the burglaries.

WINDOW BROKEN

Officer Mead was patrolling the area near Sutton Mannor last night, when he noted the glass in a door at the service station was broken, he said. After radioing for aid, he investigated and found Parkhurst hiding in the rear of the station.

Mead said a cigarette machine had been broken and $18 taken.

Parkhurst apparently was alone and on foot, said Mead.

Nikita Khrushchev: 'Brilliant Bonehead'

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Long before anyone dreamed of Nikita Khrushchev as a future czar, a Western diplomat sized him up shrewdly as "that brilliant bonehead."

The man bluster and guffaw his way with a terrifying air of carelessness toward the edge of global disaster. But he is no genius. His career has been dotted with bonehead plays.

In a meeting at the summit, nonetheless, Western statesmen would face a formidable antagonist, potentially far more dangerous than Stalin.

One of his success secrets seems to be an astonishing knack for blaming his mistakes on others—and getting away with it. Another has been an Olympian scorn of weakness and what he would regard as bourgeois morality.

Khrushchev knows only one truth, his "Communist faith." In propagating this faith, he has shown himself a true disciple of Lenin.

Through a combination of this faith and his political agility, Khrushchev has survived revolution, civil war, bloodbath purges and dark intrigues.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev, nearing 65, boasts the physique of a Russian bear. He combines seemingly boundless energy with a taste for intrigue and a talent for turning defeat into victory.

Lagunitas Votes Tomorrow On School Tax Hike

Voters of Lagunitas School District tomorrow will decide whether a school tax of $2 per $100 assessed valuation, 25 cents above the current rate, should be levied for a one-year period.

The single polling place at Lagunitas School in San Geronimo will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

If the ballot proposal is rejected, the district's basic tax rate automatically will revert to 90 cents for the 1959-60 fiscal year.

The present $1.75 rate, 85 cents higher than last year's, was narrowly approved at a special election Feb. 25, 1958. It was authorized for only one year.

District trustees are asking a $2 rate for 1959-60 to raise local tax requirements of a proposed "austerity" budget of approximately $124,000.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye said the proposed budget would finance a minimum school program.

"We are tightening our belts and actually operating on no margin, you might say," the superintendent declared.

Frye said estimates indicated some $40,000 in local revenue would be needed to help finance the suggested budget, with the balance coming from the state and miscellaneous sources.

More Rain Tomorrow For Bay Area

Heaviest fall was 2:10 inches in Mill Valley, according to the Mill Valley office of Marin Municipal Water District.

Also getting a good wetting were Larkspur's Chevy Chase district, where 1.46 inches fell, and Muir Woods with 1.12 inches.

The spring showers over the rest of the county measured: Tamalpais Valley, .78 of an inch; Belvedere, .70; Bolinas, .65; Larkspur, .63; Sausalito, .58; Woodacre, .42; San Rafael, .17; San Anselmo, .14; Novato, 10, and Stafford Dam, .01.

Tomorrow will be cloudy with showers expected in late afternoon, the Weather Bureau forecast.

More precipitation is likely near the end of the week, according to the Bureau's five-day forecast.

There will be snow in the mountains and temperatures will be slightly below normal during the next five days, the bureau said.

Holdup Man Gets Jail, Probation

Jessie Daniel Moore, 30-year-old Modesto cook who held up San Rafael's Western Union office Feb. 4 and escaped with $102, was placed on probation for three years today by Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court.

As conditions of probation, the judge ordered Moore to spend the six months in the county jail and make full resitution to Western Union.

Moore, who was captured by San Rafael police two days after the crime, pleaded guilty to armed robbery earlier this month.

6-Month Jail Term Given In Dope Case

Smith, arrested Feb. 11 with poet-publicist Gerd Stern of Sausalito, was given the jail term today by Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating as a condition of probation.

Judge Keating accepted a report of the county probation department recommending five years probation and suspension of a one-year county jail sentence.

The report also recommended that Smith be placed in the work furlough program, under which jail inmates pursue their regular occupations by day and return to their cells at night.

Sheriff Louis Mountanos and his flying vice squad discovered about $2,500 worth of raw marijuana in Smith's home last month.

Married and the father of four, Smith is president of the Muir Beach Improvement Assn.

San Rafael Raid Nets 4 Homosexual Suspects

Four men suspected of homosexual activities in a hotel restroom in San Rafael are scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow afternoon.

"We've been hearing rumbles of perverted activities for about two months," said Police Chief Frank Kelly. "And it seemed to be getting bigger. I won't tolerate this sort of thing."

Jailed and released on bail are John Hansen Klingenfuss, 50, a baker, of 1430 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael; Robert Lee Silsby, 35, San Francisco; Maurice Lucien Gaillard, 34, who gave his address as 120 Toyon drive, Fairfax, and Don Edward Penfold, 31, a salesman, of San Francisco.

Silsby was bailed out for $1,000. The other three were freed on $1,500 bail each. They are charged with sex perversion.

Inspector Nick Giampoli, Sgt. Jay Fletcher, Officer Richard Camper, and Sheriff's Inspector Richard Argento kept the Traveler's Hotel restroom under surveillance and raided the place about 8 p.m. Saturday.

Police said the restroom can be reached from the street, and the hotel bar was in no way involved. The four suspects, who are believed to be strangers to each other, apparently met for the first time in the restroom.

Ross Carriage House Burns

The relic of a past age, a two-story carriage house on the four-acre Ross estate of Mrs. Willard O. Waymond on Fernhill avenue, was destroyed by fire late Saturday afternoon.

Neighbors telephoned the 5:05 p.m. alarm. Both Ross and San Anselmo Fire Departments sent trucks and men. The 1900 wood frame structure, set on a hillside amidst madrone trees, was engulfed in flames when firemen arrived.

Firemen made no estimate of damage. The barn-like structure was virtually empty. Firemen noticed a few boxes, a bed and mattress stored upstairs.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, said Asst. Chief Carl Olson of the Ross department.

CAREFUL HOW YOU ANSWER PHONE! — Mrs. Raymond Leonardi and Mrs. Ruth Kendall, at switchboard of San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, prepare to start calling numbers from telephone book, while Miss Georgia Kendall gets "Red Tag Days" posters ready to put up. Tomorrow and Wednesday, calls will be placed at random and those who answer "Red Tag Days Are Thursday, Friday and Saturday" will receive merchandise orders. Those who answer "hello" will get a "sorry, you don't win." (Independent-Journal photo)

San Rafael Merchants Prepare 'Something Extra' Red Tag Days

San Rafael's Spring Red Tag Days will take place Thursday, Friday and Saturday with "something extra for the ladies," according to Ken McKenzie, chairman of the retail merchants committee of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the Red Tag bargain items that will be offered by 55 participating stores, the merchants will offer flowers and gift merchandise certificates.

The first 1,000 women shopping at the Red Tag stores on Thursday will be given free orchids, carnations and gardenias. One thousand women will also be given these flowers on Friday morning.

Two "Miss(tery) Red Tag Day" models will be visiting Red Tag stores on Thursday and Friday. Free merchandise certificates will be given to those who identify these two mystery misses. Shoppers should stop these fashionably-dressed models and ask, "Are you Miss Red Tag Day?" McKenzie said. A correct identification means the model will give a certificate to the inquirer.

Random telephone calls will be made by receptionists at the chamber of commerce to various homes throughout the Marin trading area. If the person answers his telephone tomorrow and Wednesday with, "Red Tag Days is on Thursday, Friday and Saturday," instead of "hello," he will receive a merchandise certificate good at any of the Red Tag stores.

"Red Tag store merchants have been making special purchases of seasonal merchandise in order to offer Marinites special bargains," said McKenzie. The Wednesday edition of the Independent-Journal will carry a special Red Tag ad section, and radio station KTIM will also be announcing some of the items to be available.

Bolinas Group Plans Protest Of Fire Truck Removal

Bolinas Community, Inc., will hold a special postponed meeting next Friday at 8 p.m. in the Community Center to further protest the planned removal of the county fire truck from Bolinas, according to President Thomas J. Barfield.

The meeting, scheduled for last Friday, was postponed because of the conflict with Good Friday, Barfield said.

He said Supervisor Vera Schultz is planning to be present at Friday's meeting and that a dozen persons are planning to speak against removal of the truck, scheduled for May 1 when it is planned to move it to the county's new Throckmorton ridge station.

Barfield said petitions are being circulated in Bolinas protesting the change.

"The Bolinas Fire Protection District covers 22,000 acres of watershed," Barfield declared, "and we have had the valuable assistance of the county's unit in the past to aid the district's two units."

Barfield contended that "if the county truck is removed from this area, we will be getting nothing for the 10-cent tax which we pay into the general fund for watershed fire protection."

He added that the radio telephone in the county truck is also the area's only means of emergency communication in case of power and telephone failure.

UKIAH (UPI) — Two guests were killed early yesterday when fire broke out in the 72-year-old Palace Hotel, but 42 other residents escaped without injury.

The dead were Bill Scheid, 75, and William Fuqua, 28, who lost a leg and was partially paralyzed in a logging accident two years ago.

The first started at 4:45 a.m. and destroyed a storeroom and one dining room before it was controlled. Damage, including that caused by smoke throughout the building, was estimated at $50,000.

Dulles is expected to announce shortly after his return to Washington whether he will return to his post. President Eisenhower has said he will leave the decision up to Dulles.

State Govt. Efficiency Drive Begun

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today launched a "work improvement" program to cut costs, reduce waste and improve operations in state agencies.

He said the program was aimed at stepping up employee participation in efficient government.

To push his economy program, Brown named a six-man work improvement project committee, headed by Walter Dunbar, deputy director of the Department of Corrections. A termination date of Feb. 1, 1960, was suggested for the project.

"I think at this time when the fiscal condition is so critical we should provide the organization and procedures for an increased emphasis in the area of work improvement," Brown said.

In a follow-up letter to agency heads, the governor said state employees recognize "the seriousness of the situation and have indicated a willingness to assist" in simplifying work, reducing costs and improving operations.

Youngsters Admit Setting Can Afire

Three boys, two 12 years old and the third 10 admitted setting fire to a paint can inside the paint shed at Terra Linda Oaks unit 2 yesterday, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Firemen put out the blaze before it caused any damage. Investigators said one of the boys said he used a cigarette lighter to ignite rubbish inside a paint can.

To Hospital Meet

Two members of the board of directors of the Marin General Hospital District will attend a meeting of the State Advisory Hospital Council Friday in Berkeley. S. Ames Pence, administrator, will accompany Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, board president, and Mrs. Marion C. Ibach, board secretary.

Accidents are fatal to about 13,000 farm residents in the United States each year.

Brown Plans Tour Of State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown expects to tour the state from Eureka to San Diego for two days next month to make "a mid-session report to the people."

Brown disclosed plans for the speechmaking trip this weekend on the first program of his new monthly television series, "The Governor Makes News."

"The time has come to go to the people of California with a full report on our plans and prospects," Brown said.

"I want to talk about what we are doing and why we are doing it, but I also want to listen to the people everywhere we go. I want to hear how they feel about our program."

The governor said he would give special attention in his trip to taxes, water, the budget, education, FEPC, labor and public health issues.

ELECT . . . .
Clayton (Clay) Payne

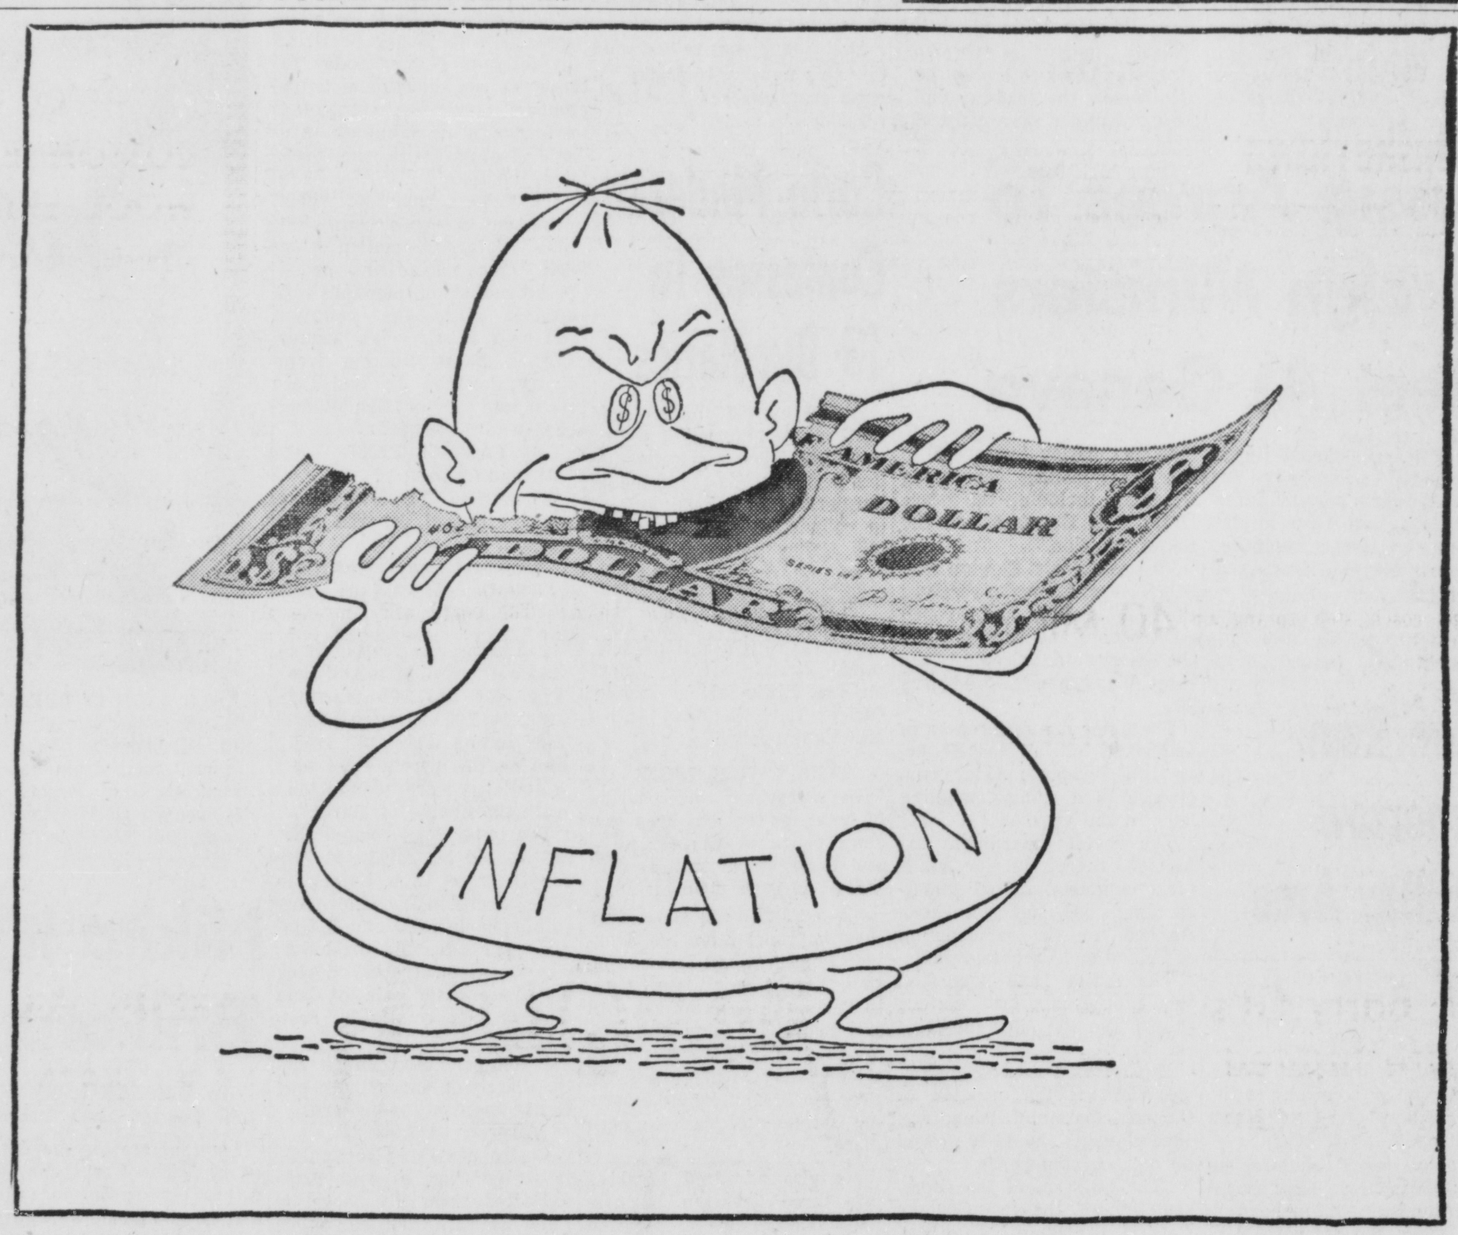
Election Tuesday, April 7, 1959
Qualified Employed as Fire Supervisor Kemper Insurance Group
R. E. Saleme, Committee—Payne for Commissioner



And this is just since the war!

The persistent "nibble" that adds up to a big 32¢ "bite"

The nibbling on your dollar goes on and on and on. Your payroll dollar. Your savings dollar. Just since the war, 32 cents have vanished from the dollar. And the history of inflation all over the world shows that it has a tendency to run faster and faster.

Some people can ride with the tide. But lots of us can't. For most of us, making ends meet is a constant rat race.

One reason further inflation can happen here is that we, as a nation, are living beyond our income.

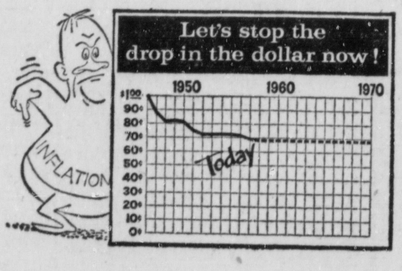
When you hear of millions or billions being poured out on a new project, it's easy to get the idea that government funds come out of a bottomless purse. Instead every cent comes out of your pocket. In taxes . . . or higher prices.

Of course there are dozens of new benefits we'd all like to have . . . but are we prepared to pay the price of these benefits through higher taxes? If we keep on asking, we've got to be ready to keep on paying.

There is a way we can stop further inflation

The most important thing you can do in the fight against inflation is to see that the government—federal, state and local—spends your tax money wisely. You can encourage your representative in Congress, for instance, to fight against expenditures that may be better postponed and to work for a balanced budget.

A move in the right direction would be to see that the Employment Act is made more effective by setting a stable dollar as one of our primary goals along with maximum employment, production and purchasing power.



A balanced budget and a stable dollar will encourage people to add to their savings. Not only will a growing nest egg bring a comfortable feeling of independence and security to millions. But those savings, as they are invested, will provide the capital needed for America's future growth.

80 Prisoners To Help Save Whiskeytown

Eighty San Quentin prisoners who will be transferred to the new conservation camp near Redding, Shasta County, during the next two weeks will have a role in preserving a precious bit of Californiana.

The $500,000 forestry camp is scheduled to open on Wednesday. Twenty minimum security prisoners will be transferred from the prison immediately and another 60 will be moved next week.

The men will be put to work trying to save some of the century-old buildings of Whiskeytown in Shasta County. The stage coach stop sprang up overnight during Gold Rush days but has since become a ghost town.

Colorful relics of the past were fated to be inundated by Trinity River Diversion Project next year until the state Department of Parks and Beaches stepped in. San Quentin prisoners, in cooperation with the department, will dismantle the historic saloons and hotels reassembling them elsewhere.

Ft. Barry GI's Wife Injured In S.F. Crash

A Ft. Barry soldier's wife, Mrs. Wanda Sue Harden, 18, was the victim of a traffic accident as she stood on a San Francisco curb yesterday waiting for the green light so she could cross the street.

Mrs. Harden was waiting at Golden Gate avenue and Gough street when cars driven by Charles F. McNeill, 67, and Charles H. Thomas, 29, both of San Francisco, collided in the intersection. The Thomas car spun out of control, jumped the curb and hit Mrs. Harden. She was treated at Central Emergency Hospital for fracture of the right arm and possible hip fracture, and severe cuts and bruises, then transferred to Letterman Army Hospital.

McNeill was cited by San Francisco police for running a red light, and Thomas, for having no driver's license in his possession.

Mrs. Harden is the wife of Pfc. Billy Harden of Ft. Barry. They live at 865 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco.

53 I-J Newspaperboys Treated To Plane Flight

The boys, accompanied by nine Independent-Journal dealers and Julian Leone, circulation manager, were passengers in a United Air Line DC7 from San Francisco International Airport which flew over Marin County and other Bay Area counties for more than an hour. They won the trip by being top scoring newspaperboy salesmen in their areas during the first week of a current six-weeks contest to obtain new I-J subscribers.

"As a result of their efforts," said Leone today, "the Independent-Journal today has a net paid circulation of over 27,000—an all-time high."

Saturday's flight was arranged by Redwood Travel Advisors of San Rafael. The boys made the trip to and from the airport by chartered bus. They are from Belvedere, Tiburon, Sausalito, Mill Valley, Novato and West Marin.

A similar flight in June will be offered top newspaperboys in central Marin, said Leone. Other prizes in the contest include flight bags donated by Bay Area airline companies, a trip to Disneyland, radios, baseball equipment and others.

The boys are now offering to new and present subscribers a "Home Reading" plan which permits purchase of as many as 40 nationally circulated magazines at bargain prices.

FLOWERS OF SPRING DECORATE CROSS

One of the more colorful Easter rites is the placing of spring blooms on a barren cross, symbolic of rebirth. It was carried out yesterday by children of Marin Lutheran Church in Corte Madera, who carried the flowers to a hillside cross near the church. BREAKOUT

Venetia, who is suspected as the second youth who with Mancebo instigated the escape, was nabbed by police at a San Rafael home on Shaver street where he took refuge. San Rafael police picked him up last night at 8:30. When cornered, Joseph said, "Okay, let's go."

Joseph, who was committed to California Youth Authority last week for his part in the car window smashing incident in San Rafael earlier this month, will be turned over to CYA today or tomorrow, according to Probation Officer Walter Busher.

Busher said he intends to file an assault charge in Marin Juvenile Court against Mancebo. Mancebo was at the hall for threatening a school teacher with a knife.

Two men supervisors and a girls' supervisor were locked up by the gang of toughs, who forcibly grabbed keys to make their escape out the back door and through a gate on the exterior fence. One boy, 16, changed his mind at the back steps and walked back inside. Busher said most of the other inmates, 14 boys and two girls, had a chance to leave but chose to stay at the hall.

Hasson, treated for a bruised left wrist at San Rafael General Hospital, was back on the job today. He gave this account of the uprising:

The boys were watching television in the living room when several youths began making obscene remarks. Hasson told them to stop. When Mancebo persisted, Hasson told him to go to his room.

GIVES UP KEYS

Mancebo jumped up, with several others crowding around. While Hasson stepped into the staff room to call the county farm for help, the youths surrounded Supervisor Joseph De Angelo, who works part time at the hall.

"Two of them were pretty big ones," said De Angelo. "One of the big ones told me, 'Give us your keys or I'll take them away from you.' I tried to argue with them, but they were serious about it. They got pretty threatening. I couldn't handle four of them, so I gave them the keys."

By the time Hasson had reached Acting Supervisor Nick Minitsky on the telephone, the boys had De Angelo's keys and were running toward the girls' wing. Hasson ran after them.

"I got between them and the door. Five or six of them crowded in and demanded the keys. I refused," Hasson related.

THREAT VOICED

Hasson said he was trying to talk them out of violence. In the meantime, somebody tore a cast iron bar from the wall where a wrestling mat was hung and handed it to Mancebo.

"He swung the pipe and said, 'I'll kill you,' " Hasson recalled. "I just ignored him and kept talking to them. He then hit the refrigerator and warned, 'next time it will be your head.' I still kept talking. Then Joseph pulled the keys off my belt. I reached out toward Joseph, and Mancebo swung the pipe directly at my head. I raised my arm and deflected it."

With keys in hand, the boys locked Hasson, De Angelo, and girls' Supervisor Joanne Nadeau in the isolation room. They then broke into the staff room, where they took watches, wallets and money with them, and tore out of the back door.

In the excitement, they overlooked Miss Jacqueline Johnson, another girls' supervisor. She used her keys to release the other supervisors.

The alarm spread throughout Marin, and the roundup began.

At 2:35 a.m. Easter Sunday, a 17-year-old boy from San Rafael was spotted walking along Highway 101 near Ignacio. He started to run up the hillside when he saw Deputy Sheriff Ernest Neilsen. He tried to hide in the grass. Neilsen used his spotlight and fired one shot wide of his hiding place. The boy surrendered immediately.

About the same time in San Anselmo near Isabel Cook School, Deputy Sheriff Leo Ballard and Inspectors Carl Sears and Guido Battaglia caught two boys, 14 and 15, inside a phone booth. They said they had walked from juvenile hall to White's Hill, then hitched a ride to San Anselmo.

About 4:40 a.m. San Anselmo police picked up five juveniles near the Greyhound bus depot. Officers Louis McAllister and William Dooley caught them as they came up from the creek bank.

One girl, 16, and four boys, two 16 and the others 14 and 17, were caught in this roundup. San Anselmo police began scouring the area when a mother of one of the escapees reported she had picked up her son and another boy, but they had jumped out of the car near Drake Market on Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

At 8:40 last night, the mother of a 15-year-old boy took her son to the sheriff's office.

Five minutes later, Joseph was caught on Shaver street in San Rafael by Officers John Kingston, Wade Powell and Leo Schwab.

One boy, who went to his home in Marinwood, was turned over to the sheriff by his father.

NIKITA

and a lack of scruples, have made Khrushchev's life story a Communist-style saga of rags to riches.

The Khrushchev era in the U.S.S.R. is now about five years old. In that brief historical period the 5 foot 5, 220-pound, former coal miner has zoomed to the top of the Soviet heap.

Perhaps he went too far too fast. He is not yet the sole inheritor of Stalin's awesome power. Those who stood in the way of his climb have been silenced, but not eliminated. His victories have been dazzling, but their foundation is flimsy.

He was born in a hovel in Kalinovka, in Kursk province, not far from the Ukraine, April 17, 1894. His father, Sergei, may have owned a small plot of land around the mud and reed hovel and thus have been a "kulak"—a landowning peasant. But his chief trade was that of coal miner. Nikita's grandfather had been a serf, one of the agricultural slaves freed by czar Alexander in 1861.

BECOMES MINER

Nikita at 17 was working as a locksmith in a factory at Kharkov in the Ukraine. From there he traveled to the Donets Basin to work in the coal mines. He was there, a man of 23, when the Russian revolution burst out.

Khrushchev took no active part in the revolution against the czar. But in 1918, when the Bolsheviks were striking for power, he joined the party and served in the First Proletarian Regiment in the Donets Basin during the first part of the bloody civil war.

Somehow Khrushchev managed to bring himself to the attention of his superiors. He became head of the agricultural section of the Kursk city Soviet. Then he was placed in command of a battalion to fight White forces in the Ukraine. Khurshchev's battalion was wiped out.

GETS NEW JOB

But Khrushchev's talent for blaming his mistakes on others came to the fore. He became political commissar of a big guerrilla detachment.

After the war, Khrushchev worked for a while in an iron mine and for the first time, at 27, got a chance to go to school. He studied at a workers' faculty for three years in Kharkov, and went from there to party jobs in Stalino and Kiev. Then came his first big break.

Khrushchev's party work came to the notice of Lazar Moisevich Kaganovich, the dreaded "iron commissar," then first party secretary in the Ukraine. Kaganovich had Khrushchev sent to Moscow's Industrial Academy in 1929 for further studies.

His studies completed in 1931, Khrushchev became secretary of a regional Moscow party committee, once again the protege of Kaganovich, then secretary of the Moscow committee and member of the ruling Central Committee. Khrushchev went to various industrial centers to root out Stalin's enemies.

Khrushchev also threw himself with a will into Kaganovich's program for transforming Moscow, doing much of the work of organizing labor for such projects as the celebrated Moscow subway. That won him the Order of Lenin.

A quarter century later Khrushchev would repay his benefactor by bouncing him out of the post-Stalin hierarchy.

But in 1934 Khrushchev was just a Kaganovich man, and his boss got him finally on the powerful central committee.

CASTRO

Jr. on June 4, 1953, and sold the garage to Scettrini Jr. on Aug. 14, 1953. Scettrini paid $12,000 cash for the tow cars and paid $6,500 down on the $25,000 price of the garage.

The sale was completed and all but $3,000 of the price paid before Castro was appointed to the board of supervisors in November, 1953.

NEGOTIATIONS BEGUN

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich produced records showing the county board of supervisors was negotiating through Marius Cordone, realty broker, for the Scettrini land for a fairgrounds. The $237,000 price was that at which it was offered through Cordone.

Residents of Santa Venetia protested against a fairgrounds being located there, however, and the board of supervisors (of which Castro was not then a member) dropped the matter.

Supervisor Vera Schultz revived the move to purchase the Scettrini land—but for a civic center, not just a fairgrounds. Again the county started to negotiate through Cordone. After several months of fruitless negotiations, Mrs. Schultz persuaded her fellow supervisors to negotiate through the district attorney's office without an intermediary.

Meanwhile, said Weissich, Scettrini received an offer of $2,950 per acre for the land. A deposit was placed in escrow.

Then the supervisors (with Castro now a member) acted, ordering condemnation proceedings to get the land for the county. The suit never went to trial, Scettrini accepting a negotiated price of $2,850 per acre from the county.

County records show the total price paid was $412,969, plus interest and taxes from December 1955, said Weissich. This would total approximately the $417,000 mentioned in the anonymous letter.

"The record speaks for itself," said Castro. "I was not a member of the board of supervisors when I sold my garage, and that transaction had nothing to do with the purchase of the civic center land."

Delay by the board of supervisors cost the county the difference between $237,000 and $417,000 for the land, Weissich agreed, but Castro was not a party to the earlier, unsuccessful negotiations.

"I would welcome a grand jury investigation into my affairs at any time," said Castro.

Nervous System's Role With Allergies Explained

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Children and adults who are overly sensitive to certain food, cloth, hair, or perhaps pollen in the air are said to have allergies. Perhaps you are allergic to something yourself.

Have you ever wondered why only some people are allergic to strawberries or eggs? And why others are able to eat all the strawberries and eggs they want?

The blame or cause of the allergy cannot be the food or pollen since some people are not bothered at all. The trouble then is something within you.

Allergies and many other illnesses are caused by poor functioning of the nervous system.

Nerves frequently are pinched by bone as they leave the spinal cord and spread throughout the body. This reduces the normal nerve impulses from the brain and the affected parts of the body are unable to do their usual job. Allergies then develop.

They generally can be overcome once a chiropractor locates the nerve interference and corrects the spinal defect.

French Try To Purify Language; Down With 'Gongstair', 'Boojay'

PARIS (UPI) — A drive is on to purge the French language of all foreign words—especially the American slang expressions which have become increasingly prevalent since World War II.

The semi-official Office of French Vocabulary has set Wednesday as D-Day in a drive to eliminate foreign words from French speech.

The office, headed by Georges Duhamel of the French Academy, has asked readers to report all publications which use foreign words on that day. Although no formal punishment of the publications is contemplated, Duhamel's office will try to mobilize moral indignation against them.

A number of American expressions are in common use in France, although the fact is not apparent to the casual tourist. On a Frenchman's tongue, "gangster" becomes "gong-stair" and "budget" is "boo-jay."

The vocabulary office is urging French newspapers to refrain from the use of such words, using the French equivalent instead — and, presumably, inventing an equivalent where none now exists.

The drive has borne some fruit in official circles. Practically all French officials now say "oleoduc" when they mean "pipeline." even though ordinary Frenchmen — more accustomed to the American term — often don't know what they're talking about.

England contributed such words as "high life" (pronounced "igg-leaf), "weekend," "five o'clock" (meaning afternoon tea), "football' and "flirts" to the French vocabulary during the years between the great wars, and "gangster" was a well-established American import before World War II.

Since the war, the dominant foreign influence on the French language has been American. Frenchmen like to show off their linguistic talents by dropping such words as "call-girl," "pickpocket" or "brain trust" into their conversation, just as their American counterparts use expressions like "tout de suite."

Inmate Found Hiding In Gym

Oscar B. Lugo, 33-year-old Mexican serving time in San Quentin Prison for grand theft and child molesting from Los Angeles County, was found hiding under benches in the prison gymnasium at 4:15 p.m. yesterday, said Associate Warden Louis S. Nelson.

Lugo told prison officials he hid because he was scared. He owed too many cigarettes and couldn't pay them. Unidentified inmates had threatened to hurt him if he didn't pay up.

Lugo was placed in a solitary cell to await a hearing before the prison disciplinary committee tomorrow.

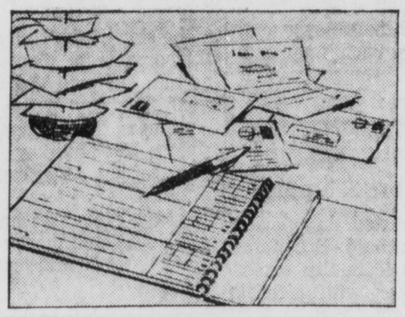
☐ On a weekend or at night?

☐ For emergency car repairs?



☐ For unexpected bills?

☐ For a family emergency?

An Automatic Credit Account would have given you cash fast. Prepare now for the unexpected in the year ahead. Open your Automatic Credit Account today.

Now you can prepare for the unexpected and put your personal finances on a business basis!

AMERICAN TRUST COMPANY

announces the NEW

Automatic Credit Account

This new kind of account gives you credit at the bank. It's a reserve to draw on whenever and wherever you need it, and whatever you need it for.

Once this comprehensive credit account is established, you can write a check, or checks, for any amount that you may need—up to the full limit of your credit.

Automatically, the bank advances money to cover any Automatic Credit checks you write and once a month sends you a statement of your account indicating the payment due.

Automatically, as you pay your bill at the bank, you restore the amount of credit available to you.

Like a business, you set up a "line of credit." This forethought means you don't have to touch your "capital"—that is, dip into your savings—to meet an unexpected need.

And your Automatic Credit Account costs you nothing at all until you actually write your first check.

Here's what it does for you:

A business approach to family finances. Of course, just like a business, you try to keep your "operating budget"—your ordinary living expenses—well within your monthly income. But, inevitably, there are unusual major expenses. Maybe it's a medical or dental emergency, tuition, taxes, or vacation costs. These extra expenses are the ones Automatic Credit can help you handle more efficiently.

"Ready cash" in a hurry. Your house, car, insurance, other property or investments all represent major assets. Yet none of these can be converted to cash quickly without delay and serious sacrifice. Now you can protect yourself and your assets. Assets mean credit and credit means cash—when you have an Automatic Credit Account at American Trust Company. Automatic Credit Account checks represent a reserve of "ready cash" right in your pocket.

"Ready cash" means smarter buying! How often have you missed a big opportunity because your cash reserve was low? Or put off needed repairs or improvements? Whether you're in the market for a house, a car, new furniture, or a good buy for the freezer, your Automatic Credit Account gives you practical "working capital"—cash to snap up a bargain, earnest money for a major purchase.

Consolidation can save you money and worry! Sometimes you need one large sum to clear up several big bills, put you on an even keel again. Now, just as a comprehensive insurance policy can cover many insurance needs, Automatic Credit gives you comprehensive credit coverage. Automatic Credit ends the need for special loans.

When you are away on a business trip, your wife and children can be protected. Automatic Credit Account checks left at home represent a stand-by reserve to meet unexpected household expenses or emergencies.

Here's how it works:

You don't have to be a depositor! All you do is fill out a simple application for the amount of credit you'd like to have available. As soon as your application is approved, you can use part or all of it. There are no application fees and your Automatic Credit Account costs nothing until you use it.

Your "line of credit" can be $300 — or up to $3,000. Your Automatic Credit Account will be based on 24 times the amount you can comfortably repay per month. For example, if you arrange to repay $30 per month, your maximum credit will be $720. Once you start using your Automatic Credit Account you will receive a monthly statement showing the amount of your "line of credit" which is in use and the monthly payment due.

You receive a book of checks which look to any payee like an ordinary check. They are specially coded so that only you and the bank know you are using credit.

How you pay back the credit used. Your monthly payments will be 1/24th of your "line of credit," or 1/10th of the actual balance due—whichever is less (with a minimum payment of $25). The charge for using your Automatic Credit Account is 1¼ per cent of the balance due each month, plus 25 cents for each check used.

You have a revolving cash reserve. As monthly payments are made, reducing the balance due on the account, you automatically restore the amount of credit available to you.

It's good business to be prepared! An Automatic Credit Account makes it easy to plan ahead. Come in to any office of American Trust Company and let our people tell you how this Automatic Credit Account can help you.

SAD SAM HAPPY TO JOIN GIANTS

Jones Rates S.F. Top Contender

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—The newest San Francisco Giant of them all, pitcher Sam Jones, was tentatively set to pitch a few innings today when the bay team hosted the Chicago Cubs in a Cactus League tussle.

The gangling righthander, key figure in a big trade with the St. Louis Cardinals, arrived here late yesterday. He brought a cold with him from soggy Florida, but still said he was ready to hurl when Manager Bill Rigney wanted him to. Rigney indicated that would be today.

Jones said that he had not had any arm trouble this year and also said that he felt the Giants "had as good a chance as anybody" to cop the National League flag this year.

"I'm glad to be here," drawled the slope-shouldered righthander on his arrival at the airport last night.

"The big thing in baseball is to get ahead—and now, for sure, I'm with a club that has a definite chance to win the pennant."

He struck out 225 batters last season—best record in the National League and an all-time high for the Redbirds.

Centerfielder Willie Mays, Jones' buddy, met him at the airport when he flew in from his home in Monongah, W. Va.

Sad Sam denied he was worried about Seals Stadium in San Francisco which he cussed while with the Cards as "the worst ballpark in America—bar none."

That the Giants can use another front line hurler was demonstrated again yesterday. San Francisco hammered four home runs, but came out on the short end of a 9-7 slugfest against Boston.

The Bosox had three round-trippers themselves with Frank Malzone's two-run belt in the ninth spelling the Giants' doom.

Ed Bhessoud, Orlando Cepeda, Jackie Brandt and Andre Rodgers were the Giant fourmaster hitters, but the most significant blow may have been a triple by Mays. Willie legged it out at top speed, slid into third and gave no indication of being bothered by his recently injured leg.

Brandt and Felipe Alou each had two of the Giants' 11 hits.

Malzone's game-winning blast was his second of the day, while rookie Pumpsie Green had the other Bosox homer.

Jack Sanford started for San Francisco and was relieved by Dom Zanni, who receipted for the loss. The defeat evened the Giants' Cactus League record at 9-9.

Scheduled to see action today for San Francisco along with Jones were Stu Miller and Curt Barclay.

'Hungry' Olson 9-5 Favorite Over Calhoun In S.F. Clash

Former meddleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, a hungry fighter again at age 30, continues his campaign for a light heavyweight title bout when he battles hard-hitting Rory Calhoun tonight.

Olson is a 9-5 favorite.

Bobo has won three comeback fights, all by knockout, but not against the caliber of Calhoun, a ranking 160-pound contender.

They meet over the 10-round route at the San Francisco Cow Palace in a non-televised bout expected to do a $40,000 business. Olso fights for a guarantee of $10,000 or 35 per cent of the net while Calhoun stands to collect $7,500 or 25 per cent, whichever is greater.

Olson's share might appear large, but it won't do too much in erasing the $53.200 tax bill Uncle Sam holds against him.

Olson has 11 dependents, his ex-wife, Helen, and four children and his present wife, Judy, and five.

The income tax problem stems from the days when he ruled the 160-pound class and earned hundreds of thousands. Then he tried for the light heavyweight title and Archie Moore knocked him out. Ray Robinson KOed him twice, lifting the middleweight champion with the first one, and heavyweight Pat McMurtry also stopped him.

Now Olson says he is in the right weight class and feels strong at 174 pounds or so.

"Making the 160-pound limit used to weaken me," he says. "I'd see a punch coming and try to get out of the way but couldn't do it fast enough."

Since starting his comeback as a 175-pounder, Olson has shown to advantage. His three knockout victims include Paddy Young of New York who also tried a comeback.

Calhoun, of White Plains, N.Y., isn't giving Bobo a thing—except a few pounds in the weight column. Rory figures to weigh 168 and without the worries of getting down to 160 figures he will have more zip.

"You'll see it the night of the fight," he declares.

The Hawaiian-born Olson, who lives in San Francisco, has won 69 fights and lost 10 with 5 by knockout. Calhoun has won 39, lost 6 and fought one draw. He has been stopped only once, by Spider Webb at the Cow Palace.

Olson terms San Francisco his lucky town. He has fought here 18 times and lost only once, a close 15-round decision to Robinson in March, 1952.

Following the main event, Esau Ferdinand, former California middleweight champion, meets Cal Houston of Los Angeles in a 10-rounder.

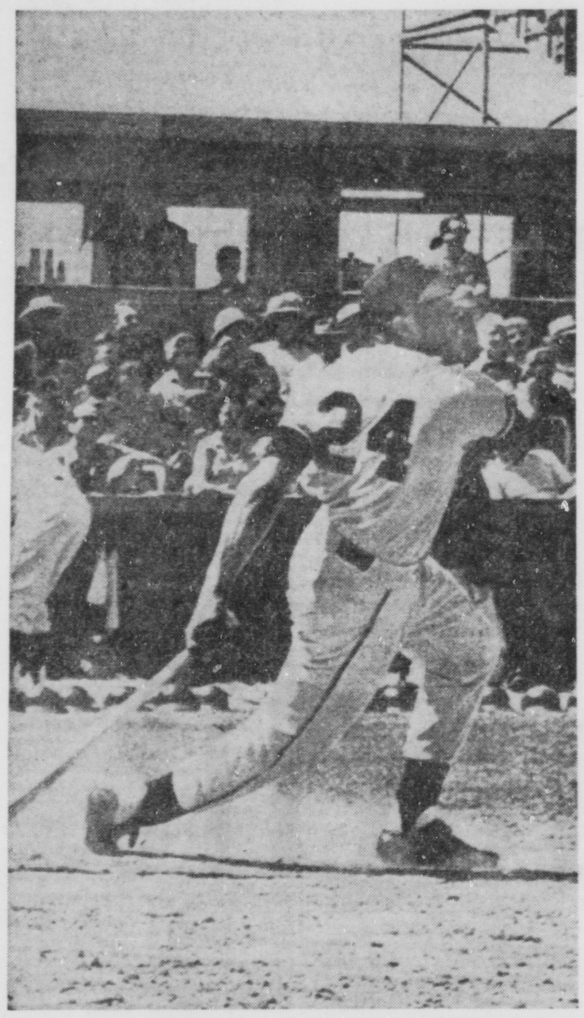
First preliminary starts at 8:30 o'clock. The main even will go on around 9:15.



WILLIE'S BACK — Star centerfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants returned to action yesterday and showed he has completely recovered from a leg injury that put him out of the lineup March 12. Here he watches his three-base hit soar into left field. He raced around the bags and slid into third, showing no signs of trouble from the gashed leg that required 35 stitches. (AP Wirephoto)

TEBBETTS MIFFED

Braves Blasted For Complacency

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the opening of the National League season less than two weeks away, the champion Milwaukee Braves are doing nothing to improve their own confidence or their stock in the rest of the loop.

Consider:

1. Their record is the worst in the Grapefruit League, 5-13.

2. They still haven't found a satisfactory replacement for second baseman Red Schoendienst, out with TB.

3. General Manager Birdie Tebbetts admits he's worried about the complacency on the team.

And if that isn't enough, old faithful Warren Spahn was blasted for four home runs in yesterday's 7-3 Braves' loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

Operating at second base was 23-year-old Chuck Cottier—good field, no hit. At the moment, he has the call over Felix Mantilla and Joe Morgan.

"I'm concerned about complacency on the club," Tebbetts said.

"I'm more worried about the fact that we have no young fellows to battle the others out for their jobs—to make them put out."

Tebbetts and Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul talked trade in Miami Sunday, But like the rest of the league, Paul senses the Braves are in trouble and isn't of a mind to help them plug the second base gap.

After pitching a three-hit shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals last Tuesday, Spahn was shelled for six runs by the Reds. The homer hitters were Frank Robinson, Dutch Dotterer, Johnny Temple and Pete Whisenant. Robinson hit another later against Joey Jay.

In other games Sunday, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5; the Cleveland Indians turned back the Chicago Cubs, 4-2; the Boston Red Sox whipped the San Francisco Giants, 9-7 and the Kansas City A's halted the Washington Senators, 3-2, in seven innings.

The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees played a 3-3 tie that was called off because of rain after eight innings, while the St. Louis-Philadelphia and Los Angeles-Detroit games were rained out.

Prep Finals Postponed

Championship playoff in the annual Marin County High School Baseball Tournament, already twice postponed, was delayed again today by the rain.

Originally scheduled for last Tuesday night, put off to Thursday and then postponed until this afternoon, the final game now has been rescheduled for next Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at Albert Field in San Rafael, according to Tourney Director Ray Bell of Tamalpais High.

The finalists are Drake's Pirates and the Redwood Giants.

Wall Holds Strong Lead

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — Art Wall Jr., who says he would be happy just to get a par 72 in the brisk wind which has whipped the course for three days, went into the final round of the 11th annual Azalea Open Golf Tournament today with an impressive seven-under par 209.

Mike Souchak, who played against Wall on the Duke University course years ago, moved into the challenger's spot in the third round yesterday, five strokes behind. The Grossinger, N.Y. pro and former Blue Devil football player turned in the day's best showing with a 70 that gave him a 214 total.

But Wall's blistering 66 of Saturday enabled him to hold a steady lead with his 36-35—71 third round score.

Wall, Souchak and Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., with a 215 total, were the only three players to come up below par through the first 54 holes of the $15,000 tourney.

Ted Enters Hospital; Awaits Word On X-Ray

BOSTON (AP)—Red Sox slugger Ted Williams was admitted to New England Baptist Hospital today for examination and treatment of his neck and shoulder which have been paining him for a couple of weeks.

X-rays were taken, after which Williams left the hospital to attend to personal affairs.

He was due back at the hospital later. It was not known how long the 40-year-old outfielder would stay.

At the hospital, Williams consulted with Dr. Charles Fager, a neurosurgeon.

Despite his repeated triumphs on the field, Williams is experiencing still another of a long line of physical ailments which have plagued him since his World War II hitch as a Marine pilot.

GROWS WORSE

"I'm all right, I'm all right," the defending American League batting king said when he left the plane at Logan Airport. "This has been bothering me for about two weeks now and been getting progressively worse. It's definitely more than muscular but I'm not worried about it."

"I was feeling better than in some time when this thing hit me," Williams continued. "I was hoping for once I could get through my spring training without some handicap interfering with my program."

Delany Wins, But Disappoints Fans

CHICAGO (AP)—Peerless Don Delany, who seems to win with incredible ease, has carted off the huge Bankers Mile Trophy but—contrary to the hopes of track fans—in unspectacular fashion.

About 10,210 fans jammed the International Amphitheatre Saturday night for the 23rd annual Chicago Relays, hoping Delany might make his 34th straight indoor mile victory and third Bankers a record one.

They had reason to hope. This was the Villanova graduate student's last indoor mile of the season. And, last year, the 24-year-old Irishman cracked the indoor mark with a 4:03.4 in the relays.

Instead, Delany, running what he called his easiest race of the campaign, methodically pounded out a 4:06.4 mile.

Bears Romp To Easy Track Win

BERKELEY (UPI)—California swept to an easy track victory over the Santa Clara Youth Village and the San Francisco Olympic Club Saturday.

Scores were 81-48-30, although the Olympic Club was weakened by having a pair of stars gone to participate in the Easter Relays at Santa Barbarba. Santa Clara University athletes also participated here Saturday, but were unable to score a point.

A pair of Cal sophs stole the show with Alan Gaylord running a 9:16.4 two-mile and Cebron Russ broad-jumping 24 feet 1 inch.

Willie White was a double winner for Cal with a 9.7 second 100 and a :23.3 low hurdles victory.

Lakers Gain NBA Finals; Baylor Hero

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The amazing Elgin Baylor today climbed aboard the pedestal previously reserved for only George Mikan at Minneapolis.

There was no shoving.

Baylor earned his niche alongside the former Minneapolis great this weekend as he led the Lakers in the National Basketball Assn.'s final playoff.

It was Baylor's prolific scoring as well as his superlative defensive work that enabled Minneapolis to defeat St. Louis in two consecutive games and eliminate the defending champion Hawks 4-2 in their best-of-seven series.

Rookie Baylor, an All-America at Seattle last year, scored 36 points Saturday night—seven of eight Minneapolis scored in overtime—as the Lakers squeezed out a 98-97 decision. Baylor's foul shot in the last 27 seconds won it.

Yesterday at Minneapolis the Western division playoff title was on the line. Baylor came through with 33 points in a clutch performance. His two free throws with a minute left proved the margin of victory in the 106-104 triumph.

The Eastern division semi-final playoff between Boston and Syracuse is tied at three games each with the deciding contest to be played Wednesday in Boston. The Celtics romped 129-108 at home Saturday, but the Nats squared it with a 133-121 victory yesterday at Syracuse.

Dolph Schayes with 39 points and George Yardley with 32 paced Syracuse. George Ramsey led Boston with 26.

LONG EQUALS SHOT RECORD

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — Dallas Long's world record-equalling shot put of 63 feet 2 inches will be submitted for official recognition.

Easter Relays officials said all conditions were met when the 18-year-old University of Southern California giant made the throw Saturday.

The record was originally established by Parry O'Brien former USC star. O'Brien finished third Saturday.

Former Kansas athlete Bill Nieder, now of the U. S. Army, was second with 62 feet 9 inches. The best O'Brien could do was 62 feet ¼ inch.

'Big O' Paces East Over West Stars

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A sparkling shooting exhibition led by Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson and Mike Mendenhall brought the East a 102-71 victory over the West in the Ararat Shrine Temple's eighth all-star basketbaly game Saturday night.

All-America Robertson led the scoring with 22 points, one more than made by teammate Mendenhall, who was especially active for the East in its drive to a 47-41 half time lead.

Records Fall As Herb Wins 'Bullship Race'

A record time and a record turnout marked the sixth annual "Bullship Race" Saturday as a fleet of 102 eight-foot El Toros raced three miles across the bay from Sausalito to the San Francisco shore.

Dan Herb of Lake Merritt Sailing Club, 1958 winner, prevailed again, setting a new mark of one hour and two minutes.

Only 17 minutes separated the first boat from the last in the fleet, as brisk and steady breezes carried the small craft along at a good clip.

The only flip of the day sent escort ships after a youngster, 13-year-old Al Nelson of San Francisco, who was not an official entry. Twenty-one is the minimum age for participation.

Tom Lee, also of Lake Merritt, was second by five seconds; Richard Jacobsen, Aeolian Y.C., third to cross the line and earn the Ondine trophy for the best maiden voyage; J. R. Gendreau, Palo Alto, was fourth and Caroline Ladd of Lake Merritt, in fifth place, was the first woman to finish, winning the Sirena award.

BEARD, DAWSON FINALISTS IN NOVATO GOLF

K. J. Beard will tangle with Nort Dawson next Sunday for the Indian Valley Golf Club's second annual Sjring Handicap Tournament championship at the Novato course.

They are the last two survivors in the field following yesterday's semi-final round as Beard eliminated C. B. Coleman, 6 and 5 and Dawson nipped Steve Meuse.

The 18-hole finals will start at 8:30 a.m. next Sunday.

In the consolation bracket semi-finals yesterday Orv Boyer downed H. J. Ross, 4 and 3 and Byron Dickson stopped Fred Meyer, 2 and 1.

In weekend match vs. par play at Novato, Phil Nathan led the field by coming home 4 up, followed by Dawson, H. L. Burnell, Boyer and Bud Sparrow each 2 up and Dickson and Meuse each 1 up.

Marin Merman 4th In NCAA

Gordon Collet, 18-year-old Novato swimmer who set an American record Friday, failed in his attempt to score a "double" victory as the NCAA swimming and diving championships completed a three-day run Saturday in Ithica, N.Y.

The star of the University of Oklahoma team placed fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke event Saturday in the time of 2 minutes, 24.2 seconds. The winner, Bill Mulliken of Miami, Ohio, set an American record in 2:21.6.

Friday Collet set an American, NCAA and meet record in the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:03.2.

U.S. Troops In Japan Ruled Unconstitutional

TOKYO (AP) — A lower Japanese court ruled today that the presence of U.S. bases and troops in Japan is unconstitutional.

The decision, if upheld by higher courts, could wreck the U.S. defense setup in this strategic Far Eastern nation.

It also would bring into review all of the international commitments made by Japan since she regained independence in 1952.

SURPRISE VERDICT

The surprise verdict was made by the three-man Tokyo District Court in acquitting seven men indicted in 1957 after they broke into the U.S. Tachikawa Air Base outside Tokyo to protest its expansion.

The court, freeing them, said the presence of U.S. bases and personnel in Japan violated the famous "no-war" Article 9 of the Japanese constitution, which was largely written by the American occupation authorities after the war.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGE

It also declared the Japanese citizens were discriminated against by special laws connected with the treaties giving the United States the right to station troops. It was under one of these laws, the special criminal code, that the defendants were indicted.

The Japanese government has 14 days to appeal.

The American Embassy said any comment from it on the actions and decisions of a Japanese court would be improper.

LONG LITIGATION

It might be years before a final decision is handed down.

Japan's constitution renounced war forever as a means of national policy. But Gen. Douglas McArthur, while U.S. supreme commander in Japan, directed that the constitution would be interpreted to mean that Japan could have military forces provided they were for defense purposes.

AFRICA LEADER MAY BE DEAD IN PLANE CRASH

BANGUI, Central Africa, (UPI) — A plane with Premier Barthelemey Boganda aboard crashed 55 miles west of here yesterday and the fate of Boganda and eight other persons was unknown.

The wreckage of the plane was found today, strewn over a hillside near the village of Benaza. There was no immediate report of the discovery of human remains among the debris, and it was considered possible that Boganda and others among his official party may have parachuted to safety.

Boganda, an African native, became the chief of government in Central Africa—formerly the French colony of Ubangi Shari — when it recently achieved the status of an autonomous republic in President Charles de Gaulle's "French Community."

Two Ex-Underground Fighters Team Up In Engineering Firm

Marin Becomes Home Base For European Pair

ENGINEERING PARTNERS—Polish-born Stanley M. Bala (left) of Kentfield and Danish-born Jesper C. Strandgaard of Mill Valley opened Marin County's newest engineering office this month in San Rafael. Both registered civil engineers, they are veterans of wartime underground armies of their native lands. (Independent-Journal photo)

Marin County has a new engineering firm, established this month in San Rafael by two men who once risked their lives in the wartime underground forces of their native lands.

The two partners, both 36 and both experienced in civil and structural engineering, are Polish-born Stanley M. Bala of 15 Manor road, Kentfield, and Jesper C. Strandgaard of 11 Eugene street, Mill Valley, a native of Denmark.

Offices of the Bala and Strandgaard firm are located in Suite 309 of the Herzog-Rake Building, 1005 A street, San Rafael.

Bala formerly was project design engineer with International Engineering Corp. in San Francisco. The firm is a subsidiary of the giant Morrison-Knudsen Corp., which has construction projects throughout the world.

Strandgaard's most recent position was that of senior civil engineer with Svedrup and Parcel Engineering Co. in San Francisco.

MEET IN 1951

The new partners met in 1951 while working for the same consulting firm in Clarksburg, W. Va., Bala as a bridge engineer and Strandgaard as a designer and, later, chief engineer.

They decided to enter business together in this county because they felt Marin, with a rapidly growing population and a need for many types of construction to meet that growth, could use more engineers. Both registered civil engineers, they are prepared to design anything from retaining walls and drainage ditches to subdivisions and industrial plants.

MARINA DEVELOPMENT

Bala, who came to Marin in 1954, and Strandgaard, who moved here the following year, also have expressed interest in the county's potential for marine-type developments.

In 1942, Bala received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Wawelberg Mechanical College in Warsaw. He obtained a master of science degree in civil and structural engineering in 1950 at Polish University College in London, England.

An accomplished highboard diver, Bala was named in 1939 to the Polish Olympic swimming team which was to compete in the summer games at Helsinki, Finland, the following year.

DREAM ENDS

But his dream of becoming an Olympic champion was short-lived, ending with the German invasion of Poland on Sept. 1, 1939.

Nazi occupation officials permitted the reopening of Wawelberg Mechanical College early in 1940 because engineers were needed for work on German military projects. But the students outfoxed them. By prearrangement, all members of the 1942 class, first to graduate under occupation rule, vanished from sight the day after they received their degrees.

Bala and his fellow graduates changed their names, moved to new addresses and could not be found by the Nazis, who promptly closed the college.

POLISH UNDERGROUND

Already experienced in resistance activities, Bala spent the next three years as a member of the Polish underground army. He did intelligence work and served as courier and war correspondence. His principal job was supplying information to the Polish government in exile via contacts in the neutral countries of Sweden and Switzerland.

Bala participated in the ill-fated Warsaw uprising of 1944. In 64 days of bitter fighting the Nazis killed nearly 200,000 Poles, evacuated the city's remaining population of almost two million and systematically destroyed every building in the Polish capital.

Among the last underground fighters to be captured, Bala and some 17,000 compatriots capitulated as Nazi troops were about to clean up the city's final pocket of resistance.

GERMAN PRISONER

Imprisoned in Lubeck, Germany, Bala was liberated by British and Polish forces in May of 1945. His wife, Maria, had been seized early in the Warsaw uprising. First a prisoner of the Germans and later of the Russians, she fled Poland in the winter of 1945 and was reunited with her husband shortly after Christmas that year.

They came to the U.S. in the summer of 1951 and spent 18 months in West Virginia before moving to San Francisco, where Bala was employed by Bechtel Corp. until late 1955.

During his three years with International Engineering Corp., Bala worked on two important Brazilian hydroelectric projects. He helped design the 400-foot Furnas Dam, South America's largest, as acting and then assistant project design engineer. And he was project design engineer for the Camargos Dam, a 117-foot earthfill structure now being completed by Morrison-Knudsen.

MARIN "BOSS"

His immediate superior on these jobs, incidentally, was James W. Libby of 118 Reed boulevard, Strawberry, who this year was named chief engineer of the international firm.

The career of Strandgaard roughly parallels that of his partner. Born in Copenhagen, he was attending the University of Denmark there when the Nazis occupied his country in April, 1940.

The Germans gave the Danes a relatively easy time of it at first, even permitting them to maintain their small army. Like Bala, Strandgaard was allowed to continue his studies. During summer vacations he served in the Danish army. He received a bachelor of science degree in mathematics, physics and chemistry in 1942.

DETENTION CAMPS

In 1943, the Germans suddenly got tougher. The Danish army was dissolved and all military personnel were put in detention camps. But most of them, including Strandgaard, were released about three months later. They soon became the core of an underground organization which secretly trained civilians for combat. Happily, the training proved unnecessary.

During this uneasy time, Strandgaard was able to resume his university studies. In 1946, one year after the war ended, he received a master of science degree in civil and structural engineering.

His first job took him to Norway as a government surveyor for the reconstruction of Kirkenes, a town the Nazis had completely destroyed.

YEAR IN ENGLAND

He went to England in 1948, working one year with a chemical firm before coming to the U.S. During his six years in West Virginia, he rose from designer to consulting engineer and, finally, chief engineer with the Frank D. McEnteer Co. In 1952, he and Bala designed a $200,000 municipal building and parking decks for the city of Grafton, W. Va.

Strandgaard is a member of the American Society of Danish Engineers and the American Concrete Institute. He is unmarried.

Italy Agrees To Allow U.S. Missile Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italy's agreement to station Jupiter missiles on her territory is expected to heighten the importance of the Atlantic Pact strategy conference opening here Thursday.

As foreign ministers of the 15 member nations gathered in Washington for preliminary talks, diplomatic officials last night reported that Italy, after a year of negotiation, had approved the placing of intermediate range missile bases in northern Italy.

From these bases, a Jupiter could reach the southern portion of the Soviet Union.

The agreement, expected to be formally announced in a few days, means that part of the program set up at the last North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting had been achieved. In December, 1957, the foreign ministers agreed to build IRBM bases in the North Atlantic area.

This year's conference, which marks the 10th anniversary of NATO, will be preceded by vital talks among the foreign ministers of the United States, England, France and West Germany.

They hope to lay out the master blueprint for negotiations with the Soviet Union at a foreign ministers conference in May and a probable summit conference in the summer.

Talks will begin tomorrow with the arrival of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Nehru Denies India Aiding Tibet Rebels

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told Communist China today it could not dictate to India. He also denied Peiping charges that the Tibetan rebels were operating from India soil.

Peiping's formal charges against India have brought relations between the countries to a new low and today's session of parliament was a shouting, desk pounding one in which sympathies were clearly with the Tibetan rebels.

There were predictions the Tibetan revolt would lead to a major shift in India's neutralist foreign policy but Nehru's statements today were cautiously worded. He said India should have friendly relations with Red China. He was cheered when he said Peiping could not dictate to New Delhi.

Peiping radio, which had cautioned India not to discuss China's "internal affairs" in parliament, announced today the puppet Panchen Lama has accepted acting premiership of Tibet and promised to turn the theocracy into a Communist satellite.

Nehru said the question of admitting refugees—including the Dalai Lama, the god-king deposed by Peiping—would be settled as it arose and that India could not open its borders to half the population of another.

Members jumped to their feet, pounded their desks and demanded "why not?" They pointed out that countries neighboring Hungary opened their borders to refugees and demanded the same action for the Tibetans.

The members also charged that oppressive Communist military action in Tibet was a "direct threat" to India's security and demanded Peiping be told the time had come when India could no longer be a spectator.

Nehru specifically denied official Peiping charges that Kalimpong was being used as a rebel base.

Whereabouts of the Dalai Lama still were not known, but a reliable Indian report from Kalimpong said he and 40,000 of his followers were moving south and eastward toward the Indian border and might seek asylum in India.

One unconfirmed report said the 23-year-old god-king was seriously injured in a fall while fleeing from Lhasa.

'Laugh Death' Hits Natives In New Guinea

HONOLULU (AP)—A disease called "the laughing death" is mysteriously destroying natives in New Guinea, a missionary reported here yesterday.

Evelyn Muhlenhard, a lay missionary from Concinnati, said doctors have been unable to determine the cause of the deaths. They have found no disease organisms in the victims.

Miss Muhlenhard said the affliction has mainly hit women and children of the Okapa tribe. They suddenly take sick and "waste away," she said, with their faces contorted in a grin.

She said there had been no indication of witchcraft.

Margaret May Visit Pope John

LONDON (AP) — New Protestant complaints were expected today in the wake of a newspaper report that Princess Margaret may accompany Queen Mother Elizabeth when she calls on Pope John XXIII in Rome next month.

Court sources said the princess is going along when her mother visits the Italian capital April 20-26. The London Sunday newspaper "The People" said the princess was most anxious to meet the Pope.

A British Protestant organization has protested the queen mother's having an audience with Pope John. The protest stems from the fact that Queen Elizabeth II is the titular head of the Church of England.

Princess Margaret was received by the late Pope Pius XII at the Vatican 10 years ago to the accompaniment of similar criticism from British Protestants.

The report in "The People" said palace and foreign office officials are urging the 28-year-old princess not to call on the new Pope.

"No member of the British royal family for centuries has paid a second visit to Rome after having been received in papal audience during a previous visit," the paper said.

More Rain Perils Madagascar; 50,000 Homeless

TANANARIVE, Madagascar (AP)—Torrential rains pouring down for the fifth straight day worsened the flood-and-hurricane disaster which has hit Madagascar.

At least 50,000 persons were homeless in Tananarive alone, and more than 120 were known dead. Madagascar's Premier Philibert Tisranana called the series of hurricanes and floods "a disaster unprecedented in the island's history."

The government, French-led troops and battalions of relief workers were fighting back with every means available.

Rampaging rivers dealth death and destruction in wide areas of this Florida-sized island off southwest Africa's coast.

Madagascar's weather bureau held out hope this morning that the rain may let up by tomorrow.

15,000 Walk 53 Miles To Protest Arms

LONDON (AP)—A column five miles long filed into central London today with jazz bands blaring and banners demanding an end to all nuclear weapons.

Nearly 15,000 singing demonstrators snarled traffic around Trafalgar Square at the climax of a 53-mile march to the capital from Britain's nuclear arms factory at Aldermaston.

Leaders of the march went to No. 10 Downing street, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's official residence. They delivered a written appeal denouncing nuclear arms as "wholly evil" and calling on Britain to scrap them even if the United States and the Soviet Union won't.

Grace Kelly III, Columnist Says

NEW YORK (UPI) — Concern over Grace Kelly's health has prompted the current visit in Monaco of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelly of Philadelphia, the New York World-Telegram said today.

Frank Farrell, columnist for the Scripps-Howard newspaper, reported that when the Kellys departed to see their daughter and her husband, Prince Rainier, they took with them a prominent surgeon, Dr. James Lehman. The columnist said Princess Grace has not been feeling well, has had several recent attacks of appendicitis and may have to undergo surgery for this and other ailments.

Americans ate about twice as much chicken in 1957 as they did 20 years ago.

Vandals Strike At Old School

Weekend vandalism was reported at Novato's old Grant Avenue School, temporarily used as a meeting place by the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints and as the weekend home of a San Francisco customs man.

Twelve glass windows were shot full of holes by BB pellets, reported Douglas Harvey Larsen of 17 Buena Vista, Novato. Sometime after 4 p.m. Friday, clods of dirt were thrown through the windows, Larsen reported.

August Clement Abeling, 59, of San Francisco reported that sometime in the last two weeks his cabin at 1645 Indian Valley road had been entered, all light bulbs removed from their fixtures and smashed the front door paneling knocked in, and a portable radio and an ax taken.

Sunnyside Terrace Hearing Tonight

The Corte Madera Planning Commission will hold public hearings tonight on a revised proposal for rezoning in Sunnyside Terrace and on a precise site plan for the town park.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The proposal for rezoning of four lots in Sunnyside Terrace is the latest in a number submitted by Carl S. Vella and Cleland O. Whitton of San Francisco.

The request is for the lots to be changed from duplex to apartment use. The change would allow one family per every 2,000 square feet rather then the 4,000 feet now required the zoning of 14 other lots in the subdivision would remain unchanged.

Ike Motors Back To Washington

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower today cut his Easter holiday a bit short, apparently because of rain, and headed back to Washington.

The President plans to return later in the week for a speech on the international situation Saturday morning at Gettysburg College's spring convocation.

Old Mill Plans To Be Discussed

The Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission will hold a special meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the city hall to inspect plans for resoration of the old mill and improvement of the adjacent recreational area, according to Chairman Charles P. Guichard.

Most Wanted Algerian Rebel Reported Killed By French

ALGIERS (UPI)—Rebel "Colonel Amirouche," most ruthless and successful guerrilla leader in Algeria, was shot to death by French troops Friday, the French army announced yesterday.

Amirouche's exploits had made him a hero to Moslem Algerians and the most-wanted man in Algeria to the French.

Another rebel leader, Si Haoues, died later of wounds received in the same gun battle, French sources said. Six other Algerian rebels were killed or wounded.

Only 33 years old, Amirouche had been a guerrilla since the early days of the Algerian rebellion. He took to the hills with a band of followers in October 1954 when the National Liberation Front (FLN) called for an all-out struggle against the French.

Amirouche and his men became known for their ruthlessness, not only against the French but against fellow-Moslems who did not toe the FLN line.

Algerians who did not aid the rebels were shot. When French troops discovered a mass grave in which 400 Algerians were buried last July, they attributed the execution of his fellow-countrymen to Amirouche.

ONE PRIZE EGG ELUDES NOVATO THRONG

Seven Injured In Weekend Auto Accidents

Seven persons, five of them Petaluma residents riding in one car, were injured in three weekend auto accidents on Marin County highways.

The five were hurt at 11 o'clock last night when their northbound car ran off the Pt. Reyes-Petaluma road near Novato boulevard and struck a pole.

LIST OF INJURED

Injured were the driver, Cleon John Ruegge, 40-year-old Petaluma service station operator; his wife, Levia, 42, and daughter Peggy, 2; William Bonner, 46, of Petaluma, and Bonner's wife, Genevieve, also 46. All were taken to Hillcrest Hospital in Petaluma.

Ruegge and his daughter were treated for superficial injuries and his wife for bruises of the left knee and shoulder. The Bonners were admitted to the hospital, Bonner with head cuts and bruises of the back and legs and his wife with rib injuries and leg abrasions.

Ruegge said he was tired and may have dozed at the wheel momentarily, the California Highway Patrol reported.

NOSE INJURY

George Bordi, 53, of San Francisco, suffered a nose injury at 10 o'clock last night in a two-car accident on Highway 101 at Redwood road, Novato. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

Bordi was riding in a southbound car driven by his wife, Sylvia, 40, when it struck an auto that was crossing the highway without lights after pulling away from the Club Rio, the Highway Patrol reported.

Driver of the second vehicle was M/Sgt. John Parks, 42, of the 501st Field Training Detachment, Hamilton Air Force Base. He was cited for failure to yield the right of way and driving without lights.

3-CAR CRASH

Daniel W. Solomon, 41, of Building C-38, Apartment 299, Marin City, suffered minor injuries Saturday at 5 p.m. in a three-car rear-end collision on Highway 101 at Spencer avenue on Waldo Grade. He was treated by a physician.

Solomon was riding in a car driven by his wife Eddye Mae Solomon, 49-year-old beautician. The other cars were driven by Mrs. Gladys Gertrude Cross, 42, of San Francisco, and Andor SeSoos, 59, of San Francisco. All were southbound.

Christian World Celebrates Easter

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Christians rejoiced yesterday in celebration of the Resurrection of their Saviour and its promise of eternal life.

Easter services in huge cathedrals and humble country churches, on mountain tops and at ships at sea repeated the message which gives Christianity its meaning: "He is not here; for he is risen."

Cold weather cut attendance at outdoor services in the Northeast and occasional rain dampened the Easter parade in the Southeast.

Despite near freezing temperatures, an estimated 800,000 persons turned out to parade along New York's Fifth Avenue. The cold and a Good Friday snowstorm froze out the traditional floral display at Rockefeller Center.

At the other end of the country, clear, mild weather brought out a throng of about 20,000 persons at Easter services in California's Hollywood Bowl.

Overseas, almost perfect spring weather greeted an unprecedented number of foreign pilgrims who flocked to Holy Jerusalem, where Christ was crucified nearly 2,000 years ago. Among the pilgrims were Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium.

At Rome, Pope John XXIII said mass at St. Peter's Basilica and prayed that world leaders would bring an end to discord "in the superior interests of peace in the world."

After the two-hour mass, the Pontiff stepped outside and gave his Easter blessing to thousands of persons who stood in a steady rain in St. Peter's Square.

Easter went virtually unnoticed in Moscow and the only service was at the city's only Roman Catholic Church where mass was said Saturday night for a capacity crowd. The Russian Orthodox Church does not celebrate Easter until May.

Speaking at the Hollywood Bowl service, Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, a church leader, said history's greatest events are those which affect the greatest number of persons for the longest periods of time.

"By this standard, no event could be more important to individuals or nations than the resurrection of the Master," Benson said.

Elsewhere, rain and early morning fog cut attendance to about 20,000 at services at the Wichita Mountains Easter pageant near Lawton, Okla.

At Charleston, Mass., an Easter service was held aboard the USS Constitution, "Old Ironsides," the Navy's oldest regularly commissioned ship.

State Police Force To Be Reshuffled

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Finance Director Bert W. Levit has decided to reshuffle the state police force to discourage new thefts of civil service examinations.

Levit's "tightening up" announcement yesterday followed the dismissal of four state officers, the suspension of another state policeman, the resignation of two officers and three Sacramento County deputy sheriffs.

The four officers were fired, Levit said, after his investigation showed they had stolen tests from state personnel board offices here and in San Francisco.

"We're taking steps to see that this doesn't happen again," Levit said, "and were untying any knots that have grown up in the department."

He said "there has been a little too much of this buddy-buddy stuff. We're tightening up on the general management procedures and reviewing assignments to tours of duty."

Officers probably will be moved about more frequently than in the past to prevent new cliques from developing, Levit said.

The finance department investigation began last fall after three Sacramento County deputies made extraordinarily high scores on advancement tests.

Red Cross First Aid Class Begins Tonight

An advanced first aid class given by the Marin County Red Cross chapter will start at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the chapter house at 711 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

Metropolitan Area Problem Board Named

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Some new kind of unified local government may be coming for California's booming cities.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown appointed a 19-man commission on metropolitan area problems yesterday and asked it to come up with some new ideas.

"We do not rule out the possibility that we may even leave behind our present concept of counties, cities and districts," the governor said.

He listed five central issues for the commission to look into — transportation, housing, economy, air and water pollution, and unified government.

Ben C. Duniway, San Francisco attorney, was named chairman, assisted by J. Edward Day, Los Angeles insurance executive.

Long-Time Nurse Gets Gold Watch

Miss Ethel Gilogly, nurse at San Rafael General Hospital for more than 30 years, received an engraved gold watch at brief ceremonies held recently at the hospital.

M. J. Lamperti, member of the board of trustees, made the presentation. Refreshments were served afterward.

Miss Gilogly previously had been awarded a service pin set with a diamond. She is the first member of the hospital staff to receive a gold watch, but in future all employees who attain a 25-year service record will be accorded this honor by the board of trustees.

Miss Gilogly was the subject of a feature article in the current issue of the "Guerney, San Rafael General Hospital publication. The article said she is probably the senior nurse in point of service in the county's three general hospitals.

The railroad announced today its lost and found department will put hundreds of unclaimed umbrellas at strategic spots on train stations next month. Commuters can borrow 'em, free. The railroad hopes the bumbershoots will be returned the next day.

Merger Study Groups To Meet

The Corte Madera and Larkspur Merger Study Committees will continue on their own paths of study tonight.

The Corte Madera committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. at Neil Cummins School to draft a final report to be submitted to the town council.

The Larkspur committee will meet at 8 p.m. at Larkspur City Hall to review updated financial figures of revenues and expenses for the two cities.

COLD FEET . . . ?

A generation ago some people thought rubbing the soles of the feet with grease would ward off a head cold. Today, we know better. Adequate rest and a well-balanced diet go a long way toward preventing colds. But, sometimes even the best precautions aren't good enough. When you are ill—whether you have a cold or something more serious—effective medications are important. They can be the difference between pain or comfort . . . slow or fast recovery. Theatre Fete Proceeds To Benefit Workshop

A glamorous opening night theatre party has been announced as the annual fund-raising event for the Sleepy Hollow unit of Marin County Junior Theatre.

Mrs. Paul Talbot, general chairman, stated recently that the Sleepy Hollow unit would sponsor the April 9 opening night of "The Matchmaker" by The Ross Valley Players. This hilarious comedy by Thornton Wilder will be presented at the Marin Art and Garden Center Barn at 8:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the benefit theatre party will go toward the 1959 children's summer playshop program. Mrs. Robert Salles, workshop chairman, has expressed great enthusiasm over the director selected for this year, Audrey Eichelberger. Miss Eichelberger, who will conduct and supervise the entire five weeks free course offering creative theater experience, will climax it with four separate performances of a play which she will assist the children in selecting themselves.

Co-chairman for the Theatre Party are Mrs. James Kephart and Mrs. Stanley Carlsen. Assisting them will be: Mesdames Lawrence Scott, Robert Salles and Arthur Jorgenson, refreshments; Lowell Titus and William Worrall, tickets; Anthony Barbera, publicity; Jay Ingels and Max Eastman, reservations.

Among those entertaining before the party will be: Mr. and Mrs. Hutton Theller, who will have as their dinner guests, Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Allen, William Bournes and Peter Helms. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kephart will be serving to their guests Messrs. and Mesdames Walton Purdom, Ted Beardsley, Robert Jackson, Douglas Lindauer, and Scudder Mersman.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Godfrey will serve dessert to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Real, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cruickshank. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bullock will have as dinner guests Messrs. and Mesdames Roland Hauck, Wendall Miller, Edward Ranahan, Gene Roerig, Albert Madsen. Girl Scout Leaders Complete Tenderfoot Training Course

Leaders and assistant leaders of fourth grade Girl Scout troops recently completed a tenderfoot training course held in Corte Madera under the direction of Miss Lois Little.

Tenderfoot requirements must be fulfilled by the girls before they are eligible to "fly-up" into Intermediate Scouting. The group met for three two-hour sessions and was divided into three patrols. Each patrol shared in the job of preparing and demonstrating the skills required for this rank. One patrol did a homemaking demonstration showing the group how to teach girls to set a table correctly and how to make a bed properly. The second patrol taught the group how to use a compass and how to make a rough sketch map. The third patrol demonstrated the use and care of a pocket knife and how to lay and light a simple fire for outdoor cooking using wood and charcoal.

In addition to patrol demonstrations, the group learned how to display the American flag and other flags at public gatherings, how to wear the uniform, the meaning of various insignia and the history of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides. On May 7 and 14 these women will attend a two-session training event at Sky Oaks Girl Scout Camp in Fairfax to learn more skills in the outdoor program.

The following women completed the course and received a certificate: Mesdames G. H. Allen, San Rafael; Jack Benz, Harold Boisert, Don Schultz and Laurence Thoman, San Anselmo; Roger Brooke, Robert Seeba, Fairfax; W. G. Caldwell, John Davidson, G. F. McDonogh and William Polhemus, Belvedere, Tiburon; C. R. Gondak, Corte Madera, Larkspur; G. D. Hart, Neils Schultz Jr., L. T. Tuttle, Henry Wickert, Kentfield, Ross, Greenbrae; B. P. Maraccini, E. L. Muszynski, Richard Weeder and Julian Weiner, Mill Valley.

Lenora May Daly Becomes Bride Of Robert Whitman Jr., Sunday

An Easter Sunday afternoon wedding of interest to many Southern Marin people was that of Lenora May Daly and Robert Joseph Whitman Jr.

They were married at 2 o'clock in the Mill Valley Community Church, which was decorated in a yellow and white theme with daffodils, carnations and snapdragons.

Officiating at the double ring rites was Dr. Helen Wade of Christ Unity Church of Santa Rosa.

When the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, Frank A. Daly of Strawberry, she was wearing a gown of white peau de soie which she had designed and made herself. The fitted bodice was fashioned with cap sleeves and round neckline, and the skirt had a dipped hemline with bustle back flaring into a chapel train. The neck and waistline were trimmed with lace, and a lace cap held her fingertip veil.

Her flowers were a crescent of lilies of the valley and phalaenopsis orchids tied with loops of white satin robbon.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Stephen Pieser of Oakland; maid of honor was her other sister, Frances Ann Daly; and junior bridesmaid was her cousin, Glenna Lou Bliss of Loveland, Colo.

All attendants were identically gowned in sleeveless sheaths of yellow peau de soie and wore matching cage veils trimmed with bows of the yellow peau de soie. Their flowers were ballerina bouquets of yellow Pinocchio roses and yellow tulle centered with forget-menots.

Candlelighters, Lori Bard of Sausalito, and Judy McKinney of Mill Valley, wore white shantung sheaths and matching cage veils trimmed with bows, and they carried yellow paper candles set in white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. Roy A. Stone and Robert Joseph Whitman Sr., both of Mill Valley, was Roger Murphy of Mill Valley, and escorting guests to their seats were Stephen Pieser of Oakland, Michael Durrie of Belvedere; Frank Foreman, Douglas Weber and Fred Whitman, the bridegroom's brother, all of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Daly attended her daughter's wedding in a pink and white pattern printed silk sheath fashioned with watteau back, a pink cage veil, and shoes and white gloves. Walking down the aisle with her were her son-in-law, Stephen Pieser and little granddaughter, Kimberly Pieser.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a powder blue lace dress, white picture hat and white accessories. Each mother had a corsage of pink baby roses.

During the ceremony the bride's aunt, Mrs. Glenn Bliss, sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

On their return, they will live at 228 Oakdale in Mill Valley.

Lenora and Bob graduated from Tamalpais High School. In June she will graduate from the University of California, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

After attending the College of Marin for two years, Bob served six months on active duty with the Air Force Reserve. He is now employed with his father in a wholesale food business in San Francisco and is a member of the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce.

International Dinner Planned By Junior Red Cross Members

An international dinner to be held on April 11 at San Rafael High School and inauguration of a Speakers' Bureau are but two of the activities claiming attention of Marin County Junior Red Cross members.

These projects were chosen by the Junior Red Cross County Council which functions as a governing body for the organization's activities in the county.

The Council sets its own policies, draws up a budget, makes plans and puts them into practice—all with the help of adult guidance supplied by their advisor, Harry Mack, and the adult advisory committee headed by Mrs. Winifred Detsch, who is director of Junior Red Cross for Marin County.

The committee is made up of Mesdames Kenyon Spalding, vice chairman in charge of enrollment; Ralph Groves, speakers' bureau; Ben Young, liaison for hospital activities; Harold Stetson, tray favors and uniform design; Charles Kelly, Junior Grey Ladies; Lowell Jett, publicity; Charles Stafford, Victor Rowe and Hunter Sterne; Miss Mildred Maguire, Dr. Virgil Hollis and Victor Rowe.

In developing a Speakers' Bureau the Junior Red Cross County Council hopes to fill the need for supplying information concerning their organization. Speakers, who will be chosen from council membership, will be given special training before they volunteer to appear before any adult groups which may be interested in the program. It is one designed to be integrated into the school program whenever and wherever this proves desirable.

A current activity sponsored is arranging for Marin art students to provide entries for a flower exhibit sponsored by the Red Cross Society of South Africa in connection with their annual convention to be held during the summer.

A Red Cross chapter in each state has been asked to be responsible for an exhibit featuring its state flower, and Marin County Junior Red Cross has been chosen to provide California's exhibit featuring the state flower, the Golden Poppy.

Before shipment to South Africa these exhibits will be displayed at the American National Red Cross Convention in Atlanta, Ga. It is hoped the Marin County entries will be ready in time for display at the international dinner in April.

Marin Terrace P-TA Plans Festival

Mill Valley Marin Terrace School children are hoarding their dimes and looking forward with great enthusiasm to the school's annual P-TA sponsored Spring Festival. It will be held at the school on April 7 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Stephen Cook and Mrs. Ervin Cox are recruiting cooks and bakers from P-TA ranks to insure plenty of treats in the snack stand—potato salad, cookies and cupcakes. There will be hot dogs, for the hungry, races for the fleet of foot, games to try the hand and eye, booths with trinkets, books and useful knicknacks.

Gardening P-TAers are helping Mrs. Jack Martin and Mrs. J. B. Norall get plants ready for a dish garden booth.

Mrs. Robert Adams has been stocking up on marbles, darts, balls and balloons, as well as a supply of prizes for winners of games, and Mrs. Raymond Kemp has been readying posters and decorations to transform the schoolyard.

Little girls are rounding up feathers, ribbons, buttons and bows to decorate a homemade hat for the spring bonnet review, and boys are busy with string, paper, nails and wood for the home-made kite flying contest.

Dallas Model Back At Work After Breast Cancer Operation

By GAY PAULEY

The American Cancer Society said that cancer of the breast is the number one cancer killer among women; that 21,000 die each year.

Yet ACS says that 81 per cent of all breast cancer is curable if diagnosed early and treated properly. As is, 46 per cent of the cases diagnosed are cured.

Those of us who have covered the Dallas Center Collections since they began formal showings to the press in 1950 have grown to know Mrs. Irma Austin well. She and three other top-flight models—Zane Hays, Juanita Ransome and Ann Daniels—are "perennials" in the center's presentations.

The four also are close friends, and although all are married and have children ranging in age from 14 months to 13 years, are booked daily for fashion, photographic and television work.

Irma is a general favorite with retail stores, manufacturers, buyers and press alike, not only because of her good looks and clothes knack, but also her sparkle. She still has that, despite the fact that last October, physicians gave her "a 50-50 chance of survival."

The model said her malignancy seemed to develop suddenly—"I went to bed one Saturday night feeling fine doctor."

The physician told her the probable nature of her illness and "that," she said, "is the only time I ever cried.

"I went home and told Paul (her husband, a supervisor with Chance Vought Aircraft) I wanted to be alone for a while.

"And then I prayed."

Within two weeks, the model who is 41 and the mother of a five-year-old daughter, went through her first surgery breast. One month later, surgeons performed an hysterectomy, as a protective measure.

"They strip everything," said Irma matter-of-factly. "to help slow or prevent the disease."

After surgery, physicians gave her Cobalt and X-ray therapy, plus injections of radioactive phosphorous into the bloodstream.

Irma's weight had dropped from her normal 127 to 105 pounds.

"But I am so lucky in so many ways," she said to me. "My wonderful husband . . . I am here in a city where there are leading cancer specialists available. And I went to the doctor in time. He later told me the type I had was so fast, if we hadn't caught it when we did, I wouldn't have lived 30 days."

"I've always had superb health; I'm almost a health addict," she laughed. "My doctor says that, plus my mental outlook, has as much to do with my recovery as anything else."

Today her personal physician says he believes her 100 per cent well, although Irma explained he could "not pronounce a cure until five years have passed."

She was back modeling within two weeks after the first surgery. Within two weeks after the second, she resumed her charm schools for teenagers, a project she began four years ago, staging two-week sessions in cooperation with stores in the Southwest.

She also has regained her model's figure (37-26-36) although she has to wear a specially fitted bra. The only bookings she turns down are for shows where strapless gowns pose a problem because of the surgical scar.

MODELING a dress is Mrs. Irma Austin, 41, one of the nation's loveliest models, who calls herself one of the world's luckiest women. Mrs. Austin survived two bouts with surgery in the last year to conquer cancer. Today she is back again on the fashion runways in Dallas. (UPI Telephoto)

Antiquers Today Seek The 'Different' Find

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — There's something new in the business of collecting the old.

Today's antiquers are concentrating on the "different" finds—from suits of armor to totem poles—which make better conversation pieces in the home than collections of old porcelain or glass. Even if they are not as valuable.

In New York's Second and Third avenues, every other shop seems to deal in some phase of antiquity. It is amazing what has been emptied from attics to fill store windows.

There are those suits of armor handed down from heaven-knows-whose militant ancestor; old diving helmets; gaming devices; cigar store Indians; weathervanes; coffee mills; churns; wooden well-buckets; bird houses whittled by some patient early settler; hunting decoys; whirligigs which once decorated fence posts; figureheads from old sailing vessels; shopkeepers' signs or plaques saying "stage coach stops here;" landscapes and portraits done by itinerant artists, the results now called "primitives," and even "wanted" posters from pre-FBI days offering $50 reward for horse thieves dead or alive.

And all are selling.

"People buy for fun, no longer for investment," said Henry Coger, a native of Jonesboro, Ark., who, with his partner, John Bihler, formerly of Chicago, runs a well-cluttered hangout for collectors of the unusual.

Coger figures there are three basic reasons for the changing taste of antiques collectors. They no longer can afford the servants to help clean elegant collections of old glass, china and figurines; have no room to display such collections; and no longer are interested in gathering together the traditional.

"It's the desire to be different," said Coger, whose personal collection leans to Americana. "The same motivation started women on the wig fad."

Coger and Bihler do most of their antiques hunting at antiques fairs—"The nation's attics long since have been emptied," said Coger.

"There is a real shortage of antiques," said Coger, "and in all fields from fine old European furniture to Early American cookie boards.

Commentator Speaks On Russia At Outdoor Art Club Meeting

We have only two alternatives to "Living With Russia," William Mandel told Outdoor Art Club members and guests Thursday, and they are—dying with Russia—or retreating to an American fortress.

Radio and TV commentator, author and scholar, Mandel is working under a Stanford University Fellowship in Slavic studies at the Hoover Institute. He learned the language and attended Moscow University before World War II while he was living in Russia with his father who had a contract with Russian railroads. He is also a translator of scientific material of researchers who are interested in Russian scientific advances.

Mandel takes the position that the United States must "live with Russia" and that there will never be a more favorable time for negotiating with the Russians toward that end than right now.

An all-out war in unthinkable, he asserted, we could not win innumerable ground wars—and it is impossible to retreat into an American fortress.

President Eisenhower, he said, is being subjected to pressures to stall further negotiations with the Russians while we should be bargaining at the peak of our power.

In 20 years, Mandel predicted, Russians will have the living standard that we have now because their rate of progress is 10 per cent whereas ours is only two per cent.

He warned "We are too complacent." People of underdeveloped countries haven't found our alternatives to communism acceptable. We prefer to close our eyes to the changes in Russia that the great masses of humanity—in Asia, Africa and Latin America—consider positive.

Mandel then went on to list factors that have vastly improved the Russian living standard in the last 35 to 40 years.

1. Russians are no longer "dirty" because they can now afford soap.

2. The past year they have produced more milk and butter than the U.S. though our consumption is still a little greater, but in two or three years, theirs will be greater than ours.

3. Their food standard is roughly equivalent to that of the U.S. Thirty-five or 40 years ago—"3 or 4 square meals a day"—which was not too bad—perhaps a little heavy on flour with not so much meat or fruit and vegetables—but adequate.

4. Clothing may not be stylish but it is well made, and everybody today has leather shoes.

5. Housing is the worst (but not worse than it was 30 years ago) because of the destruction of 25,000,000 home units in World War II and the change from a rural to urban population when thousands of peasants were moved into cities to work in factories. And it is important to remember, he pointed out, that the people are not too dissatisfied with one family to a room when only 30 years ago many were living in barracks-like conditions with only burlap curtains providing privacy.

6. Public health is at a very high level—their life span is almost the same as ours and has doubled in the last 40 years—infectious diseases have been almost eliminated—the death rate is lower than ours—and their nurse to patient ratio in hospitals is one to four.

7. Their education in the elementary through high school level is much superior to ours for a number of reasons including the high value they place on it, the high respect in which the teaching profession is held, and the fact that students are trained to believe that learning is very important.

Furthermore, Mandel continued, there is no evidence of political unrest in the country; there have been no political arrests in the last five years; and the Russians have a very good record for getting out of countries they have occupied.

"Within one generation the Russians will be on a material par with us in just about every aspect of life, and we have only this one generation at most in which to make sure that leadership remains with us.

Conservationists Deserve Bow On 25th Anniversary

The Marin Conservation League celebrated its 25th anniversary today.

More specifically, league members hold their 25th annual dinner and meeting tonight.

A quarter of a century ago when the league was launched, the idea that it might accomplish a fraction of what it has actually accomplished would have been unthinkable.

It is typical of the league that its 25th anniversary dinner and meeting announcement — a four-page illustrated pamphlet—is concerned almost entirely with projects that the group is presently engaged in advancing. There are only passing references to the accomplishments of the past 25 years.

A major reason for the league's success has been, apparently, that its leaders always look forward instead of backward.

Marin enjoys the benefits of four state parks—Mt. Tamalpais, Samuel P. Taylor, Tomales Bay Beaches and Stinson Beach—and the present status of each is in large part the result of tireless efforts by Conservation League workers.

Marin County's rather rigid planning restrictions, including strict controls on roadside billboards, were brought into being with staunch backing from the Conservation League membership.

Its 25th anniversary finds the league with two immediate goals: 1—development of the Rose Verrall wildlife sanctuary (on Richardson Bay) for the daily use and enjoyment of Marin and other Bay Area residents, and 2—establishment of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Recreation Area as a facility for vacationing "next to nature" (but close to San Francisco).

Any recognition of the league's accomplishments would be incomplete without special mention of its two most conscientious and faithful workers, Mrs. Norman Livermore and Mrs. B. K. Dunshee.

Mrs. Livermore has headed the league as president continuously since its formation. Mrs. Dunshee, while remaining for the most part out of the public spotlight, has been tireless and energetic in her conservations efforts.

We salute them on the occasion of their anniversary and wish them another 25 years (at least) of successful and productive conservation work.

Planning The Summer Vacation

In countless Marin homes about this time of year, restless spirits are paying heed to that vagabond-gypsy travel urge and are planning the summer vacation trip. Colorful travel folders filled with fairy-tale promises of wonders to behold and beauties to enjoy litter tables and desks.

Literature praising the economical joys to be savored in Trieste or Tiajuana or Tokyo or Timbuktu will have father chewing his pencil to a nubbin as he tries to figure same.

This so typically American restless feeling is a holdover from pioneer days. It was this drive, this curiosity, this feeling of excitement about the hill beyond the hill beyond the valley which caused our European ancestors to pull up their stakes and sail to an unknown land. The lure of the promising unknown also brought people westward to California.

The only advice we have for the modern day traveller is to travel light and take twice as much money as you think you'll need. And remember not everything will be as glowing as the travel folders say. But it will be a change and wonderful fun. Bon Voyage!

THREE MINUTES A DAY

THIS WAY TO PEACE

Mr. Mikoyan received an unexpected spiritual reminder from a high government official just before he left Washington to return to Moscow.

During a call on Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss, the Soviet Deputy Prime Minister was given a copy of George Washington's Farewell Address, with the following passage underlined: " . . . Reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

Our nation was founded on the sublime truth that each and every human being created in the divine image, derives his rights from God, not from the state. This primary principle is specifically stressed in the Declaration of Independence.

Do something to keep this fundamental in the forefront of life. Until all nations recognize man's divine origin and rights, little progress will be made toward lasting peace. So we would do well to merchandise this heavenly product with even greater speed and efficiency than we do our material goods.

"God created man to his own image."
(Genesis 1:27)

Allow me to be Your instrument, O Lord, in spreading over the earth the good news of man's sacred worth.

Lives Of Great Men All Remind Us Best Work Is Often Done Past 60

Think you're too old to set the world on fire? You're not. A study of 400 outstanding men in history showed 35 per cent had made their greatest achievements between 60 and 70, 23 per cent cent 70 and 80, and 8 per cent when they were more than 80. In other words, 66 per cent of their greatest work was done by men past 60.

On the other hand, the most written about man in history is Christ, the second is Shakespeare, the third is Abraham Lincoln. None of them lived to be 60. Conclusion: It's what you do that counts, not the age at which you do it.

The average U.S. family now consumes 244.9 pounds of bread and 44.7 pounds of cured ham a year. What is home without a sandwich?

What's-in-a-name department: Tom Collins is an agent with the Federal Alcohol Tax Enforcement Unit in Charleston, W. Va. The "Ask Mr. Foster" travel agency in New York has a secretary named Holiday Tripp.

YOUNG MAN, if you are searching for a wife who can keep you in the style you want to become accustomed to, don't overlook the girls in your own office. The salary of white collar girls has gone up about 50 per cent in the last decade.

You never know when someone may ask you how much salt there is in salt water. Well, sir, the ratio generally is three parts salt to every 1,000 parts of water.

HINT FOR dieters: Brazilian singer Rosina Pagan has a method for preventing late night snacks. She has a calorie chart pasted on the inside of her refrigerator door.

The average iceberg travels up to 1,800 miles before it melts. But the average icicle is just a stationary drip.

Scare Planning Helpful To Enemy

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I agree with Glen Carlson that it is dangerous to base disaster plans on assumptions that may prove to be wrong. But Mr. Carlson, has, I believe, fallen into the same error.

He says "it has been demonstrated quite clearly that in the event of a nuclear war, every man, woman and child in Marin County will probably be dead, within thirty days." I deny that this is a fact.

Suppose that the enemy decides not to take the advice of the people who come out with these civil defense assumptions, and figures out a way to take the country without destroying it? The present civil defense program of "scare planning" would in my opinion be very helpful to the enemy.

It is time that the authorities took a leaf from the book of the Red Cross and started preparing to meet disasters instead of trying to read the enemy's mind. I vote for "disaster preparedness" and against "civil defense" as at present constituted.

School Unification Study To Begin

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The petition requesting the County Committee on School District Organization to study the entire county considering unifying the county as a whole, was presented because no plan now exists for all of the county.

The fact that individuals from all over the county signed the request for the study and that the West Marin area and others have requested studies not now under consideration, indicates a review of the entire county is needed.

The master plan for a portion of the county, presented three years ago, is obsolete, and does not even consider the West Marin area.

The majority of people in Marin county favor the single administration and program for children from kindergarten through high school and even junior college (part of the public school system too).

A better educational program along with long overdue economy and efficiency of operation has universal appeal. The expensive system of "private" schools at public expense and the cost of paying high salaries for the multi-duplication of administrators and personnel and services has no appeal to the many Marin families who must maintain two incomes to exist.

A horse and buggy school system has no place on our highways of the future and present.

Recent public meetings of the county committee have revealed that the people are not against school district unification. The question now is how and where to unify.

The public hearing for this petition (as required by law) will be held at the San Rafael High School auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, March 30, to determine if there is sufficient interest in this educational study of the whole county.

'Ham' Operator Jams TV Channel

Independent-Journal:

What can be done about a local "ham" radio operator who jams the KRON-TV frequency on Wednesdays and weekends usually. He states his call numbers but they are jumbled and too fast for interpretation.

He talks to one person named Andy and another named Mike but their parts of the conversation don't interrupt the program.

I believe him to live somewhere in the Reservoir Road area as he mentioned this street one night while talking with Andy.

Eisenhower, Macmillan Agree To Use Force At Berlin If Necessary

WASHINGTON—The chief unannounced result of the Eisenhower-Macmillan talks was a semi-final agreement on a Berlin contingent plan.

A Berlin contingent plan is official jargon for a conditional plan of military operations, which would be carried out if and when Nikita Khrushchev gives the signal to his East German puppets to renew the Berlin blockade. Washington and London have been deeply divided on this problem. Hence the Anglo-American agreement is a major step forward, although the agreement will not be final until it has been approved in Paris and in Bonn.

THE PLAN THAT was agreed upon calls for the use of force, if the need arises, to defend the Western right to use any and all access routes to Berlin, on the ground or in the air. In the most extreme case that can be foreseen, if the roads to Berlin are blocked to the West's military transport, armed convoys will be sent to open the roads.

The decision to defend the Western right to use all the access routes represents a substantial concession by the British, who have preferred the less uncompromising plan of answering a renewed Berlin blockade with another air lift. At the same time the President's repeated insistence that "we won't shoot first" has been spelled out in practical terms. It means that the Western convoys will go peacefully about their business, using engineer troops if need be to remove physical obstacles placed in their way. No force will be used unless and until the other side uses force first.

A more important British objection to the contingent plan was also overcome by ending the debate about "risking war for a rubber stamp." It is not known whether the agreement that was reached here fully covered this point, or whether the British simply made a reservation on this point. At any rate, the British were not asked to commit themselves to "risk war for a rubber stamp," by which they mean forcefully resisting the use of an East German rubber-stamp instead of the Russian rubber-stamp that is already required on the travel documents of Berlin-bound Western convoys.

IN OTHER WORDS, the contingent plan both is as firm as necessary and as moderate as it can be, if it is to work at all. The importance of the plan really cannot be exaggerated. The Western leaders have agreed to go to the summit under threat of force. No one can negotiate under threat unless he knows quite clearly what he means to do if the threat is carried out. Nikita Khrushchev's grand design has been to split the West on the Berlin issue. His best hope of success lay in a row about the contingent plan. That hope has dimmed.

Sausalito First To Choose City Chief By Competitive Examination

THE APPOINTMENT of Howard Goerndt as Sausalito Police Chief marks the advent of a new era of sorts in Marin's city government. Goerndt becomes the first, so far as we can determine, to be appointed to head a city department in Marin as the result of a competitive examination. Most other such posts fall into the appointive classification by either the city manager or council as was the case in Belvedere when City Manager Bing Rey named Bill Woodington police chief when Gene Meyer became undersheriff.

MILL VALLEY has no civil service regulations as such, but has a mandatory retirement age of 70. However, it will likely be a few years before City Manager Almcrants will be making any department head appointments. Veterans in the police department, for example, who have less than 10 years to go include Chief Jim McGowan, Capt. Joe Canet, Sgt. Ben Hartwell and Officer Tony Quadros. While Fire Chief "Nook" Armager probably tops them all on seniority, he has a lot longer to go to reach retirement age. When the time comes for appointments, however, Almcrants will probably hold competitive examinations within the department.

MRS. MARGARET GRANT, Mill Valley's Greyhound ticket agent and purveyor of newspapers (including the I-J), magazines, soft drinks, candy and large quantities of cheerful information, is in the throes of a major remodeling and enlargement of her quarters at the Lytton Square bus terminal. Just a cursory inspection of activity at the depot would dispel any ideas that bus traffic is diminishing. We would guess that if other travel agents adopted some of Mrs. Grant's techniques, it would probably be a fine thing for Greyhound as well as the agent. The place is really jumping most of the time.

WHILE NOT EXACTLY in the Easter spirit, a temporary stand erected on the sidewalk adjacent to the Easter "barnyard" near the Mill Valley bus depot last week bore the unusual designation of "Zeke's distillery." Closer inspection disclosed that the beverages being dispensed were beer of the root variety. Proceeds went to a fund being accumulated by the Tam high senior class for approaching events.

WHEN THE MILL Valley Commuters Club stages its annual potluck dinner at the Outdoor Art Club Friday evening, it will also honor the commuter from the Mill Valley area who has been making the transbay trip for the longest continuous period and is still commuting. We understand that the front runner is one who started in the spring of 1908 and is still at it. Any challengers should make themselves known at once to the commuters club officials.

Sacramento Observer Tells Views On Golden Gate Authority Plan

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The proposal by Senator John M. McCarthy, (R-Marin County), to create a Golden Gate Authority which would encompass air, rail and sea facilities for travel in the San Francisco Bay area, is an ambitious program, which probably some day will be enacted.

Whether the time is ripe for the Authority now, or whether it must be discussed for another few years remains to be seen, but Senator McCarthy is pushing ahead and attempting to get the plan into effect with the least possible delay.

BRIEFLY, THE plan contemplates the creation of the authority, representing nine Bay Area counties. Eventually the authority would control all of the toll bridges in the area, the seaports and the airports.

From the revenues available, present facilities would be improved, and a plan for a tube under San Francisco bay from San Francisco to Oakland to be constructed out of revenues, is a part of the program.

The authority would be a non-taxing district, financed solely from revenues on probable long-term bond issues.

The plan is in line with the growth and development of California. It disregards sectional control of any area, and at the same time, the measure contemplates the representation of all areas on the controlling authority.

IT IS ONLY natural that objections to this far-sighted plan would be raised. Objections could hardly be labeled provincial, because the plan for improvement is hardly known as yet. Generally, the objections are expected to come from people who have axes to grind, or who are afraid of transferring authority from themselves to another agency.

But many civic leaders believe the time not only has come, but is well past, when considerations for improvements must be viewed on an over-all basis instead of at a sectional level. Competition between facilities owned by the public appears fruitless, for as Edgar F. Kaiser, president of the San Francisco Bay Area Council, says,

"Instead of trying to take business away from each other, these facilities should be competing with the rest of the nation to bring business to all the ports of our harbor and to both of our airports."

Remember That Baby Gymnast Of The Newsreels Years Ago?

I've been talking with a retarded, crippled teen-age boy. I feel like weeping. He can't think clearly. His speech is jumbled. His movements are jerky. While we talked he had a grand mal epileptic attack. He has them daily.

You may have seen pictures of this boy years ago. He was a baby gymnast. As an infant he was hanging over the sides of skyscrapers. He clasped his father's fingers and laughed. Soon he learned to stand erect in his daddy's hand. He was tossed into the air. He waved his tiny, chubby arms like a diver. His mother would catch him, several yards away. He performed for newsreels. Did you see him?

Hsi folks were careful. They practiced on a net. They rehearsed with him daily. They planned to make money on their gymnast baby. Can you guess what happened? His mother slipped, and failed to catch him. His little head hit a hardwood floor. His skull was fractured and damage was done to his brain. In an instant a bright, capable little guy became a lifelong mentally retarded cripple.

His mother told me that even now, years later, she has dreams of the accident. She hears the muffled scream which died as he lost consciousness. His father bowed his head while we were talking. He said, "May God forgive us." Then he asked me to publish this report as a warning to other parents.

Do you know of any folks who do gymnastic stunts with their baby? If so, please clip this column. Show it to them.

(Q)—"It it true that you said children shouldn't be forced to clean their plates at every meal? Why do you say that?.. —MRS. T. D.

(A)—I say it because better attitudes toward food come when children are expected to eat a reasonable amount, but not to clean their plates at every meal. With the better attitudes come better eating habits and better health.

Marin Mothers Help Prepare Dental Survey

Approximately 80 Marin County mothers of school age children will be attending one-hour orientation meetings this week to receive instructions for their duties in carrying out the forthcoming school dental health survey scheduled to start April 6.

The survey is to obtain an up-to-date accurate picture of the dental needs of school children as a basis for building a dental health program, and to provide a baseline for measuring the future progress of dental health programs.

Requested by the county health department, the survey will be carried out by the Marin County Dental Assn., county schools, including parochial schools, the Parent-Teacher Assn. and parent clubs. The state department of public health is providing the technical direction and assistance. In each of the 25 schools included in the survey, team of three parents will be working with the local dentists, members of the Marin County Dental Society, who are contributing their time to make the dental survey.

All parent volunteers are asked by Mrs. Albert Hahn, chairman of parent participation, to attend one of the four orientation meetings.

First meeting was this morning at the county health department. Others will be at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at the Mill Valley School District office, 26 Miller avenue; at 9:45 a.m. Wednesday at Pacheco School in Raphael Village, and at 9:45 a.m. Thursday at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo.

Dr. Edward Ludwig, regional consultant in public health dentistry of the state Department of Public Health, is conducting the orientation meetings.

Dr. Gardner will address the group at 1 o'clock, after a noon luncheon at Rubini's restaurant in Fairfax. The League is conducting a two-year study of American foreign policy.

The San Anselmo League of Women Voters will open its business meeting at 10:30 a.m. at the restaurant to select a local study project for next year and to elect 1959-60 officers, said Mrs. John A. Wadlewski, president.

Also under consideration will be next year's budget and a proposal to increase annual dues from $3.50 to $5. Membership in the organization is open to women of voting age interested in volunteering their time for the purpose of good government, Mrs. Wadlewski said.

Under consideration as the League's local project are a study of Bay Area problems and their possible governmental solutions; a study of a tax-supported mental health program for Marin County; a study of consolidation of school districts; or a study of voting procedures with an aim to helping all eligible Marin voters to register in their proper precincts.

Nominees for 1959-60 officers are Mrs. Osborne White, president; Mrs. Lawrence Goldberg, first vice president; Mrs. Ross Turney, second vice president; Mrs. Edward Zeller, Mrs. Alan Bartholemy, Mrs. Robert Allport, Mrs. Duval Jaros and Miss Huldah Moorhead, directors; Mrs. Wadlewski, Mrs. Robert Forscutt and Mrs. J. A discussion of "Can We Act for Peace?" will be held April 11 from 1 to 5 p.m. under the sponsorship of Acts for Peace, a cooperative effort of national peace organizations aimed at Northern California communities, at the San Rafael Improvement Club, Fifth avenue and H street.

Leaders of the discussion will be Richard Drinnon, University of California faculty member, and Robert Pickus, executive secretary of Acts for Peace.

Local discussion leaders will include Bennet Skewes-Cox, Rabbi Morton Hoffman, Rev. Samuel A. Wright, Nancy Swadesh, Phillip Drath, Jerry Rubin, Glen and Shirley Carlson, Richard Brown, Virginia O'Rourke and Elaine Guthrie.

Registrations may be sent to Carlson at 1623 Fifth avenue, San Rafael. There is a nominal registration fee.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

U.S. 'Voice' Is Heard

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States Information Agency (USIA) is having better luck getting its broadcasts through ever-increasing Soviet jamming.

USIA Director George V. Allen said in the agency's semi-annual report to Congress that the Voice of America is piercing the interference by making fewer broadcasts and concentrating the power of more transmitters to carry them.

"The Soviet government continued to compliment the programs by trying to jam more heavily than ever," Allen said in the report made public last night. "But there is reason to believe that the Soviet authorities are finding it awkward to explain their refusal to allow the Russian people to hear news of the outside world."

RAF Quits Iraq

The withdrawal has been expected since the Iraqi government of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem formally withdrew last week from the Baghdad Pact.

Clampdown In Hungary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports reaching Washington tell of a brutal, all-out Communist drive to collectivize land in Hungary.

Refugee circles in the free world first received the reports. Word now reaching diplomatic missions here tells the same story.

Kite Flier Killed

MILLBRAE (AP)—Robert Satrap, 14, tried using wire instead of string to fly his kite Easter Sunday.

A neighbor told police Robert was knocked six feet when the wire struck a high voltage power line.

Liz, Eddie In Vegas

LAS VEGAS (AP)—"Miss Taylor is here to rest and I'm here to work."

Eddie Fisher was speaking to reporters between rehearsals at the Tropicana Hotel where he opens his night club act Wednesday.

Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor arrived yesterday in this desert gambling resort. The actress, accompanied by her three children, a nurse and valet, went into seclusion at a $500-a-week ranch outside of town. A guard patrolled the entrance as a steady procession of sightseers tried to get a look.

Mickey Jr. Christened

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The three-month-old son of actress Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay was christened yesterday at the church where the couple was married.

Nagasaki Opens Shrine

NAGASAKI, Japan (UPI) — A repository for the bodies of 2,500 persons, who were among the victims of the atom-bombing of Nagasaki 14 years ago, was opened here yesterday. A place was reserved on the second floor for a statue of Kannon, Buddhist goddess of mercy.

7 Children Die In Fire

LAWRENCEVILLE, Va. (UPI) —Seven Negro children perished in flames here early yesterday, trapped in their beds when an explosion set their house on fire.

Fire officials said the home was already leveled when fire fighting equipment arrived. The parents had left the sleeping children to attend Easter sunrise church services.

Back In Church

UXBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — One of the proudest Easter paraders yesterday was Elizabeth (Lili) Sargin, 8, although she had to use crutches.

Easter, a year ago, the child touched off a cigarette lighter on her return home from church and set her clothing afire.

10-1 Hawaii Vote Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Hawaiian Delegate John A. Burns predicts that the islands' 175,000 registered voters will vote 10 to 1 in favor of statehood.

Burns also said that Hawaiian Gov. William F. Quinn told him last week he would schedule Hawaii's first national primary elections for the third week in June and final elections for the third week in July.

Iraq Executes Rebels

BEIRUT (UPI)—Baghdad Radio announced today that four air force officers convicted of taking part in the recent anti-government revolt at Mosul were shot to death by a firing squad today.

The four officers were condemned to death last night by the Baghdad "peoples court." They were Col. Abdullah Naji, Capt. Kasim Mohammed Ali Azzawi, Lt. Ahmad Mahdi Salif Aahur, and Lt. Fadil Nasir.

They were the first prisoners condemned by the court to be executed since the anti-government revolt was quashed by the government in early March.

David Home; 'He's Going To Be Fine'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Little David Stewart returned home last night with a big smile for the thousands of Bay Area residents who donated $10,000 so that he might have a normal life.

When David left Chicago, his complexion was blue and he couldn't even sit up. But when he returned last night, the little boy laughed and waved as he hugged his father and kissed his 7-month-old brother on the head.

Mrs. Stewart said the doctors assured her David could look forward to a full life after several months recuperation.

"He's going to be fine, just fine," she said. "He eats twice as much as before and he's so happy."

"Now he'll be able to do anything but play football," beamed her husband. "Nobody will ever know how wonderful this is—or how grateful we are to everyone who made it possible."

Deadly Cobra Stolen From Car In S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Attention all cars, Twelve-foot king cobra, alive and deadly, stolen from an auto between 12:30 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. this date," crackled the police radio.

The reptile, belonging to Scott Lamb of Morgan Hill, was in a small wooden box labeled "deadly poisonous snake" the report said. It had not been defanged.

Lamb told officers his car was parked in front of a downtown theater (Paramount) when the snake was stolen. He collects reptiles.

"One drop of venom from that cobra is enough to kill an elephant," said Lamb, 50.

He said he was delivering the snake, along with another cobra and a diamond back rattler, to a customer in Grants Pass, Ore. Only the one cobra was stolen, he said.

Ex-Minister Dies; Wine Was Poison

"Don't drink that, it's vile stuff," Rev. George F. Patterson told his wife after sipping from one of the glasses he had poured. Then he collapsed and died.

Police said he had mistaken a bottle of wood alcohol for wine.

Egg Roll Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The traditional Easter egg roll on the White House lawn was canceled today because of rain.

A short time after 9 a.m., the scheduled starting hour, press secretary James C. Hagerty said it was being called off.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Wins Polk Award

NEW YORK (UPI) — Joseph Taylor of United Press International has received the George Polk Memorial Award of the Overseas Press Club for his courageous coverage of the overthrow of the Venezuelan government of Marcos Perez Jiminez.

The Polk award, named for a Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent killed in Greece and consisting of a plaque and $500, is presented for the best reporting requiring exceptional courage and enterprise abroad. Taylor was cited for great risks he took in getting the story of the government overthrow, transmitting it through heavy censorship and continuing on the job at great personal danger.

PLANNING CAMPAIGN FOR KQED

Joseph W. Huffaker, Novato; R. James Zierolf, San Rafael; George P. Neuwald, Novato; (seated) Robert L. Mills, San Rafael; Kenneth G. Walkmeister, San Rafael. Arrangements are being made for kick-off "coffee hours" to time with a special broadcast and five-year report by KQED on Thursday at 10:30 a.m.

Elks To Present Life Memberships

The San Rafael Elks Club will present life membership to Frank Donohue and J. T. Creighton at an installation dinner Wednesday at the Elks Lodge, Fifth avenue and B street.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Loss By Flood, Fire Deductible On Return

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Casualty losses are deductible.

The loss of your property by reason of flood, fire, storm, shipwreck and other casualty, or by theft, is deductible. If the property was used in your business, the deduction is taken on separate Schedule C.

Peter J. Wikel

If the property was personal the deduction is taken on page two of the tax return form. This deduction is lost if you file short form 1040 or 1040-A, or take the standard deduction.

In the case of a residence, the damage to the residence, ornamental fixtures, trees, shrubbery, lawns, tools, fences, equipment or any property you owned is deductible. Of course, it is important to be able to prove you owned the property, and the amount of the loss.

Where the loss consists only of damage, then ordinarily the cost of repairs would be the amount of your loss. In other cases the loss is the difference between the fair market value of the property before the loss and the fair market value of the property after the loss.

Any insurance recovery must be deducted from the amount of the loss before you make the deduction on your tax return.

Also, the loss can never exceed the cost or other basis of the property regardless of the fair market value at the time of loss.

If the loss is any greater than your income for 1958, then you would carry the excess back to 1956 and apply it against 1956 income and file a claim for refund of the income tax paid for 1956. If the amount of the loss was such that your 1956 income did not absorb the excess, then any unused loss could be carried forward to 1957 in the same way, and if the 1957 income did not absorb all the loss, then any excess could be carried forward for the next five years and applied against the income of those years.

In other words, if you sustain a very large casualty loss you would apply it first against 1958 income, then against 1956 and 1957 income, and then carry forward any unused excess for the next five succeeding years, or until the loss was fully covered by income, but not longer than five years.

It is important to get all your bills, pictures, and other information together at the time of filing your tax return and keep them with your copy of your tax return so that you can prove your loss if necessary.

Mary Martin Performs Delightfully, Virus And All

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Martin offered the home audience two hours of grand entertainment on NBC-TV yesterday on her first television appearance in more than a year.

She presented an afternoon show designed primarily for children and an evening program for adults.

Unknown to the viewing audience, she performed delightfully after suffering from a virus infection that struck 36 persons in the production last week. There was no need for the stand-in who waited tensely throughout both shows. Miss Martin sang, talked, danced and flew through the air with the greatest of ease.

Although it was largely a solo performance, Miss Martin presented an excellent new dancer to the TV audience in Dirk Sanders.

Her songs and narrations were staged with a pleasing informality for children in the afternoon. To judge from the reaction of the younger audience, "Peter Pan" is as close to being a TV immortal as anything can be.

The evening program recalled that musical biography of Mary Martin covers an astonishing range of modern popular music. In this beautifully staged show, everyone must have found some favorite.

The television version of "The Human Comedy" on CBS-TV Saturday night was a drama of fine sensibilities marked by the outstanding performances of two young actors, Michael J. Pollard as Homer Macauley, and David Francis as his little brother, Ulysses.

In adapting William Saroyan's novel for "Show of the Month," J. Lee Pogestin presented the story in 17 associated vignettes.

BOOTED AND SPURRED — The F104 Starfighter is the latest thing in transportation, but it takes spurs to ride it, just as if it were a bronco. Chaps, too—as shown on legs of "anti-G suit" pilot is wearing as he climbs into plane.

'Starfighter Suit' Tailor-Made For Each HAFB Pilot

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

The well-dressed Starfighter pilot at Hamilton Air Force Base has an outfit this spring to suit any occasion. The style, however, is dictated by function rather than fashion.

The pilot of the F104 jet wears the latest thing in "P-suits," but the design is the result of research for greatest practical use to the wearer rather than the whim of a couturier.

When flying a mission above 50,000 feet (that's 10 miles UP) the pilot's outer garb is a pressure suit, otherwise known as an "MC4" — mission completion. It is in a color which is good season after season — drab. There are zippers fore, aft, and on the sides. A man can get himself in and out, but simpler with the personal equipment specialist who is always on hand to help.

SPECIAL HELMET

The "foundation garment" is of cotton knit. It is worn to protect the skin from being pinched by the P-suit, which is made of a non-slip material. Topping off the external outfit is a special helmet so that the whole body—except the feet, which are protected by boots—is pressurized.

Each suit is "tailor made" for the individual pilot and once issued, is the pilot's wherever he goes. If a long-time-no-see-buddy's greeting is "you haven't changed," that's good, because a five-pound gain or loss in weight could mean being refitted for a P-suit.

Wearing the pressure suit properly takes some instruction. When initially fitted, pilots get a three-day orientation class at a physiological training center. It is reported that the garment is comfortable in its intended use, but restrictive to movement.

GEAR ESSENTIAL

Millady's handbag, gloves, or stole are called accessories, meaning they're nice but not necessary. Items worn atop the pressure suits, however, are essential. Because these pilots of the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton make all their takeoffs and landings over water, the bright yellow "Mae West" life vest is always worn. A paracute pack goes on the back. Each parachute is inspected every 10 days and repacked every 90 days.

On the legs of the pilot are items resembling chaps and spurs. They are so named. The former is part of an anti-G suit which is worn over a regular flying suit. This in turn is worn when the pilot is doing "ordinary" flying (if flying the world's fastest jet may ever be called ordinary).

GRAVITY EFFECT

The "G" refers to an increase of the effect of the force of gravity on the pilot's body due to the plane's rapid change of direction. The anti-G suit, which laces tightly on the lower body, counteracts the centrifugal force action on the blood and forces it to the upper part of the body. This is a great help in a tight turn or hard pull-out.

The "spurs" are separate metal attachments which hook into the airplane part of the ejection seat. They automatically pull and hold the feet in position in the event of ejection, which is downward out of a 104.

Pressure suit equipment is stowed in a special room kept at a constant temperature. Inspection and maintenance of this gear is the prime responsibility of the personal equipment specialists.

A SUIT FOR EVERY OCCASION—Lt. Richard Quigley and Lt. Edgar Grischkowsky of 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base get into their spring suits (also summer, fall and winter)—"P-suits" for riding F104 Starfighters above 50,000 feet (10 miles, to you).

Tiburon Property Owners To Meet

"Know Your Fire District" will be the theme of a public meeting of the Tiburon Property Owners Assn. at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Tiburon Firehouse.

Fred Kaiser of Tiburon, member of the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, will speak briefly. Problems of the Tiburon Fire Protection District will be the subject of a panel discussion by district commissioners. A question period will follow the discussion.

The seven candidates for election to the fire commission will be introduced and asked to give their qualifications.

AF To Host Mill Valley Civic Clubs

The 666th Air craft Control and Warning Squadron atop Mt. Tamalpais will host a joint dinner of Mill Valley civic clubs in the squadron dining hall April 16.

Approximately 70 members of the Rotary, Optimists and Lions clubs are expected to attend, said Lt. Col. John P. Byrne, commanding officer. City officials and chamber of commerce directors have also been invited.

Featured speaker will be Brig. Gen. Curtis R. Low, commander of the 28th Air Division, which includes the Mill Valley station. Also on the program is an informational presentation on the Polaris missile by Fred B. Du Bridge of Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

Concert Planned At Redwood High

The first spring concert to be given by the Redwood High School Instrumental Department will be presented Friday at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Theme of the concert will be "Here and There—Then and Now." The performance will mark the first public appearance of Sidney Gordon, band and orchestra instructor for the new school.

Gordon was graduated with honors in 1950 from San Francisco State College. He held several teaching positions in Northern California before coming to Redwood High.

In the gold rush to California in 1849, there were 42,000 overland arrivals, plus 33,000 by ship and 9,000 via Mexico.

AS OF THIS MORNING,

2,700,065 WESTERN MOTORISTS ARE PAYING MORE THAN THEY NEED TO FOR GASOLINE

If you are one of the millions of drivers in the West now paying for premium gasoline, you may be able to save 4 to 5 cents a gallon and still get premium gasoline performance.

Union Oil's New 7600 Gasoline is here.

New 7600 has the highest octane of any regular in the West. Octane so high it now makes premium performance possible at regular prices for 2,700,065 of the cars that had to use premium until now.

And more: New 7600 contains Union's exclusive additive NR76. It cleans your carburetor chemically; reduces engine maintenance measurably.

Wouldn't today be a good day to try New 7600 and start enjoying premium performance at regular price? A whole tankful, preferably, so you can prove the power of this new kind of gasoline without a shadow of a doubt. New 7600—another first from Union Oil, The West's most experienced gasoline refiner, who has never made a "dirty gallon."

*(If your car is the 1 in 5 which needs an ultra-high octane premium gasoline, use Union's new Royal 76, the West's most powerful premium.)

NEW 7600 GASOLINE

Powered like a premium...priced like a regular!

U. S. Invincible In All-Out War, Say Military Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's military leaders have assured Congress the United States would be invincible this year in an all-out war—and more power is in sight.

Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, said bluntly that if the Soviet Union starts an all-out war "we would break her back."

In censored versions released today of the military leaders' testimony last January and February to the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee, Burke and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor said they think America already has too much atomic retalitory power. Taylor is the army chief of staff.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, summed up the administration's cause for optimism.

Twining said a Soviet nuclear assault, if delivered today, would come almost entirely from manned aircraft. And the Soviet Union's air threat, he added, is "not half as big as ours and not nearly so effective."

Burke said that in an all-out war "we can destroy her (the Soviet Union) many times over with the weapons we now have in existence. There is no way that she can stop that. We would break her back."

Burke, whose Navy will pack a growing atomic wallop, said he thought the United States has "too much retaliatory power." He urged a bigger share of defense spending for small wars in which the U.S.S.R. might not be a direct participant.

MISSILES READY

Taylor said U.S. atomic retaliatory power is overwhelming. He said the nation has thousands of vehicles which could rain nuclear destruction on the Soviets, whereas, he added, the job could be done with hundreds.

The testimony shows the Air Force is confident it knows the location of major Soviet strategic targets.

The military leaders, bolstered by their civilian defense chiefs in testimony, backed up their confidence with many facts about American might and intelligence estimates of Soviet strength and intentions.

They said both the United States and the Soviet Union will have a few operational intercontinental ballistic missiles later this year.

The United States is in a stronger position "by far" to use missiles this year, said Twining. His reason: American-built Thor missiles. with 1,500-mile range and carrying a nuclear payload as big as that of the 5,000-mile Atlas are "sitting there and ready to go" from bases in England. More such American missiles are going to Europe this year.

Novato Father Of 4 Dies In Truck Plunge

Roy Otto Nagel, 46, Novato father of four, was killed this morning when the state-owned truck he was driving plunged down an embankment near Skyline boulevard in Belmont after skidding off a rain-slicked road.

Nagel had lived at the Palm Lane Trailer Village with his wife, Lucille, and three of their children, Patricia, 15, Barbara, 12, and Douglas, 8. The eldest child is attending college in Southern California.

Nagel a member of a state survey crew, was on his way to a job in Santa Cruz when the accident happened, reported trailer court owner, Mrs. Henry Lautrup.

A witness to the accident said it was raining when Nagel's truck skidded off Ralston avenue near Skyline. Nagel's body was thrown from the truck to a point 60 feet below the roadway and crushed under the weight of the overturning truck, which rolled another 190 feet down the embankment, dragging the body with it, the Associated Press reported.

Gerald Nordstrom, San Mateo County deputy coroner, said Nagel was "so badly mangled he looked like he had fallen out of a plane."

Mrs. Nagel went to Redwood City this morning to make funeral arrangements, Mrs. Lautrup said.

Castro Denies Innuendoes On Land Deal

Anonymous Letter Hints Scandal On Civic Center

Walter R. Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, spread a public accountant's records of his dealings with Henry Scettrini Jr. for public view today in reply to an anonymous letter hinting there was something wrong with his public and private dealings with the Scettrini family.

The letters, copies of which were sent to several county officials Saturday—mailed from San Francisco and unsigned—posed a series of questions and answers about the county's purchase of the civic center site in Santa Venetia from Henry Scettrini Jr. and Castro's sale of his San Rafael garage to Scettrini Jr.

PARTIAL TEXT

It read, in part:

"Answer: Henry Scettrini.

"Question: At what price was the land available?

"Answer: A realty firm had authorization to sell the land for $237,000 starting Aug. 10, 1953 through a period ending Feb. 19, 1954. During this period sales negotiations were conducted with the County of Marin."

The letter then recited that Castro sold his garage at 718-30 4th street, San Rafael, to Henry Scettrini Jr., who changed the name to D and S Garage. The sale, said the letter, was "on Sept. 1, 1953 during negotiations for sale of land ($237,000) to county by Scettrini Sr."

It closed: "How much did the County of Marin finally pay Henry Scettrini for his land.

Answer: $417,000."

Castro presented for public inspection figures and dates extracted from his books by Peter Helms, certified public accountant who lives in Sleepy Hollow.

4 Youths Still At Large In Juvenile Hall Escape

ASSAULTED IN BREAK — James Hasson, supervisor at Marin County Juvenile Hall, holds iron bar of type which Russell Mancebo swung at him as 12 boys and three girls staged break from hall Saturday night. The 16-year-old Mancebo first smashed the bar against refrigerator at Hasson's right. Hasson said Mancebo then swung for his head, but he deflected the blow with his wrist.

Search Concentrates In Tennessee Valley

An assault charge will be filed against a 16-year-old thug who struck a supervisor with an iron pipe to touch off the biggest outbreak and mass escape in the history of Marin Juvenile Hall Saturday night.

Four juveniles, including ringleader Russell Mancebo, 16, of Sausalito were still at large today, possibly armed with two table knives. With Mancebo are believed to be a 16-year-old boy and two girls, 15 and 16.

15 FLEE

Of 26 boys and five girls held at juvenile hall, 12 boys and three girls broke out shortly before 9 p.m. Saturday. Ten boys and a girl have been recaptured in various parts of the county. In one instance, a deputy sheriff fired a warning shot to capture one of the youths.

A cast ~~iron bar swung~~ by Mancebo against the wrist of Supervisor James Hasson, 26, of Fairfax was found discarded near the hospital grounds. But two table knives are missing from the kitchen and may be in the hands of the four at large.

HILLS SCOURED

Search concentrated today in hills of Tennessee Valley, where a car stolen from Terra Linda was found abandoned at 1:30 this morning with the engine still warm.

Alfred E. Boccone, San Francisco fireman who lives at 1075 Las Ovejas, Terra Linda, got up yesterday morning and found his two-door sedan missing. Early this morning, Deputy Sheriff Fredrick Marcus noticed the car abandoned on Tennessee Valley road. The ignition and the panel lights were still on.

Russia Agrees To Foreign Ministers Meet At Geneva

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia today handed notes to the Big Three Western powers agreeing to an East-West foreign ministers conference beginning in Geneva May 11, Tass Agency reported.

Tass said "according to information received," the Soviet government agreed to attend the parley "in order to consider questions concerning Germany, including the peace treaty with Germany and the Berlin question."

Tass said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko received the U.S., British and French ambassadors and handed them the Soviet notes in reply to the three Western notes of March 26.

The notes had differences in emphasis, but all looked beyond the foreign ministers conference to a summit meeting later in the year.

The Soviet government expressed regret in its notes "that complete mutual understanding has not yet been reached" on the participation of Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The Allies have suggested the two Communist nations should join the later stages of the talks.

Moscow said it "considers it possible that the question of the participation of Poland and Czechslovakia should be solved during the conference."

"The question of the representation of the two German states at the conference of foreign ministers can be regarded as mutually agreed," Tass reported.

The West has proposed that both West and East German representatives sit in on the parley as observers.

Corte Maderan Confesses To 13 Burglaries

A 20-year-old unemployed Corte Maderan, caught hiding in a Mill Valley service station late last night, has admitted 13 burglaries and is being quizzed in connection with six more, Mill Valley police said today.

Michael Robert Parkhurst, who said he was living in a Sixth street hotel in San Francisco, was caught at 11:30 p.m. inside Lou's Chevron Station on East Blithedale avenue by Officer Carl E. Mead Jr. of Mill Valley police.

TWIN CITIES THEFTS

His arrest may solve a string of break-ins that has been puzzling police in Corte Madera and Larkspur as well as Mill Valley, officers claimed today.

He admitted breaking into the Chevron station, de Beaubien Pontiac, Shell Service Station, Pierotti Buick, Andy's Auto Parts, the Laundromat, Dill and Sederberg Plumbing, Union Service, Don Geddes Realty and Larry Brink Motors, Officer Mead said. He stole varying amounts of cash in each place.

He also admitted breaking into three Larkspur business houses last Feb. 19, reported Mead. These were Corbett's Hardware, the Pizza Parlor and a newly opened bakery. His cash "take" was small for all three, according to Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark.

PLACES LOOTED

Places which have been entered in Corte Madera in recent months include Brown-Ely, Nelson's Bike Shop, Bowman Electric, Rich's Garden Supply, the Variety Store and the Texaco Service Station. Corte Madera Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said Parkhurst was being quizzed today on these break-ins.

WINDOW BROKEN

Officer Mead was patrolling the area near Sutton Mannor last night, when he noted the glass in a door at the service station was broken, he said. After radioing for aid, he investigated and found Parkhurst hiding in the rear of the station.

Mead said a cigarette machine had been broken and $18 taken.

Parkhurst apparently was alone and on foot, said Mead.

Lagunitas Votes Tomorrow On School Tax Hike

Voters of Lagunitas School District tomorrow will decide whether a school tax of $2 per $100 assessed valuation, 25 cents above the current rate, should be levied for a one-year period.

The single polling place at Lagunitas School in San Geronimo will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

If the ballot proposal is rejected, the district's basic tax rate automatically will revert to 90 cents for the 1959-60 fiscal year.

The present $1.75 rate, 85 cents higher than last year's, was narrowly approved at a special election Feb. 25, 1958. It was authorized for only one year.

District trustees are asking a $2 rate for 1959-60 to raise local tax requirements of a proposed "austerity" budget of approximately $124,000.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye said the proposed budget would finance a minimum school program.

"We are tightening our belts and actually operating on no margin, you might say," the superintendent declared.

Frye said estimates indicated some $40,000 in local revenue would be needed to help finance the suggested budget, with the balance coming from the state and miscellaneous sources.

Nikita Khrushchev: 'Brilliant Bonehead'

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Long before anyone dreamed of Nikita Khrushchev as a future czar, a Western diplomat sized him up shrewdly as "that brilliant bonehead."

The man bluster and guffaw his way with a terrifying air of carelessness toward the edge of global disaster. But he is no genius. His career has been dotted with bonehead plays.

One of his success secrets seems to be an astonishing knack for blaming his mistakes on others—and getting away with it. Another has been an Olympian scorn of weakness and what he would regard as bourgeois morality.

Khrushchev knows only one truth, his "Communist faith." In propagating this faith, he has shown himself a true disciple of Lenin.

Through a combination of this faith and his political agility, Khrushchev has survived revolution, civil war bloodbath purges and dark intrigues.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev, nearing 65, boasts the physique of a Russian bear. He combines seemingly boundless energy with a taste for intrigue and a talent for turning defeat into victory.

Holdup Man Gets Jail, Probation

Jessie Daniel Moore, 30-year-old Modesto cook who held up San Rafael's Western Union office Feb. 4 and escaped with $102, was placed on probation for three years today by Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court.

As conditions of probation, the judge ordered Moore to spend the six months in the county jail and make full resitution to Western Union.

Moore, who was captured by San Rafael police two days after the crime, pleaded guilty to armed robbery earlier this month.

6-Month Jail Term Given In Dope Case

Smith, arrested Feb. 11 with poet-publicist Gerd Stern of Sausalito, was given the jail term today by Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating as a condition of probation.

Judge Keating accepted a report of the county probation department recommending five years probation and suspension of a one-year county jail sentence.

The report also recommended that Smith be placed in the work furlough program, under which jail inmates pursue their regular occupations by day and return to their cells at night.

Sheriff Louis Mountanos and his flying vice squad discovered about $2,500 worth of raw marijuana in Smith's home last month.

San Rafael Raid Nets 4 Homosexual Suspects

Four men suspected of homosexual activities in a hotel restroom in San Rafael are scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow afternoon.

"We've been hearing rumbles of perverted activities for about two months," said Police Chief Frank Kelly. "And it seemed to be getting bigger. I won't tolerate this sort of thing."

Jailed and released on bail are John Hansen Klingenfuss, 50, a baker, of 1430 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael; Robert Lee Silsby, 35, San Francisco; Maurice Lucien Gaillard, 34, who gave his address as 120 Toyon drive, Fairfax, and Don Edward Penfold, 31, a salesman, of San Francisco.

Silsby was bailed out for $1,000. The other three were freed on $1,500 bail each. They are charged with sex perversion.

Inspector Nick Giampoli, Sgt. Jay Fletcher, Officer Richard Camper, and Sheriff's Inspector Richard Argento kept the Traveler's Hotel restroom under surveillance and raided the place about 8 p.m. Saturday.

Police said the restroom can be reached from the street, and the hotel bar was in no way involved. The four suspects, who are believed to be strangers to each other, apparently met for the first time in the restroom.

Ross Carriage House Burns

The relic of a past age, a two-story carriage house on the four-acre Ross estate of Mrs. Willard O. Waymond on Fernhill avenue, was destroyed by fire late Saturday afternoon.

Neighbors telephoned the 5:05 p.m. alarm. Both Ross and San Anselmo Fire Departments sent trucks and men. The 1900 wood frame structure, set on a hillside amidst madrone trees, was engulfed in flames when firemen arrived.

Firemen made no estimate of damage. The barn-like structure was virtually empty. Firemen noticed a few boxes, a bed and mattress stored upstairs.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, said Asst. Chief Carl Olson of the Ross department.

CAREFUL HOW YOU ANSWER PHONE! — Mrs. Raymond Leonardi and Mrs. Ruth Kendall, at switchboard of San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, prepare to start calling numbers from telephone book, while Miss Georgia Kendall gets "Red Tag Days" posters ready to put up. Tomorrow and Wednesday, calls will be placed at random and those who answer "Red Tag Days Are Thursday, Friday and Saturday" will receive merchandise orders. Those who answer "hello" will get a "sorry, you don't win." (Independent-Journal photo)

San Rafael Merchants Prepare 'Something Extra' Red Tag Days

San Rafael's Spring Red Tag Days will take place Thursday, Friday and Saturday with "something extra for the ladies," according to Ken McKenzie, chairman of the retail merchants committee of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the Red Tag bargain items that will be offered by 55 participating stores, the merchants will offer flowers and gift merchandise certificates.

The first 1,000 women shopping at the Red Tag stores on Thursday will be given free orchids, carnations and gardenias. One thousand women will also be given these flowers on Friday morning.

Two "Miss(tery) Red Tag Day" models will be visiting Red Tag stores on Thursday and Friday. Free merchandise certificates will be given to those who identify these two mystery misses. Shoppers should stop these fashionably-dressed models and ask, "Are you Miss Red Tag Day?" McKenzie said. A correct identification means the model will give a certificate to the inquirer.

Random telephone calls will be made by receptionists at the chamber of commerce to various homes throughout the Marin trading area. If the person answers his telephone tomorrow and Wednesday with, "Red Tag Days is on Thursday, Friday and Saturday," instead of "hello," he will receive a merchandise certificate good at any of the Red Tag stores.

"Red Tag store merchants have been making special purchases of seasonal merchandise in order to offer Marinites special bargains," said McKenzie. The Wednesday edition of the Independent-Journal will carry a special Red Tag ad section, and radio station KTIM will also be announcing some of the items to be available.

Bolinas Group Plans Protest Of Fire Truck Removal

Bolinas Community, Inc., will hold a special postponed meeting next Friday at 8 p.m. in the Community Center to further protest the planned removal of the county fire truck from Bolinas, according to President Thomas J. Barfield.

The meeting, scheduled for last Friday, was postponed because of the conflict with Good Friday, Barfield said.

He said Supervisor Vera Schultz is planning to be present at Friday's meeting and that a dozen persons are planning to speak against removal of the truck, scheduled for May 1 when it is planned to move it to the county's new Throckmorton ridge station.

Barfield said petitions are being circulated in Bolinas protesting the change.

"The Bolinas Fire Protection District covers 22,000 acres of watershed," Barfield declared, "and we have had the valuable assistance of the county's unit in the past to aid the district's two units."

Barfield contended that "if the county truck is removed from this area, we will be getting nothing for the 10-cent tax which we pay into the general fund for watershed fire protection."

He added that the radio telephone in the county truck is also the area's only means of emergency communication in case of power and telephone failure.

Two Guests Killed In Ukiah Hotel Fire

UKIAH (UPI) — Two guests were killed early yesterday when fire broke out in the 72-year-old Palace Hotel, but 42 other residents escaped without injury.

The dead were Bill Scheid, 75, and William Fuqua, 28, who lost a leg and was partially paralyzed in a logging accident two years ago.

The first started at 4:45 a.m. and destroyed a storeroom and one dining room before it was controlled. Damage, including that caused by smoke throughout the building, was estimated at $50,000.

State Govt. Efficiency Drive Begun

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today launched a "work improvement" program to cut costs, reduce waste and improve operations in state agencies.

He said the program was aimed at stepping up employee participation in efficient government.

To push his economy program, Brown named a six-man work improvement project committee, headed by Walter Dunbar, deputy director of the Department of Corrections. A termination date of Feb. 1, 1960, was suggested for the project.

"I think at this time when the fiscal condition is so critical we should provide the organization and procedures for an increased emphasis in the area of work improvement," Brown said.

In a follow-up letter to agency heads, the governor said state employees recognize "the seriousness of the situation and have indicated a willingness to assist" in simplifying work, reducing costs and improving operations.

Youngsters Admit Setting Can Afire

Three boys, two 12 years old and the third 10 admitted setting fire to a paint can inside the paint shed at Terra Linda Oaks unit 2 yesterday, sheriff's deputies reported today.

To Hospital Meet

Two members of the board of directors of the Marin General Hospital District will attend a meeting of the State Advisory Hospital Council Friday in Berkeley. S. Ames Pence, administrator, will accompany Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, board president, and Mrs. Marion C. Ibach, board secretary.

Accidents are fatal to about 13,000 farm residents in the United States each year.

Brown Plans Tour Of State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown expects to tour the state from Eureka to San Diego for two days next month to make "a mid-session report to the people."

Brown disclosed plans for the speechmaking trip this weekend on the first program of his new monthly television series, "The Governor Makes News."

"The time has come to go to the people of California with a full report on our plans and prospects," Brown said.

"I want to talk about what we are doing and why we are doing it, but I also want to listen to the people everywhere we go. I want to hear how they feel about our program."

The governor said he would give special attention in his trip to taxes, water, the budget, education, FEPC, labor and public health issues.

And this is just since the war!

The persistent "nibble" that adds up to a big 32¢ "bite"

The nibbling on your dollar goes on and on and on. Your payroll dollar. Your savings dollar. Just since the war, 32 cents have vanished from the dollar. And the history of inflation all over the world shows that it has a tendency to run faster and faster.

One reason further inflation can happen here is that we, as a nation, are living beyond our income.

When you hear of millions or billions being poured out on a new project, it's easy to get the idea that government funds come out of a bottomless purse. Instead every cent comes out of your pocket. In taxes . . . or higher prices.

Of course there are dozens of new benefits we'd all like to have . . . but are we prepared to pay the price of these benefits through higher taxes? If we keep on asking, we've got to be ready to keep on paying.

There is a way we can stop further inflation

The most important thing you can do in the fight against inflation is to see that the government—federal, state and local—spends your tax money wisely. You can encourage your representative in Congress, for instance, to fight against expenditures that may be better postponed and to work for a balanced budget.

A move in the right direction would be to see that the Employment Act is made more effective by setting a stable dollar as one of our primary goals along with maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

A balanced budget and a stable dollar will encourage people to add to their savings. Not only will a growing nest egg bring a comfortable feeling of independence and security to millions. But those savings, as they are invested, will provide the capital needed for America's future growth.

80 Prisoners To Help Save Whiskeytown

Eighty San Quentin prisoners who will be transferred to the new conservation camp near Redding, Shasta County, during the next two weeks will have a role in preserving a precious bit of Californiana.

The $500,000 forestry camp is scheduled to open on Wednesday. Twenty minimum security prisoners will be transferred from the prison immediately and another 60 will be moved next week.

The men will be put to work trying to save some of the century-old buildings of Whiskeytown in Shasta County. The stage coach stop sprang up overnight during Gold Rush days but has since become a ghost town.

Colorful relics of the past were fated to be inundated by Trinity River Diversion Project next year until the state Department of Parks and Beaches stepped in. San Quentin prisoners, in cooperation with the department, will dismantle the historic saloons and hotels reassembling them elsewhere.

Ft. Barry GI's Wife Injured In S.F. Crash

A Ft. Barry soldier's wife, Mrs. Wanda Sue Harden, 18, was the victim of a traffic accident as she stood on a San Francisco curb yesterday waiting for the green light so she could cross the street.

Mrs. Harden was waiting at Golden Gate avenue and Gough street when cars driven by Charles F. McNeill, 67, and Charles H. Thomas, 29, both of San Francisco, collided in the intersection. The Thomas car spun out of control, jumped the curb and hit Mrs. Harden. She was treated at Central Emergency Hospital for fracture of the right arm and possible hip fracture, and severe cuts and bruises, then transferred to Letterman Army Hospital.

McNeill was cited by San Francisco police for running a red light, and Thomas, for having no driver's license in his possession.

Mrs. Harden is the wife of Pfc. Billy Harden of Ft. Barry. They live at 865 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco.

53 I-J Newspaperboys Treated To Plane Flight

A group of 53 Indpendent-Journal newspaperboys were flying high Saturday.

The boys, accompanied by nine Independent-Journal dealers and Julian Leone, circulation manager, were passengers in a United Air Line DC7 from San Francisco International Airport which flew over Marin County and other Bay Area counties for more than an hour. They won the trip by being top scoring newspaperboy salesmen in their areas during the first week of a current six-weeks contest to obtain new I-J subscribers.

"As a result of their efforts," said Leone today, "the Independent-Journal today has a net paid circulation of over 27,000—an all-time high."

Saturday's flight was arranged by Redwood Travel Advisors of San Rafael. The boys made the trip to and from the airport by chartered bus. They are from Belvedere, Tiburon, Sausalito, Mill Valley, Novato and West Marin.

A similar flight in June will be offered top newspaperboys in central Marin, said Leone. Other prizes in the contest include flight bags donated by Bay Area airline companies, a trip to Disneyland, radios, baseball equipment and others.

The boys are now offering to new and present subscribers a "Home Reading" plan which permits purchase of as many as 40 nationally circulated magazines at bargain prices.

40 Missile Officers Hold Conference

About 40 defense missile officers attached to the 6th Region Army Air Defense Command today opened a two-day conference on advanced methods of simplifying and standardizing maintenance of the Army's defense missile program.

It is also designed to introduce new methods of crew drill calculated to add emphasis on the principles of safety in operating and maintaining the surface-to-air defense weapon as is applies to the soldier and community.

The two-day session opened with an address by Maj. Gen. E. J. McGaw, 6th Region commander, followed by a crew drill at Nike Ajax Battery B at Ft. Scott.

FLOWERS OF SPRING DECORATE CROSS

One of the more colorful Easter rites is the placing of spring blooms on a barren cross, symbolic of rebirth. It was carried out yesterday by children of Marin Lutheran Church in Corte Madera, who carried the flowers to a hillside cross near the church. BREAKOUT

Venetia, who is suspected as the second youth who with Mancebo instigated the escape, was nabbed by police at a San Rafael home on Shaver street where he took refuge. San Rafael police picked him up last night at 8:30. When cornered, Joseph said, "Okay, let's go."

Joseph, who was committed to California Youth Authority last week for his part in the car window smashing incident in San Rafael earlier this month, will be turned over to CYA today or tomorrow, according to Probation Officer Walter Busher.

Busher said he intends to file an assault charge in Marin Juvenile Court against Mancebo. Mancebo was at the hall for threatening a school teacher with a knife.

Two men supervisors and a girls' supervisor were locked up by the gang of toughs, who forcibly grabbed keys to make their escape out the back door and through a gate on the exterior fence. One boy, 16, changed his mind at the back steps and walked back inside. Busher said most of the other inmates, 14 boys and two girls, had a chance to leave but chose to stay at the hall.

Hasson, treated for a bruised left wrist at San Rafael General Hospital, was back on the job today. He gave this account of the uprising:

The boys were watching television in the living room when several youths began making obscene remarks. Hasson told them to stop. When Mancebo persisted, Hasson told him to go to his room.

GIVES UP KEYS

Mancebo jumped up, with several others crowding around. While Hasson stepped into the staff room to call the county farm for help, the youths surrounded Supervisor Joseph De Angelo, who works part time at the hall.

"Two of them were pretty big ones," said De Angelo. "One of the big ones told me, 'Give us your keys or I'll take them away from you.' I tried to argue with them, but they were serious about it. They got pretty threatening. I couldn't handle four of them, so I gave them the keys."

By the time Hasson had reached Acting Supervisor Nick Minitsky on the telephone, the boys had De Angelo's keys and were running toward the girls' wing. Hasson ran after them.

"I got between them and the door. Five or six of them crowded in and demanded the keys. I refused," Hasson related.

THREAT VOICED

Hasson said he was trying to talk them out of violence. In the meantime, somebody tore a cast iron bar from the wall where a wrestling mat was hung and handed it to Mancebo.

"He swung the pipe and said, 'I'll kill you,' " Hasson recalled. "I just ignored him and kept talking to them. He then hit the refrigerator and warned, 'next time it will be your head.' I still kept talking. Then Joseph pulled the keys off my belt. I reached out toward Joseph, and Mancebo swung the pipe directly at my head. I raised my arm and deflected it."

With keys in hand, the boys locked Hasson, De Angelo, and girls' Supervisor Joanne Nadeau in the isolation room. They then broke into the staff room, where they took watches, wallets and money with them, and tore out of the back door.

In the excitement, they overlooked Miss Jacqueline Johnson, another girls' supervisor. She used her keys to release the other supervisors.

The alarm spread throughout Marin, and the roundup began.

At 2:35 a.m. Easter Sunday, a 17-year-old boy from San Rafael was spotted walking along Highway 101 near Ignacio. He started to run up the hillside when he saw Deputy Sheriff Ernest Neilsen. He tried to hide in the grass. Neilsen used his spotlight and fired one shot wide of his hiding place. The boy surrendered immediately.

About the same time in San Anselmo near Isabel Cook School, Deputy Sheriff Leo Ballard and Inspectors Carl Sears and Guido Battaglia caught two boys, 14 and 15, inside a phone booth. They said they had walked from juvenile hall to White's Hill, then hitched a ride to San Anselmo.

About 4:40 a.m. San Anselmo police picked up five juveniles near the Greyhound bus depot. Officers Louis McAllister and William Dooley caught them as they came up from the creek bank.

One girl, 16, and four boys, two 16 and the others 14 and 17, were caught in this roundup. San Anselmo police began scouring the area when a mother of one of the escapees reported she had picked up her son and another boy, but they had jumped out of the car near Drake Market on Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

At 8:40 last night, the mother of a 15-year-old boy took her son to the sheriff's office.

Five minutes later, Joseph was caught on Shaver street in San Rafael by Officers John Kingston, Wade Powell and Leo Schwab.

One boy, who went to his home in Marinwood, was turned over to the sheriff by his father.

and a lack of scruples, have made Khrushchev's life story a Communist-style saga of rags to riches.

The Khrushchev era in the U.S.S.R. is now about five years old. In that brief historical period the 5 foot 5, 220-pound, former coal miner has zoomed to the top of the Soviet heap.

Perhaps he went too far too fast. He is not yet the sole inheritor of Stalin's awesome power. Those who stood in the way of his climb have been silenced, but not eliminated. His victories have been dazzling, but their foundation is flimsy.

He was born in a hovel in Kalinovka, in Kursk province, not far from the Ukraine, April 17, 1894. His father, Sergei, may have owned a small plot of land around the mud and reed hovel and thus have been a "kulak"—a landowning peasant. But his chief trade was that of coal miner. Nikita's grandfather had been a serf, one of the agricultural slaves freed by czar Alexander in 1861.

BECOMES MINER

Nikita at 17 was working as a locksmith in a factory at Kharkov in the Ukraine. From there he traveled to the Donets Basin to work in the coal mines. He was there, a man of 23, when the Russian revolution burst out.

Khrushchev took no active part in the revolution against the czar. But in 1918, when the Bolsheviks were striking for power, he joined the party and served in the First Proletarian Regiment in the Donets Basin during the first part of the bloody civil war.

Somehow Khrushchev managed to bring himself to the attention of his superiors. He became head of the agricultural section of the Kursk city Soviet. Then he was placed in command of a battalion to fight White forces in the Ukraine. Khurshchev's battalion was wiped out.

GETS NEW JOB

But Khrushchev's talent for blaming his mistakes on others came to the fore. He became political commissar of a big guerrilla detachment.

After the war, Khrushchev, worked for a while in an iron mine and for the first time, at 27, got a chance to go to school. He studied at a workers' faculty for three years in Kharkov, and went from there to party jobs in Stalino and Kiev. Then came his first big break.

Khrushchev's party work came to the notice of Lazar Moisevich Kaganovich, the dreaded "iron commissar," then first party secretary in the Ukraine. Kaganovich had Khrushchev sent to Moscow's Industrial Academy in 1929 for further studies.

His studies completed in 1931, Khrushchev became secretary of a regional Moscow party committee, once again the protege of Kaganovich, then secretary of the Moscow committee and member of the ruling Central Committee. Khrushchev went to various industrial centers to root out Stalin's enemies.

Khrushchev also threw himself with a will into Kaganovich's program for transforming Moscow, doing much of the work of organizing labor for such projects as the celebrated Moscow subway. That won him the Order of Lenin.

A quarter century later Khrushchev would repay his benefactor by bouncing him out of the post-Stalin hierarchy.

But in 1934 Khrushchev was just a Kaganovich man, and his boss got him finally on the powerful central committee.

CASTRO

Jr. on June 4, 1953, and sold the garage to Scettrini Jr. on Aug. 14, 1953. Scettrini paid $12,000 cash for the tow cars and paid $6,500 down on the $25,000 price of the garage.

The sale was completed and all but $3,000 of the price paid before Castro was appointed to the board of supervisors in November, 1953.

NEGOTIATIONS BEGUN

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich produced records showing the county board of supervisors was negotiating through Marius Cordone, realty broker, for the Scettrini land for a fairgrounds. The $237,000 price was that at which it was offered through Cordone.

Residents of Santa Venetia protested against a fairgrounds being located there, however, and the board of supervisors (of which Castro was not then a member) dropped the matter.

Supervisor Vera Schultz revived the move to purchase the Scettrini land—but for a civic center, not just a fairgrounds. Again the county started to negotiate through Cordone. After several months of fruitless negotiations, Mrs. Schultz persuaded her fellow supervisors to negotiate through the district attorney's office without an intermediary.

Meanwhile, said Weissich, Scettrini received an offer of $2,950 per acre for the land. A deposit was placed in escrow.

Then the supervisors (with Castro now a member) acted, ordering condemnation proceedings to get the land for the county. The suit never went to trial, Scettrini accepting a negotiated price of $2,850 per acre from the county.

County records show the total price paid was $412,969, plus interest and taxes from December 1955, said Weissich. This would total approximately the $417,000 mentioned in the anonymous letter.

"The record speaks for itself," said Castro. "I was not a member of the board of supervisors when I sold my garage, and that transaction had nothing to do with the purchase of the civic center land."

Delay by the board of supervisors cost the county the difference between $237,000 and $417,000 for the land, Weissich agreed, but Castro was not a party to the earlier, unsuccessful negotiations.

"I would welcome a grand jury investigation into my affairs at any time," said Castro.

"There is nothing here for the grand jury to investigate," said the district attorney.

Nervous System's Role With Allergies Explained

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Children and adults who are overly sensitive to certain food, cloth, hair, or perhaps pollen in the air are said to have allergies. Perhaps you are allergic to something yourself.

Have you ever wondered why only some people are allergic to strawberries or eggs? And why others are able to eat all the strawberries and eggs they want?

The blame or cause of the allergy cannot be the food or pollen since some people are not bothered at all. The trouble then is something within you.

Allergies and many other illnesses are caused by poor functioning of the nervous system.

Nerves frequently are pinched by bone as they leave the spinal cord and spread throughout the body. This reduces the normal nerve impulses from the brain and the affected parts of the body are unable to do their usual job. Allergies then develop.

They generally can be overcome once a chiropractor locates the nerve interference and corrects the spinal defect.

For additional information on Chiropractic care (Palmer Method) write Dr. Robert W. Pearce at 1628 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, or address a card or letter to Dr. R. W. Pearce in care of Independent-Journal Box 725, or call GL 3-6201. Advertisement

French Try To Purify Language; Down With 'Gongstair', 'Boojay'

PARIS (UPI) — A drive is on to purge the French language of all foreign words—especially the American slang expressions which have become increasingly prevalent since World War II.

The semi-official Office of French Vocabulary has set Wednesday as D-Day in a drive to eliminate foreign words from French speech.

The office, headed by Georges Duhamel of the French Academy, has asked readers to report all publications which use foreign words on that day. Although no formal punishment of the publications is contemplated, Duhamel's office will try to mobilize moral indignation against them.

A number of American expressions are in common use in France, although the fact is not apparent to the casual tourist. On a Frenchman's tongue, "gangster" becomes "gong-stair" and "budget" is "boo-jay.

The vocabulary office is urging French newspapers to refrain from the use of such words, using the French equivalent instead — and, presumably, inventing an equivalent where none now exists.

The drive has borne some fruit in official circles. Practically all French officials now say "oleoduc" when they mean "pipeline." even though ordinary Frenchmen — more accustomed to the American term — often don't know what they're talking about.

England contributed such words as "high life" (pronounced "igg-leaf), "weekend," "five o'clock" (meaning afternoon tea), "football' and "flirts" to the French vocabulary during the years between the great wars, and "gangster" was a well-established American import before World War II.

Since the war, the dominant foreign influence on the French language has been American. Frenchmen like to show off their linguistic talents by dropping such words as "call-girl," "pickpocket" or "brain trust" into their conversation, just as their American counterparts use expressions like "tout de suite."

Inmate Found Hiding In Gym

Oscar B. Lugo, 33-year-old Mexican serving time in San Quentin Prison for grand theft and child molesting from Los Angeles County, was found hiding under benches in the prison gymnasium at 4:15 p.m. yesterday, said Associate Warden Louis S. Nelson.

Lugo told prison officials he hid because he was scared. He owed too many cigarettes and couldn't pay them. Unidentified inmates had threatened to hurt him if he didn't pay up.

Lugo was placed in a solitary cell to await a hearing before the prison disciplinary committee tomorrow.

☐ For taxes or insurance?

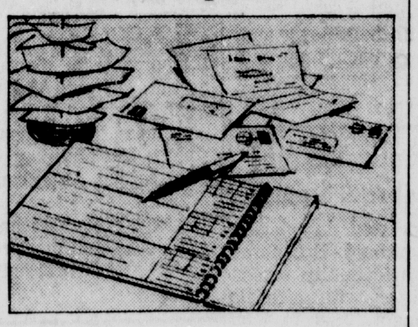
☐ On a weekend or at night?

☐ For emergency car repairs?



☐ For unexpected bills?

☐ For a family emergency?

An Automatic Credit Account would have given you cash fast. Prepare now for the unexpected in the year ahead. Open your Automatic Credit Account today.

Now you can prepare for the unexpected and put your personal finances on a business basis!

AMERICAN TRUST COMPANY

announces the NEW

Automatic Credit Account

This new kind of account gives you credit at the bank. It's a reserve to draw on whenever and wherever you need it, and whatever you need it for.

Once this comprehensive credit account is established, you can write a check, or checks, for any amount that you may need—up to the full limit of your credit.

Automatically, the bank advances money to cover any Automatic Credit checks you write and once a month sends you a statement of your account indicating the payment due.

Automatically, as you pay your bill at the bank, you restore the amount of credit available to you.

Like a business, you set up a "line of credit." This forethought means you don't have to touch your "capital"—that is, dip into your savings—to meet an unexpected need.

And your Automatic Credit Account costs you nothing at all until you actually write your first check.

Here's what it does for you:

A business approach to family finances. Of course, just like a business, you try to keep your "operating budget"—your ordinary living expenses—well within your monthly income. But, inevitably, there are unusual major expenses. Maybe it's a medical or dental emergency, tuition, taxes, or vacation costs. These extra expenses are the ones Automatic Credit can help you handle more efficiently.

"Ready cash" in a hurry. Your house, car, insurance, other property or investments all represent major assets. Yet none of these can be converted to cash quickly without delay and serious sacrifice. Now you can protect yourself and your assets. Assets mean credit and credit means cash—when you have an Automatic Credit Account at American Trust Company. Automatic Credit Account checks represent a reserve of "ready cash" right in your pocket.

"Ready cash" means smarter buying! How often have you missed a big opportunity because your cash reserve was low? Or put off needed repairs or improvements? Whether you're in the market for a house, a car, new furniture, or a good buy for the freezer, your Automatic Credit Account gives you practical "working capital"—cash to snap up a bargain, earnest money for a major purchase.

Consolidation can save you money and worry! Sometimes you need one large sum to clear up several big bills, put you on an even keel again. Now, just as a comprehensive insurance policy can cover many insurance needs, Automatic Credit gives you comprehensive credit coverage. Automatic Credit ends the need for special loans.

When you are away on a business trip, your wife and children can be protected. Automatic Credit Account checks left at home represent a stand-by reserve to meet unexpected household expenses or emergencies.

Here's how it works:

You don't have to be a depositor! All you do is fill out a simple application for the amount of credit you'd like to have available. As soon as your application is approved, you can use part or all of it. There are no application fees and your Automatic Credit Account costs nothing until you use it.

Your "line of credit" can be $300 — or up to $3,000. Your Automatic Credit Account will be based on 24 times the amount you can comfortably repay per month. For example, if you arrange to repay $30 per month, your maximum credit will be $720. Once you start using your Automatic Credit Account you will receive a monthly statement showing the amount of your "line of credit" which is in use and the monthly payment due.

You receive a book of checks which look to any payee like an ordinary check. They are specially coded so that only you and the bank know you are using credit.

How you pay back the credit used. Your monthly payments will be 1/24th of your "line of credit," or 1/10th of the actual balance due—whichever is less (with a minimum payment of $25). The charge for using your Automatic Credit Account is 1¼ per cent of the balance due each month, plus 25 cents for each check used.

You have a revolving cash reserve. As monthly payments are made, reducing the balance due on the account, you automatically restore the amount of credit available to you.

It's good business to be prepared! An Automatic Credit Account makes it easy to plan ahead. Come in to any office of American Trust Company and let our people tell you how this Automatic Credit Account can help you.

SAD SAM HAPPY TO JOIN GIANTS

Jones Rates S.F. Top Contender

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—The newest San Francisco Giant of them all, pitcher Sam Jones, was tentatively set to pitch a few innings today when the bay team hosted the Chicago Cubs in a Cactus League tussle.

The gangling righthander, key figure in a big trade with the St. Louis Cardinals, arrived here late yesterday. He brought a cold with him from soggy Florida, but still said he was ready to hurl when Manager Bill Rigney wanted him to. Rigney indicated that would be today.

Jones said that he had not had any arm trouble this year and also said that he felt the Giants "had as good a chance as anybody" to cop the National League flag this year.

"I'm glad to be here," drawled the slope-shouldered righthander on his arrival at the airport last night.

"The big thing in baseball is to get ahead—and now, for sure, I'm with a club that has a definite chance to win the pennant."

He struck out 225 batters last season—best record in the National League and an all-time high for the Redbirds.

Centerfielder Willie Mays, Jones' buddy, met him at the airport when he flew in from his home in Monongah, W. Va.

Sad Sam denied he was worried about Seals Stadium in San Francisco which he cussed while with the Cards as "the worst ballpark in America—bar none."

That the Giants can use another front line hurler was demonstrated again yesterday. San Francisco hammered four home runs, but came out on the short end of a 9-7 slugfest against Boston.

The Bosox had three round-trippers themselves with Frank Malzone's two-run belt in the ninth spelling the Giants' doom.

Ed Bhessoud, Orlando Cepeda, Jackie Brandt and Andre Rodgers were the Giant fourmaster hitters, but the most significant blow may have been a triple by Mays. Willie legged it out at top speed, slid into third and gave no indication of being bothered by his recently injured leg.

Brandt and Felipe Alou each had two of the Giants' 11 hits.

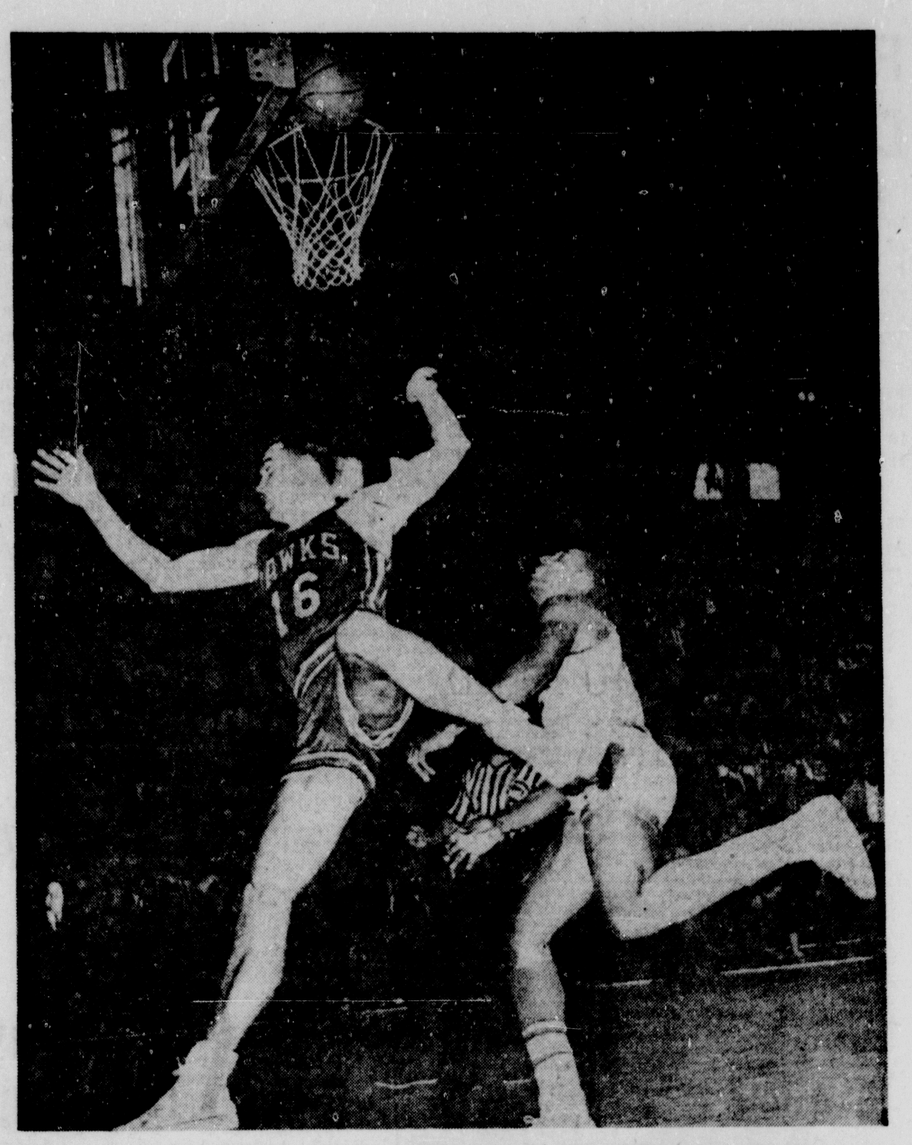
Jack Sanford started for San Francisco and was relieved by Dom Zanni, who receipted for the loss. The defeat evened the Giants' Cactus League record at 9-9.

Scheduled to see action today for San Francisco along with Jones were Stu Miller and Curt Barclay.



WIDE-STEPPING HAWK — Cliff Hagan (16) of the St. Louis Hawks seeks to regain his balance after shooting for the basket in the game with the Minneapolis Lakers yesterday. The Lakers won, 106-104, to cop the NBA's western division playoff series. Hagan's shot missed and the Lakers' ace rookie, Elgin Baylor, is moving in for the rebound. (AP Wirephoto)

'Hungry' Olson 9-5 Favorite Over Calhoun In S.F. Clash

Former meddleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, a hungry fighter again at age 30, continues his campaign for a light heavyweight title bout when he battles hard-hitting Rory Calhoun tonight.

Olson is a 9-5 favorite.

Bobo has won three comeback fights, all by knockout, but not against the caliber of Calhoun, a ranking 160-pound contender.

They meet over the 10-round route at the San Francisco Cow Palace in a non-televised bout expected to do a $40,000 business. Olso fights for a guarantee of $10,000 or 35 per cent of the net while Calhoun stands to collect $7,500 or 25 per cent, whichever is greater.

Olson's share might appear large, but it won't do too much in erasing the $53.200 tax bill Uncle Sam holds against him.

Olson has 11 dependents, his ex-wife, Helen, and four children and his present wife, Judy, and five.

The income tax problem stems from the days when he ruled the 160-pound class and earned hundreds of thousands. Then he tried for the light heavyweight title and Archie Moore knocked him out. Ray Robinson KOed him twice, lifting the middleweight champion with the first one, and heavyweight Pat McMurtry also stopped him.

Now Olson says he is in the right weight class and feels strong at 174 pounds or so.

"Making the 160-pound limit used to weaken me," he says. "I'd see a punch coming and try to get out of the way but couldn't do it fast enough."

Since starting his comeback as a 175-pounder, Olson has shown to advantage. His three knockout victims include Paddy Young of New York who also tried a comeback.

Calhoun, of White Plains, N.Y., isn't giving Bobo a thing—except a few pounds in the weight column. Rory figures to weigh 168 and without the worries of getting down to 160 figures he will have more zip.

"You'll see it the night of the fight," he declares.

The Hawaiian-born Olson, who lives in San Francisco, has won 69 fights and lost 10 with 5 by knockout. Calhoun has won 39, lost 6 and fought one draw. He has been stopped only once, by Spider Webb at the Cow Palace.

Olson terms San Francisco his lucky town. He has fought here 18 times and lost only once, a close 15-round decision to Robinson in March, 1952.

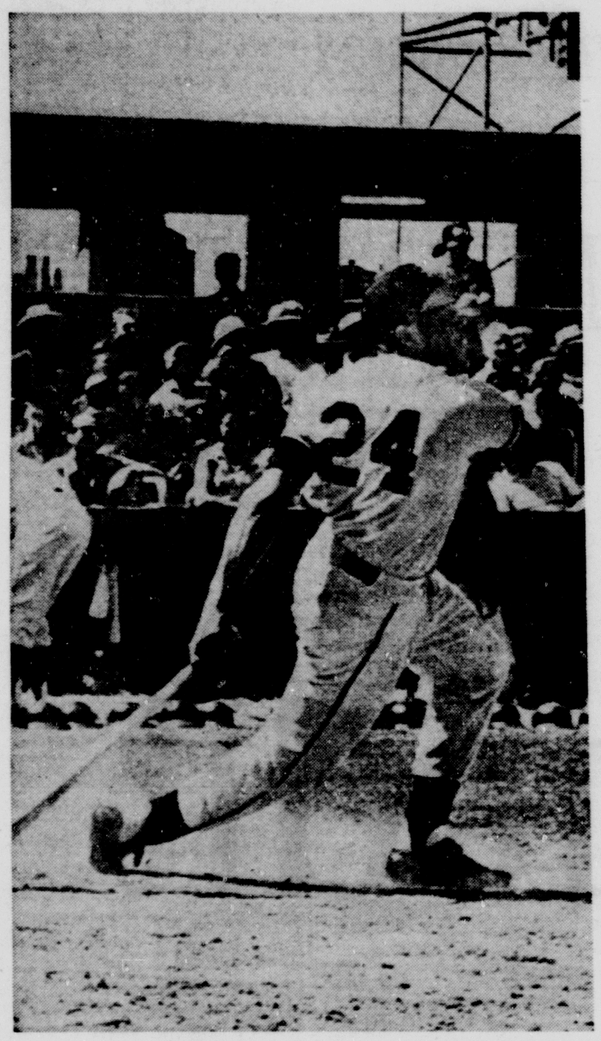
First preliminary starts at 8:30 o'clock. The main even will go on around 9:15.



WILLIE'S BACK — Star centerfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants returned to action yesterday and showed he has completely recovered from a leg injury that put him out of the lineup March 12. Here he watches his three-base hit soar into left field. He raced around the bags and slid into third, showing no signs of trouble from the gashed leg that required 35 stitches. (AP Wirephoto)

TEBBETTS MIFFED

Braves Blasted For Complacency

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the opening of the National League season less than two weeks away, the champion Milwaukee Braves are doing nothing to improve their own confidence or their stock in the rest of the loop.

Consider:

1. Their record is the worst in the Grapefruit League, 5-13.

2. They still haven't found a satisfactory replacement for second baseman Red Schoendienst, out with TB.

3. General Manager Birdie Tebbetts admits he's worried about the complacency on the team.

And if that isn't enough, old faithful Warren Spahn was blasted for four home runs in yesterday's 7-3 Braves' loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

Operating at second base was 23-year-old Chuck Cottier—good field, no hit. At the moment, he has the call over Felix Mantilla and Joe Morgan.

"I'm concerned about complacency on the club," Tebbetts said.

"I'm more worried about the fact that we have no young fellows to battle the others out for their jobs—to make them put out."

Tebbetts and Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul talked trade in Miami Sunday, But like the rest of the league, Paul senses the Braves are in trouble and isn't of a mind to help them plug the second base gap.

After pitching a three-hit shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals last Tuesday, Spahn was shelled for six runs by the Reds. The homer hitters were Frank Robinson, Dutch Dotterer, Johnny Temple and Pete Whisenant. Robinson hit another later against Joey Jay.

In other games Sunday, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5; the Cleveland Indians turned back the Chicago Cubs, 4-2; the Boston Red Sox whipped the San Francisco Giants, 9-7 and the Kansas City A's halted the Washington Senators, 3-2, in seven innings.

The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees played a 3-3 tie that was called off because of rain after eight innings, while the St. Louis-Philadelphia and Los Angeles-Detroit games were rained out.

Prep Finals Postponed

Championship playoff in the annual Marin County High School Baseball Tournament, already twice postponed, was delayed again today by the rain.

Originally scheduled for last Tuesday night, put off to Thursday and then postponed until this afternoon, the final game now has been rescheduled for next Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at Albert Field in San Rafael, according to Tourney Director Ray Bell of Tamalpais High.

The finalists are Drake's Pirates and the Redwood Giants.

Wall Holds Strong Lead

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — Art Wall Jr., who says he would be happy just to get a par 72 in the brisk wind which has whipped the course for three days, went into the final round of the 11th annual Azalea Open Golf Tournament today with an impressive seven-under par 209.

Mike Souchak, who played against Wall on the Duke University course years ago, moved into the challenger's spot in the third round yesterday, five strokes behind. The Grossinger, N.Y. pro and former Blue Devil football player turned in the day's best showing with a 70 that gave him a 214 total.

But Wall's blistering 66 of Saturday enabled him to hold a steady lead with his 36-35—71 third round score.

Wall, Souchak and Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., with a 215 total, were the only three players to come up below par through the first 54 holes of the $15,000 tourney.

Lakers Gain NBA Finals; Baylor Hero

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The amazing Elgin Baylor today climbed aboard the pedestal previously reserved for only George Mikan at Minneapolis.

There was no shoving.

Baylor earned his niche alongside the former Minneapolis great this weekend as he led the Lakers in the National Basketball Assn.'s final playoff.

It was Baylor's prolific scoring as well as his superlative defensive work that enabled Minneapolis to defeat St. Louis in two consecutive games and eliminate the defending champion Hawks 4-2 in their best-of-seven series.

Rookie Baylor, an All-America at Seattle last year, scored 36 points Saturday night—seven of eight Minneapolis scored in overtime—as the Lakers squeezed out a 98-97 decision. Baylor's foul shot in the last 27 seconds won it.

Yesterday at Minneapolis the Western division playoff title was on the line. Baylor came through with 33 points in a clutch performance. His two free throws with a minute left proved the margin of victory in the 106-104 triumph.

The Eastern division semi-final playoff between Boston and Syracuse is tied at three games each with the deciding contest to be played Wednesday in Boston. The Celtics romped 129-108 at home Saturday, but the Nats squared it with a 133-121 victory yesterday at Syracuse.

Dolph Schayes with 39 points and George Yardley with 32 paced Syracuse. George Ramsey led Boston with 26.

LONG EQUALS SHOT RECORD

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — Dallas Long's world record-equalling shot put of 63 feet 2 inches will be submitted for official recognition.

Easter Relays officials said all conditions were met when the 18-year-old University of Southern California giant made the throw Saturday.

The record was originally established by Parry O'Brien former USC star. O'Brien finished third Saturday.

Former Kansas athlete Bill Nieder, now of the U. S. Army, was second with 62 feet 9 inches. The best O'Brien could do was 62 feet ¼ inch.

'Big O' Paces East Over West Stars

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A sparkling shooting exhibition led by Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson and Mike Mendenhall brought the East a 102-71 victory over the West in the Ararat Shrine Temple's eighth all-star basketbaly game Saturday night.

All-America Robertson led the scoring with 22 points, one more than made by teammate Mendenhall, who was especially active for the East in its drive to a 47-41 half time lead.

Records Fall As Herb Wins 'Bullship Race'

A record time and a record turnout marked the sixth annual "Bullship Race" Saturday as a fleet of 102 eight-foot El Toros raced three miles across the bay from Sausalito to the San Francisco shore.

Only 17 minutes separated the first boat from the last in the fleet, as brisk and steady breezes carried the small craft along at a good clip.

The only flip of the day sent escort ships after a youngster, 13-year-old Al Nelson of San Francisco, who was not an official entry. Twenty-one is the minimum age for participation.

Tom Lee, also of Lake Merritt, was second by five seconds; Richard Jacobsen, Aeolian Y.C., third to cross the line and earn the Ondine trophy for the best maiden voyage; J. R. Gendreau, Palo Alto, was fourth and Caroline Ladd of Lake Merritt, in fifth place, was the first woman to finish, winning the Sirena award.

BEARD, DAWSON FINALISTS IN NOVATO GOLF

K. J. Beard will tangle with Nort Dawson next Sunday for the Indian Valley Golf Club's second annual Sjring Handicap Tournament championship at the Novato course.

They are the last two survivors in the field following yesterday's semi-final round as Beard eliminated C. B. Coleman, 6 and 5 and Dawson nipped Steve Meuse.

The 18-hole finals will start at 8:30 a.m. next Sunday.

In the consolation bracket semi-finals yesterday Orv Boyer downed H. J. Ross, 4 and 3 and Byron Dickson stopped Fred Meyer, 2 and 1.

In weekend match vs. par play at Novato, Phil Nathan led the field by coming home 4 up, followed by Dawson, H. L. Burnell, Boyer and Bud Sparrow each 2 up and Dickson and Meuse each 1 up.

Pony League Signups At Greenbrae School

Boys interested in playing with the Kentfield-Greenbrae Pony League team this season should register with officials tomorrow night, 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock, at the Greenbrae School.

The Pony team, entered in the Southern Marin League, is for boys 13-14 years of age. Each boy must be accompanied by a parent and present proof of age. A $2 registration fee is required.

Marin Merman 4th In NCAA

Gordon Collet, 18-year-old Novato swimmer who set an American record Friday, failed in his attempt to score a "double" victory as the NCAA swimming and diving championships completed a three-day run Saturday in Ithica, N.Y.

The star of the University of Oklahoma team placed fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke event Saturday in the time of 2 minutes, 24.2 seconds. The winner, Bill Mulliken of Miami, Ohio, set an American record in 2:21.6.

Friday Collet set an American, NCAA and meet record in the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:03.2.

Ted Enters Hospital; Awaits Word On X-Ray

BOSTON (AP)—Red Sox slugger Ted Williams was admitted to New England Baptist Hospital today for examination and treatment of his neck and shoulder which have been paining him for a couple of weeks.

X-rays were taken, after which Williams left the hospital to attend to personal affairs.

He was due back at the hospital later. It was not known how long the 40-year-old outfielder would stay.

At the hospital, Williams consulted with Dr. Charles Fager, a neurosurgeon.

Despite his repeated triumphs on the field, Williams is experiencing still another of a long line of physical ailments which have plagued him since his World War II hitch as a Marine pilot.

GROWS WORSE

"I'm all right, I'm all right," the defending American League batting king said when he left the plane at Logan Airport. "This has been bothering me for about two weeks now and been getting progressively worse. It's definitely more than muscular but I'm not worried about it."

"I was feeling better than in some time when this thing hit me," Williams continued. "I was hoping for once I could get through my spring training without some handicap interfering with my program."

Delany Wins, But Disappoints Fans

CHICAGO (AP)—Peerless Don Delany, who seems to win with incredible ease, has carted off the huge Bankers Mile Trophy but—contrary to the hopes of track fans—in unspectacular fashion.

About 10,210 fans jammed the International Amphitheatre Saturday night for the 23rd annual Chicago Relays, hoping Delany might make his 34th straight indoor mile victory and third Bankers a record one.

They had reason to hope. This was the Villanova graduate student's last indoor mile of the season. And, last year, the 24-year-old Irishman cracked the indoor mark with a 4:03.4 in the relays.

Instead, Delany, running what he called his easiest race of the campaign, methodically pounded out a 4:06.4 mile.

Bears Romp To Easy Track Win

BERKELEY (UPI)—California swept to an easy track victory over the Santa Clara Youth Village and the San Francisco Olympic Club Saturday.

Scores were 81-48-30, although the Olympic Club was weakened by having a pair of stars gone to participate in the Easter Relays at Santa Barbarba. Santa Clara University athletes also participated here Saturday, but were unable to score a point.

A pair of Cal sophs stole the show with Alan Gaylord running a 9:16.4 two-mile and Cebron Russ broad-jumping 24 feet 1 inch.

Willie White was a double winner for Cal with a 9.7 second 100 and a :23.3 low hurdles victory.

U.S. Troops In Japan Ruled Unconstitutional

TOKYO (AP) — A lower Japanese court ruled today that the presence of U.S. bases and troops in Japan is unconstitutional.

The decision, if upheld by higher courts, could wreck the U.S. defense setup in this strategic Far Eastern nation.

It also would bring into review all of the international commitments made by Japan since she regained independence in 1952.

SURPRISE VERDICT

The surprise verdict was made by the three-man Tokyo District Court in acquitting seven men indicted in 1957 after they broke into the U.S. Tachikawa Air Base outside Tokyo to protest its expansion.

The court, freeing them, said the presence of U.S. bases and personnel in Japan violated the famous "no-war" Article 9 of the Japanese constitution, which was largely written by the American occupation authorities after the war.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGE

It also declared the Japanese citizens were discriminated against by special laws connected with the treaties giving the United States the right to station troops. It was under one of these laws, the special criminal code, that the defendants were indicted.

The Japanese government has 14 days to appeal.

The American Embassy said any comment from it on the actions and decisions of a Japanese court would be improper.

LONG LITIGATION

It might be years before a final decision is handed down.

Japan's constitution renounced war forever as a means of national policy. But Gen. Douglas McArthur, while U.S. supreme commander in Japan, directed that the constitution would be interpreted to mean that Japan could have military forces provided they were for defense purposes.

AFRICA LEADER MAY BE DEAD IN PLANE CRASH

BANGUI, Central Africa, (UPI) — A plane with Premier Barthelemey Boganda aboard crashed 55 miles west of here yesterday and the fate of Boganda and eight other persons was unknown.

The wreckage of the plane was found today, strewn over a hillside near the village of Benaza. There was no immediate report of the discovery of human remains among the debris, and it was considered possible that Boganda and others among his official party may have parachuted to safety.

Boganda, an African native, became the chief of government in Central Africa—formerly the French colony of Ubangi Shari — when it recently achieved the status of an autonomous republic in President Charles de Gaulle's "French Community."

'Laugh Death' Hits Natives In New Guinea

Evelyn Muhlenhard, a lay missionary from Concinnati, said doctors have been unable to determine the cause of the deaths. They have found no disease organisms in the victims.

Miss Muhlenhard said the affliction has mainly hit women and children of the Okapa tribe. They suddenly take sick and "waste away," she said, with their faces contorted in a grin.

She said there had been no indication of witchcraft.

Two Ex-Underground Fighters Team Up In Engineering Firm

Marin Becomes Home Base For European Pair

Marin County has a new engineering firm, established this month in San Rafael by two men who once risked their lives in the wartime underground forces of their native lands.

The two partners, both 36 and both experienced in civil and structural engineering, are Polish-born Stanley M. Bala of 15 Manor road, Kentfield, and Jesper C. Strandgaard of 11 Eugene street, Mill Valley, a native of Denmark.

Offices of the Bala and Strandgaard firm are located in Suite 309 of the Herzog-Rake Building, 1005 A street, San Rafael.

Bala formerly was project design engineer with International Engineering Corp. in San Francisco. The firm is a subsidiary of the giant Morrison-Knudsen Corp., which has construction projects throughout the world.

Strandgaard's most recent position was that of senior civil engineer with Svedrup and Parcel Engineering Co. in San Francisco.

MEET IN 1951

The new partners met in 1951 while working for the same consulting firm in Clarksburg, W. Va., Bala as a bridge engineer and Strandgaard as a designer and, later, chief engineer.

They decided to enter business together in this county because they felt Marin, with a rapidly growing population and a need for many types of construction to meet that growth, could use more engineers. Both registered civil engineers, they are prepared to design anything from retaining walls and drainage ditches to subdivisions and industrial plants.

MARINA DEVELOPMENT

Bala, who came to Marin in 1954, and Strandgaard, who moved here the following year, also have expressed interest in the county's potential for marine-type developments.

In 1942, Bala received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Wawelberg Mechanical College in Warsaw. He obtained a master of science degree in civil and structural engineering in 1950 at Polish University College in London, England.

An accomplished highboard diver, Bala was named in 1939 to the Polish Olympic swimming team which was to compete in the summer games at Helsinki, Finland, the following year.

DREAM ENDS

But his dream of becoming an Olympic champion was short-lived, ending with the German invasion of Poland on Sept. 1, 1939.

Nazi occupation officials permitted the reopening of Wawelberg Mechanical College early in 1940 because engineers were needed for work on German military projects. But the students outfoxed them. By prearrangement, all members of the 1942 class, first to graduate under occupation rule, vanished from sight the day after they received their degrees.

Bala and his fellow graduates changed their names, moved to new addresses and could not be found by the Nazis, who promptly closed the college.

POLISH UNDERGROUND

Already experienced in resistance activities, Bala spent the next three years as a member of the Polish underground army. He did intelligence work and served as courier and war correspondence. His principal job was supplying information to the Polish government in exile via contacts in the neutral countries of Sweden and Switzerland.

Bala participated in the ill-fated Warsaw uprising of 1944. In 64 days of bitter fighting the Nazis killed nearly 200,000 Poles, evacuated the city's remaining population of almost two million and systematically destroyed every building in the Polish capital.

Among the last underground fighters to be captured, Bala and some 17,000 compatriots capitulated as Nazi troops were about to clean up the city's final pocket of resistance.

GERMAN PRISONER

Imprisoned in Lubeck, Germany, Bala was liberated by British and Polish forces in May of 1945. His wife, Maria, had been seized early in the Warsaw uprising. First a prisoner of the Germans and later of the Russians, she fled Poland in the winter of 1945 and was reunited with her husband shortly after Christmas that year.

They came to the U.S. in the summer of 1951 and spent 18 months in West Virginia before moving to San Francisco, where Bala was employed by Bechtel Corp. until late 1955.

During his three years with International Engineering Corp., Bala worked on two important Brazilian hydroelectric projects. He helped design the 400-foot Furnas Dam, South America's largest, as acting and then assistant project design engineer. And he was project design engineer for the Camargos Dam, a 117-foot earthfill structure now being completed by Morrison-Knudsen.

MARIN "BOSS"

His immediate superior on these jobs, incidentally, was James W. Libby of 118 Reed boulevard, Strawberry, who this year was named chief engineer of the international firm.

The career of Strandgaard roughly parallels that of his partner. Born in Copenhagen, he was attending the University of Denmark there when the Nazis occupied his country in April, 1940.

The Germans gave the Danes a relatively easy time of it at first, even permitting them to maintain their small army. Like Bala, Strandgaard was allowed to continue his studies. During summer vacations he served in the Danish army. He received a bachelor of science degree in mathematics, physics and chemistry in 1942.

DETENTION CAMPS

In 1943, the Germans suddenly got tougher. The Danish army was dissolved and all military personnel were put in detention camps. But most of them, including Strandgaard, were released about three months later. They soon became the core of an underground organization which secretly trained civilians for combat. Happily, the training proved unnecessary.

During this uneasy time, Strandgaard was able to resume his university studies. In 1946, one year after the war ended, he received a master of science degree in civil and structural engineering.

His first job took him to Norway as a government surveyor for the reconstruction of Kirkenes, a town the Nazis had completely destroyed.

YEAR IN ENGLAND

He went to England in 1948, working one year with a chemical firm before coming to the U.S. During his six years in West Virginia, he rose from designer to consulting engineer and, finally, chief engineer with the Frank D. McEnteer Co. In 1952, he and Bala designed a $200,000 municipal building and parking decks for the city of Grafton, W. Va.

Strandgaard is a member of the American Society of Danish Engineers and the American Concrete Institute. He is unmarried.

Italy Agrees To Allow U.S. Missile Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italy's agreement to station Jupiter missiles on her territory is expected to heighten the importance of the Atlantic Pact strategy conference opening here Thursday.

As foreign ministers of the 15 member nations gathered in Washington for preliminary talks, diplomatic officials last night reported that Italy, after a year of negotiation, had approved the placing of intermediate range missile bases in northern Italy.

From these bases, a Jupiter could reach the southern portion of the Soviet Union.

The agreement, expected to be formally announced in a few days, means that part of the program set up at the last North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting had been achieved. In December, 1957, the foreign ministers agreed to build IRBM bases in the North Atlantic area.

This year's conference, which marks the 10th anniversary of NATO, will be preceded by vital talks among the foreign ministers of the United States, England, France and West Germany.

They hope to lay out the master blueprint for negotiations with the Soviet Union at a foreign ministers conference in May and a probable summit conference in the summer.

Talks will begin tomorrow with the arrival of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Grace Kelly III, Columnist Says

NEW YORK (UPI) — Concern over Grace Kelly's health has prompted the current visit in Monaco of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelly of Philadelphia, the New York World-Telegram said today.

Frank Farrell, columnist for the Scripps-Howard newspaper, reported that when the Kellys departed to see their daughter and her husband, Prince Rainier, they took with them a prominent surgeon, Dr. James Lehman. The columnist said Princess Grace has not been feeling well, has had several recent attacks of appendicitis and may have to undergo surgery for this and other ailments.

Nehru Denies India Aiding Tibet Rebels

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told Communist China today it could not dictate to India. He also denied Peiping charges that the Tibetan rebels were operating from India soil.

Peiping's formal charges against India have brought relations between the countries to a new low and today's session of parliament was a shouting, desk pounding one in which sympathies were clearly with the Tibetan rebels.

There were predictions the Tibetan revolt would lead to a major shift in India's neutralist foreign policy but Nehru's statements today were cautiously worded. He said India should have friendly relations with Red China. He was cheered when he said Peiping could not dictate to New Delhi.

Peiping radio, which had cautioned India not to discuss China's "internal affairs" in parliament, announced today the puppet Panchen Lama has accepted acting premiership of Tibet and promised to turn the theoracy into a Communist satellite.

Nehru said the question of admitting refugees—including the Dalai Lama, the god-king deposed by Peiping—would be settled as it arose and that India could not open its borders to half the population of another.

Members jumped to their feet, pounded their desks and demanded "why not?" They pointed out that countries neighboring Hungary opened their borders to refugees and demanded the same action for the Tibetans.

The members also charged that oppressive Communist military action in Tibet was a "direct threat" to India's security and demanded Peiping be told the time had come when India could no longer be a spectator.

Nehru specifically denied official Peiping charges that Kalimpong was being used as a rebel base.

Whereabouts of the Dalai Lama still were not known, but a reliable Indian report from Kalimpong said he and 40,000 of his followers were moving south and eastward toward the Indian border and might seek asylum in India.

One unconfirmed report said the 23-year-old god-king was seriously injured in a fall while fleeing from Lhasa.

Margaret May Visit Pope John

LONDON (AP) — New Protestant complaints were expected today in the wake of a newspaper report that Princess Margaret may accompany Queen Mother Elizabeth when she calls on Pope John XXIII in Rome next month.

Court sources said the princess is going along when her mother visits the Italian capital April 20-26. The London Sunday newspaper "The People" said the princess was most anxious to meet the Pope.

A British Protestant organization has protested the queen mother's having an audience with Pope John. The protest stems from the fact that Queen Elizabeth II is the titular head of the Church of England.

Princess Margaret was received by the late Pope Pius XII at the Vatican 10 years ago to the accompaniment of similar criticism from British Protestants.

The report in "The People" said palace and foreign office officials are urging the 28-year-old princess not to call on the new Pope.

"No member of the British royal family for centuries has paid a second visit to Rome after having been received in papal audience during a previous visit," the paper said.

Americans ate about twice as much chicken in 1957 as they did 20 years ago.

More Rain Perils Madagascar; 50,000 Homeless

TANANARIVE, Madagascar (AP)—Torrential rains pouring down for the fifth straight day worsened the flood-and-hurricane disaster which has hit Madagascar.

At least 50,000 persons were homeless in Tananarive alone, and more than 120 were known dead. Madagascar's Premier Philibert Tisranana called the series of hurricanes and floods "a disaster unprecedented in the island's history."

The government, French-led troops and battalions of relief workers were fighting back with every means available.

Rampaging rivers dealth death and destruction in wide areas of this Florida-sized island off southwest Africa's coast.

Madagascar's weather bureau held out hope this morning that the rain may let up by tomorrow.

Vandals Strike At Old School

Weekend vandalism was reported at Novato's old Grant Avenue School, temporarily used as a meeting place by the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints and as the weekend home of a San Francisco customs man.

Twelve glass windows were shot full of holes by BB pellets, reported Douglas Harvey Larsen of 17 Buena Vista, Novato. Sometime after 4 p.m. Friday, clods of dirt were thrown through the windows, Larsen reported.

August Clement Abeling, 59, of San Francisco reported that sometime in the last two weeks his cabin at 1645 Indian Valley road had been entered, all light bulbs removed from their fixtures and smashed the front door paneling knocked in, and a portable radio and an ax taken.

Sunnyside Terrace Hearing Tonight

The Corte Madera Planning Commission will hold public hearings tonight on a revised proposal for rezoning in Sunnyside Terrace and on a precise site plan for the town park.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The proposal for rezoning of four lots in Sunnyside Terrace is the latest in a number submitted by Carl S. Vella and Cleland O. Whitton of San Francisco.

The request is for the lots to be changed from duplex to apartment use. The change would allow one family per every 2,000 square feet rather then the 4,000 feet now required the zoning of 14 other lots in the subdivision would remain unchanged.

Old Mill Plans To Be Discussed

The Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission will hold a special meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the city hall to inspect plans for resoration of the old mill and improvement of the adjacent recreational area, according to Chairman Charles P. Guichard.

The project is under sponsorship of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West.

15,000 Walk 53 Miles To Protest Arms

LONDON (AP)—A column five miles long filed into central London today with jazz bands blaring and banners demanding an end to all nuclear weapons.

Nearly 15,000 singing demonstrators snarled traffic around Trafalgar Square at the climax of a 53-mile march to the capital from Britain's nuclear arms factory at Aldermaston.

Leaders of the march went to No. 10 Downing street, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's official residence. They delivered a written appeal denouncing nuclear arms as "wholly evil" and calling on Britain to scrap them even if the United States and the Soviet Union won't.

Ike Motors Back To Washington

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower today cut his Easter holiday a bit short, apparently because of rain, and headed back to Washington.

The President plans to return later in the week for a speech on the international situation Saturday morning at Gettysburg College's spring convocation.

Most Wanted Algerian Rebel Reported Killed By French

ALGIERS (UPI)—Rebel "Colonel Amirouche," most ruthless and successful guerrilla leader in Algeria, was shot to death by French troops Friday, the French army announced yesterday.

Amirouche's exploits had made him a hero to Moslem Algerians and the most-wanted man in Algeria to the French.

Another rebel leader, Si Haoues, died later of wounds received in the same gun battle, French sources said. Six other Algerian rebels were killed or wounded.

Only 33 years old, Amirouche had been a guerrilla since the early days of the Algerian rebellion. He took to the hills with a band of followers in October 1954 when the National Liberation Front (FLN) called for an all-out struggle against the French.

Amirouche and his men became known for their ruthlessness, not only against the French but against fellow-Moslems who did not toe the FLN line.

Algerians who did not aid the rebels were shot. When French troops discovered a mass grave in which 400 Algerians were buried last July, they attributed the execution of his fellow-countrymen to Amirouche.

ONE PRIZE EGG ELUDES NOVATO THRONG

Seven Injured In Weekend Auto Accidents

Seven persons, five of them Petaluma residents riding in one car, were injured in three weekend auto accidents on Marin County highways.

The five were hurt at 11 o'clock last night when their northbound car ran off the Pt. Reyes-Petaluma road near Novato boulevard and struck a pole.

LIST OF INJURED

Injured were the driver, Cleon John Ruegge, 40-year-old Petaluma service station operator; his wife, Levia, 42, and daughter Peggy, 2; William Bonner, 46, of Petaluma, and Bonner's wife, Genevieve, also 46. All were taken to Hillcrest Hospital in Petaluma.

Ruegge and his daughter were treated for superficial injuries and his wife for bruises of the left knee and shoulder. The Bonners were admitted to the hospital, Bonner with head cuts and bruises of the back and legs and his wife with rib injuries and leg abrasions.

Ruegge said he was tired and may have dozed at the wheel momentarily, the California Highway Patrol reported.

NOSE INJURY

George Bordi, 53, of San Francisco, suffered a nose injury at 10 o'clock last night in a two-car accident on Highway 101 at Redwood road, Novato. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

Bordi was riding in a southbound car driven by his wife, Sylvia, 40, when it struck an auto that was crossing the highway without lights after pulling away from the Club Rio, the Highway Patrol reported.

Driver of the second vehicle was M/Sgt. John Parks, 42, of the 501st Field Training Detachment, Hamilton Air Force Base. He was cited for failure to yield the right of way and driving without lights.

3-CAR CRASH

Daniel W. Solomon, 41, of Building C-38, Apartment 299, Marin City, suffered minor injuries Saturday at 5 p.m. in a three-car rear-end collision on Highway 101 at Spencer avenue on Waldo Grade. He was treated by a physician.

Solomon was riding in a car driven by his wife Eddye Mae Solomon, 49-year-old beautician. The other cars were driven by Mrs. Gladys Gertrude Cross, 42, of San Francisco, and Andor SeSoos, 59, of San Francisco. All were southbound.

Christian World Celebrates Easter

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Christians rejoiced yesterday in celebration of the Resurrection of their Saviour and its promise of eternal life.

Easter services in huge cathedrals and humble country churches, on mountain tops and at ships at sea repeated the message which gives Christianity its meaning: "He is not here; for he is risen."

Despite near freezing temperatures, an estimated 800,000 persons turned out to parade along New York's Fifth Avenue. The cold and a Good Friday snowstorm froze out the traditional floral display at Rockefeller Center.

At the other end of the country, clear, mild weather brought out a throng of about 20,000 persons at Easter services in California's Hollywood Bowl.

Overseas, almost perfect spring weather greeted an unprecedented number of foreign pilgrims who flocked to Holy Jerusalem, where Christ was crucified nearly 2,000 years ago. Among the pilgrims were Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium.

At Rome, Pope John XXIII said mass at St. Peter's Basilica and prayed that world leaders would bring an end to discord "in the superior interests of peace in the world."

After the two-hour mass, the Pontiff stepped outside and gave his Easter blessing to thousands of persons who stood in a steady rain in St. Peter's Square.

Easter went virtually unnoticed in Moscow and the only service was at the city's only Roman Catholic Church where mass was said Saturday night for a capacity crowd. The Russian Orthodox Church does not celebrate Easter until May.

Speaking at the Hollywood Bowl service, Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, a church leader, said history's greatest events are those which affect the greatest number of persons for the longest periods of time.

"By this standard, no event could be more important to individuals or nations than the resurrection of the Master," Benson said.

State Police Force To Be Reshuffled

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Finance Director Bert W. Levit has decided to reshuffle the state police force to discourage new thefts of civil service examinations.

Levit's "tightening up" announcement yesterday followed the dismissal of four state officers, the suspension of another state policeman, the resignation of two officers and three Sacramento County deputy sheriffs.

The four officers were fired, Levit said, after his investigation showed they had stolen tests from state personnel board offices here and in San Francisco.

"We're taking steps to see that this doesn't happen again," Levit said, "and were untying any knots that have grown up in the department."

He said "there has been a little too much of this buddy-buddy stuff. We're tightening up on the general management procedures and reviewing assignments to tours of duty."

Officers probably will be moved about more frequently than in the past to prevent new cliques from developing, Levit said.

The finance department investigation began last fall after three Sacramento County deputies made extraordinarily high scores on advancement tests.

Red Cross First Aid Class Begins Tonight

An advanced first aid class given by the Marin County Red Cross chapter will start at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the chapter house at 711 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

Metropolitan Area Problem Board Named

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Some new kind of unified local government may be coming for California's booming cities.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown appointed a 19-man commission on metropolitan area problems yesterday and asked it to come up with some new ideas.

"We do not rule out the possibility that we may even leave behind our present concept of counties, cities and districts," the governor said.

He listed five central issues for the commission to look into — transportation, housing, economy, air and water pollution, and unified government.

Ben C. Duniway, San Francisco attorney, was named chairman, assisted by J. Edward Day, Los Angeles insurance executive.

Long-Time Nurse Gets Gold Watch

Miss Ethel Gilogly, nurse at San Rafael General Hospital for more than 30 years, received an engraved gold watch at brief ceremonies held recently at the hospital.

M. J. Lamperti, member of the board of trustees, made the presentation. Refreshments were served afterward.

Miss Gilogly previously had been awarded a service pin set with a diamond. She is the first member of the hospital staff to receive a gold watch, but in future all employees who attain a 25-year service record will be accorded this honor by the board of trustees.

Miss Gilogly was the subject of a feature article in the current issue of the "Guerney, San Rafael General Hospital publication. The article said she is probably the senior nurse in point of service in the county's three general hospitals.

COLD FEET . . . ?

A generation ago some people thought rubbing the soles of the feet with grease would ward off a head cold. Today, we know better. Adequate rest and a well-balanced diet go a long way toward preventing colds. But, sometimes even the best precautions aren't good enough. When you are ill—whether you have a cold or something more serious—effective medications are important. They can be the difference between pain or comfort . . . slow or fast recovery. Let your physician decide the remedies you need. Then come to us for the prescribed medication.

Girl Scout Leaders Complete Tenderfoot Training Course

Leaders and assistant leaders of fourth grade Girl Scout troops recently completed a tenderfoot training course held in Corte Madera under the direction of Miss Lois Little.

Tenderfoot requirements must be fulfilled by the girls before they are eligible to "fly-up" into Intermediate Scouting. The group met for three two-hour sessions and was divided into three patrols. Each patrol shared in the job of preparing and demonstrating the skills required for this rank. One patrol did a homemaking demonstration showing the group how to teach girls to set a table correctly and how to make a bed properly. The second patrol taught the group how to use a compass and how to make a rough sketch map. The third patrol demonstrated the use and care of a pocket knife and how to lay and light a simple fire for outdoor cooking using wood and charcoal.

In addition to patrol demonstrations, the group learned how to display the American flag and other flags at public gatherings, how to wear the uniform, the meaning of various insignia and the history of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides. On May 7 and 14 these women will attend a two-session training event at Sky Oaks Girl Scout Camp in Fairfax to learn more skills in the outdoor program.

The following women completed the course and received a certificate: Mesdames G. H. Allen, San Rafael; Jack Benz, Harold Boisert, Don Schultz and Laurence Thoman, San Anselmo; Roger Brooke, Robert Seeba, Fairfax; W. G. Caldwell, John Davidson, G. F. McDonogh and William Polhemus, Belvedere, Tiburon; C. R. Gondak, Corte Madera, Larkspur; G. D. Hart, Neils Schultz Jr., L. T. Tuttle, Henry Wickert, Kentfield, Ross, Greenbrae; B. P. Maraccini, E. L. Muszynski, Richard Weeder and Julian Weiner, Mill Valley.

Lenora May Daly Becomes Bride Of Robert Whitman Jr., Sunday

An Easter Sunday afternoon wedding of interest to many Southern Marin people was that of Lenora May Daly and Robert Joseph Whitman Jr.

They were married at 2 o'clock in the Mill Valley Community Church, which was decorated in a yellow and white theme with daffodils, carnations and snapdragons.

When the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, Frank A. Daly of Strawberry, she was wearing a gown of white peau de soie which she had designed and made herself. The fitted bodice was fashioned with cap sleeves and round neckline, and the skirt had a dipped hemline with bustle back flaring into a chapel train. The neck and waistline were trimmed with lace, and a lace cap held her fingertip veil.

Her flowers were a crescent of lilies of the valley and phalaenopsis orchids tied with loops of white satin robbon.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Stephen Pieser of Oakland; maid of honor was her other sister, Frances Ann Daly; and junior bridesmaid was her cousin, Glenna Lou Bliss of Loveland, Colo.

All attendants were identically gowned in sleeveless sheaths of yellow peau de soie and wore matching cage veils trimmed with bows of the yellow peau de soie. Their flowers were ballerina bouquets of yellow Pinocchio roses and yellow tulle centered with forget-menots.

Candlelighters, Lori Bard of Sausalito, and Judy McKinney of Mill Valley, wore white shantung sheaths and matching cage veils trimmed with bows, and they carried yellow paper candles set in white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. Roy A. Stone and Robert Joseph Whitman Sr., both of Mill Valley, was Roger Murphy of Mill Valley, and escorting guests to their seats were Stephen Pieser of Oakland, Michael Durrie of Belvedere; Frank Foreman, Douglas Weber and Fred Whitman, the bridegroom's brother, all of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Daly attended her daughter's wedding in a pink and white pattern printed silk sheath fashioned with watteau back, a pink cage veil, and shoes and white gloves. Walking down the aisle with her were her son-in-law, Stephen Pieser and little granddaughter, Kimberly Pieser.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a powder blue lace dress, white picture hat and white accessories. Each mother had a corsage of pink baby roses.

On their return, they will live at 228 Oakdale in Mill Valley.

Lenora and Bob graduated from Tamalpais High School. In June she will graduate from the University of California, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

After attending the College of Marin for two years, Bob served six months on active duty with the Air Force Reserve. He is now employed with his father in a wholesale food business in San Francisco and is a member of the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce.

International Dinner Planned By Junior Red Cross Members

An international dinner to be held on April 11 at San Rafael High School and inauguration of a Speakers' Bureau are but two of the activities claiming attention of Marin County Junior Red Cross members.

These projects were chosen by the Junior Red Cross County Council which functions as a governing body for the organization's activities in the county.

The Council sets its own policies, draws up a budget, makes plans and puts them into practice—all with the help of adult guidance supplied by their advisor, Harry Mack, and the adult advisory committee headed by Mrs. Winifred Detsch, who is director of Junior Red Cross for Marin County.

The committee is made up of Mesdames Kenyon Spalding, vice chairman in charge of enrollment; Ralph Groves, speakers' bureau; Ben Young, liaison for hospital activities; Harold Stetson, tray favors and uniform design; Charles Kelly, Junior Grey Ladies; Lowell Jett, publicity; Charles Stafford, Victor Rowe and Hunter Sterne; Miss Mildred Maguire, Dr. Virgil Hollis and Victor Rowe.

In developing a Speakers' Bureau the Junior Red Cross County Council hopes to fill the need for supplying information concerning their organization. Speakers, who will be chosen from council membership, will be given special training before they volunteer to appear before any adult groups which may be interested in the program. It is one designed to be integrated into the school program whenever and wherever this proves desirable.

A current activity sponsored is arranging for Marin art students to provide entries for a flower exhibit sponsored by the Red Cross Society of South Africa in connection with their annual convention to be held during the summer.

A Red Cross chapter in each state has been asked to be responsible for an exhibit featuring its state flower, and Marin County Junior Red Cross has been chosen to provide California's exhibit featuring the state flower, the Golden Poppy.

Before shipment to South Africa these exhibits will be displayed at the American National Red Cross Convention in Atlanta, Ga. It is hoped the Marin County entries will be ready in time for display at the international dinner in April.

Marin Terrace P-TA Plans Festival

Mill Valley Marin Terrace School children are hoarding their dimes and looking forward with great enthusiasm to the school's annual P-TA sponsored Spring Festival. It will be held at the school on April 7 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Stephen Cook and Mrs. Ervin Cox are recruiting cooks and bakers from P-TA ranks to insure plenty of treats in the snack stand—potato salad, cookies and cupcakes. There will be hot dogs, for the hungry, races for the fleet of foot, games to try the hand and eye, booths with trinkets, books and useful knicknacks.

Gardening P-TAers are helping Mrs. Jack Martin and Mrs. J. B. Norall get plants ready for a dish garden booth.

Mrs. Robert Adams has been stocking up on marbles, darts, balls and balloons, as well as a supply of prizes for winners of games, and Mrs. Raymond Kemp has been readying posters and decorations to transform the schoolyard.

Little girls are rounding up feathers, ribbons, buttons and bows to decorate a homemade hat for the spring bonnet review, and boys are busy with string, paper, nails and wood for the home-made kite flying contest.

Dallas Model Back At Work After Breast Cancer Operation

By GAY PAULEY

The American Cancer Society said that cancer of the breast is the number one cancer killer among women; that 21,000 die each year.

Yet ACS says that 81 per cent of all breast cancer is curable if diagnosed early and treated properly. As is, 46 per cent of the cases diagnosed are cured.

Those of us who have covered the Dallas Center Collections since they began formal showings to the press in 1950 have grown to know Mrs. Irma Austin well. She and three other top-flight models—Zane Hays, Juanita Ransome and Ann Daniels—are "perennials" in the center's presentations.

The four also are close friends, and although all are married and have children ranging in age from 14 months to 13 years, are booked daily for fashion, photographic and television work.

Irma is a general favorite with retail stores, manufacturers, buyers and press alike, not only because of her good looks and clothes knack, but also her sparkle. She still has that, despite the fact that last October, physicians gave her "a 50-50 chance of survival."

The model said her malignancy seemed to develop suddenly—"I went to bed one Saturday night feeling fine doctor."

The physician told her the probable nature of her illness and "that," she said, "is the only time I ever cried.

"I went home and told Paul (her husband, a supervisor with Chance Vought Aircraft) I wanted to be alone for a while.

"And then I prayed."

Within two weeks, the model who is 41 and the mother of a five-year-old daughter, went through her first surgery breast. One month later, surgeons performed an hysterectomy, as a protective measure.

"They strip everything," said Irma matter-of-factly. "to help slow or prevent the disease."

After surgery, physicians gave her Cobalt and X-ray therapy, plus injections of radioactive phosphorous into the bloodstream.

"But I am so lucky in so many ways," she said to me. "My wonderful husband . . . I am here in a city where there are leading cancer specialists available. And I went to the doctor in time. He later told me the type I had was so fast, if we hadn't caught it when we did, I wouldn't have lived 30 days."

"I've always had superb health; I'm almost a health addict," she laughed. "My doctor says that, plus my mental outlook, has as much to do with my recovery as anything else."

Today her personal physician says he believes her 100 per cent well, although Irma explained he could "not pronounce a cure until five years have passed."

She was back modeling within two weeks after the first surgery. Within two weeks after the second, she resumed her charm schools for teenagers, a project she began four years ago, staging two-week sessions in cooperation with stores in the Southwest.

She also has regained her model's figure (37-26-36) although she has to wear a specially fitted bra. The only bookings she turns down are for shows where strapless gowns pose a problem because of the surgical scar.

MODELING a dress is Mrs. Irma Austin, 41, one of the nation's loveliest models, who calls herself one of the world's luckiest women. Mrs. Austin survived two bouts with surgery in the last year to conquer cancer. Today she is back again on the fashion runways in Dallas. (UPI Telephoto)

Antiquers Today Seek The 'Different' Find

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—There's something new in the business of collecting the old.

Today's antiquers are concentrating on the "different" finds—from suits of armor to totem poles—which make better conversation pieces in the home than collections of old porcelain or glass. Even if they are not as valuable.

In New York's Second and Third avenues, every other shop seems to deal in some phase of antiquity. It is amazing what has been emptied from attics to fill store windows.

There are those suits of armor handed down from heaven-knows-whose militant ancestor; old diving helmets; gaming devices; cigar store Indians; weathervanes; coffee mills; churns; wooden well-buckets; bird houses whittled by some patient early settler; hunting decoys; whirligigs which once decorated fence posts; figureheads from old sailing vessels; shopkeepers' signs or plaques saying "stage coach stops here;" landscapes and portraits done by itinerant artists, the results now called "primitives," and even "wanted" posters from pre-FBI days offering $50 reward for horse thieves dead or alive.

And all are selling.

"People buy for fun, no longer for investment," said Henry Coger, a native of Jonesboro, Ark., who, with his partner, John Bihler, formerly of Chicago, runs a well-cluttered hangout for collectors of the unusual.

Coger figures there are three basic reasons for the changing taste of antiques collectors. They no longer can afford the servants to help clean elegant collections of old glass, china and figurines; have no room to display such collections; and no longer are interested in gathering together the traditional.

"It's the desire to be different," said Coger, whose personal collection leans to Americana. "The same motivation started women on the wig fad."

Coger and Bihler do most of their antiques hunting at antiques fairs—"The nation's attics long since have been emptied," said Coger.

"There is a real shortage of antiques," said Coger, "and in all fields from fine old European furniture to Early American cookie boards.

Commentator Speaks On Russia At Outdoor Art Club Meeting

We have only two alternatives to "Living With Russia," William Mandel told Outdoor Art Club members and guests Thursday, and they are—dying with Russia—or retreating to an American fortress.

Radio and TV commentator, author and scholar, Mandel is working under a Stanford University Fellowship in Slavic studies at the Hoover Institute. He learned the language and attended Moscow University before World War II while he was living in Russia with his father who had a contract with Russian railroads. He is also a translator of scientific material of researchers who are interested in Russian scientific advances.

Mandel takes the position that the United States must "live with Russia" and that there will never be a more favorable time for negotiating with the Russians toward that end than right now.

An all-out war in unthinkable, he asserted, we could not win innumerable ground wars—and it is impossible to retreat into an American fortress.

President Eisenhower, he said, is being subjected to pressures to stall further negotiations with the Russians while we should be bargaining at the peak of our power.

In 20 years, Mandel predicted, Russians will have the living standard that we have now because their rate of progress is 10 per cent whereas ours is only two per cent.

He warned "We are too complacent." People of underdeveloped countries haven't found our alternatives to communism acceptable. We prefer to close our eyes to the changes in Russia that the great masses of humanity—in Asia, Africa and Latin America—consider positive.

Mandel then went on to list factors that have vastly improved the Russian living standard in the last 35 to 40 years.

1. Russians are no longer "dirty" because they can now afford soap.

2. The past year they have produced more milk and butter than the U.S. though our consumption is still a little greater, but in two or three years, theirs will be greater than ours.

3. Their food standard is roughly equivalent to that of the U.S. Thirty-five or 40 years ago—"3 or 4 square meals a day"—which was not too bad—perhaps a little heavy on flour with not so much meat or fruit and vegetables—but adequate.

4. Clothing may not be stylish but it is well made, and everybody today has leather shoes.

5. Housing is the worst (but not worse than it was 30 years ago) because of the destruction of 25,000,000 home units in World War II and the change from a rural to urban population when thousands of peasants were moved into cities to work in factories. And it is important to remember, he pointed out, that the people are not too dissatisfied with one family to a room when only 30 years ago many were living in barracks-like conditions with only burlap curtains providing privacy.

6. Public health is at a very high level—their life span is almost the same as ours and has doubled in the last 40 years—infectious diseases have been almost eliminated—the death rate is lower than ours—and their nurse to patient ratio in hospitals is one to four.

7. Their education in the elementary through high school level is much superior to ours for a number of reasons including the high value they place on it, the high respect in which the teaching profession is held, and the fact that students are trained to believe that learning is very important.

Furthermore, Mandel continued, there is no evidence of political unrest in the country; there have been no political arrests in the last five years; and the Russians have a very good record for getting out of countries they have occupied.

"Within one generation the Russians will be on a material par with us in just about every aspect of life, and we have only this one generation at most in which to make sure that leadership remains with us.

Conservationists Deserve Bow On 25th Anniversary

The Marin Conservation League celebrated its 25th anniversary today.

A quarter of a century ago when the league was launched, the idea that it might accomplish a fraction of what it has actually accomplished would have been unthinkable.

It is typical of the league that its 25th anniversary dinner and meeting announcement — a four-page illustrated pamphlet—is concerned almost entirely with projects that the group is presently engaged in advancing. There are only passing references to the accomplishments of the past 25 years.

A major reason for the league's success has been, apparently, that its leaders always look forward instead of backward.

Marin enjoys the benefits of four state parks—Mt. Tamalpais, Samuel P. Taylor, Tomales Bay Beaches and Stinson Beach—and the present status of each is in large part the result of tireless efforts by Conservation League workers.

Marin County's rather rigid planning restrictions, including strict controls on roadside billboards, were brought into being with staunch backing from the Conservation League membership.

Its 25th anniversary finds the league with two immediate goals: 1—development of the Rose Verrall wildlife sanctuary (on Richardson Bay) for the daily use and enjoyment of Marin and other Bay Area residents, and 2—establishment of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Recreation Area as a facility for vacationing "next to nature" (but close to San Francisco).

Any recognition of the league's accomplishments would be incomplete without special mention of its two most conscientious and faithful workers, Mrs. Norman Livermore and Mrs. B. K. Dunshee.

Mrs. Livermore has headed the league as president continuously since its formation. Mrs. Dunshee, while remaining for the most part out of the public spotlight, has been tireless and energetic in her conservations efforts.

We salute them on the occasion of their anniversary and wish them another 25 years (at least) of successful and productive conservation work.

Planning The Summer Vacation

In countless Marin homes about this time of year, restless spirits are paying heed to that vagabond-gypsy travel urge and are planning the summer vacation trip. Colorful travel folders filled with fairy-tale promises of wonders to behold and beauties to enjoy litter tables and desks.

Literature praising the economical joys to be savored in Trieste or Tiajuana or Tokyo or Timbuktu will have father chewing his pencil to a nubbin as he tries to figure same.

This so typically American restless feeling is a holdover from pioneer days. It was this drive, this curiosity, this feeling of excitement about the hill beyond the hill beyond the valley which caused our European ancestors to pull up their stakes and sail to an unknown land. The lure of the promising unknown also brought people westward to California.

The only advice we have for the modern day traveller is to travel light and take twice as much money as you think you'll need. And remember not everything will be as glowing as the travel folders say. But it will be a change and wonderful fun. Bon Voyage!

THREE MINUTES A DAY

THIS WAY TO PEACE

Mr. Mikoyan received an unexpected spiritual reminder from a high government official just before he left Washington to return to Moscow.

During a call on Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss, the Soviet Deputy Prime Minister was given a copy of George Washington's Farewell Address, with the following passage underlined: " . . . Reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

Our nation was founded on the sublime truth that each and every human being created in the divine image, derives his rights from God, not from the state. This primary principle is specifically stressed in the Declaration of Independence.

Do something to keep this fundamental in the forefront of life. Until all nations recognize man's divine origin and rights, little progress will be made toward lasting peace. So we would do well to merchandise this heavenly product with even greater speed and efficiency than we do our material goods.

"God created man to his own image."
(Genesis 1:27)

Allow me to be Your instrument, O Lord, in spreading over the earth the good news of man's sacred worth.

Lives Of Great Men All Remind Us Best Work Is Often Done Past 60

Think you're too old to set the world on fire? You're not. A study of 400 outstanding men in history showed 35 per cent had made their greatest achievements between 60 and 70, 23 per cent cent 70 and 80, and 8 per cent when they were more than 80. In other words, 66 per cent of their greatest work was done by men past 60.

On the other hand, the most written about man in history is Christ, the second is Shakespeare, the third is Abraham Lincoln. None of them lived to be 60. Conclusion: It's what you do that counts, not the age at which you do it.

The average U.S. family now consumes 244.9 pounds of bread and 44.7 pounds of cured ham a year. What is home without a sandwich?

What's-in-a-name department: Tom Collins is an agent with the Federal Alcohol Tax Enforcement Unit in Charleston, W. Va. The "Ask Mr. Foster" travel agency in New York has a secretary named Holiday Tripp.

YOUNG MAN, if you are searching for a wife who can keep you in the style you want to become accustomed to, don't overlook the girls in your own office. The salary of white collar girls has gone up about 50 per cent in the last decade.

You never know when someone may ask you how much salt there is in salt water. Well, sir, the ratio generally is three parts salt to every 1,000 parts of water.

HINT FOR dieters: Brazilian singer Rosina Pagan has a method for preventing late night snacks. She has a calorie chart pasted on the inside of her refrigerator door.

The average iceberg travels up to 1,800 miles before it melts. But the average icicle is just a stationary drip.

Scare Planning Helpful To Enemy

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I agree with Glen Carlson that it is dangerous to base disaster plans on assumptions that may prove to be wrong. But Mr. Carlson, has, I believe, fallen into the same error.

He says "it has been demonstrated quite clearly that in the event of a nuclear war, every man, woman and child in Marin County will probably be dead, within thirty days." I deny that this is a fact.

Suppose that the enemy decides not to take the advice of the people who come out with these civil defense assumptions, and figures out a way to take the country without destroying it? The present civil defense program of "scare planning" would in my opinion be very helpful to the enemy.

It is time that the authorities took a leaf from the book of the Red Cross and started preparing to meet disasters instead of trying to read the enemy's mind. I vote for "disaster preparedness" and against "civil defense" as at present constituted.

School Unification Study To Begin

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The petition requesting the County Committee on School District Organization to study the entire county considering unifying the county as a whole, was presented because no plan now exists for all of the county.

The fact that individuals from all over the county signed the request for the study and that the West Marin area and others have requested studies not now under consideration, indicates a review of the entire county is needed.

The master plan for a portion of the county, presented three years ago, is obsolete, and does not even consider the West Marin area.

The majority of people in Marin county favor the single administration and program for children from kindergarten through high school and even junior college (part of the public school system too).

A better educational program along with long overdue economy and efficiency of operation has universal appeal. The expensive system of "private" schools at public expense and the cost of paying high salaries for the multi-duplication of administrators and personnel and services has no appeal to the many Marin families who must maintain two incomes to exist.

A horse and buggy school system has no place on our highways of the future and present.

Recent public meetings of the county committee have revealed that the people are not against school district unification. The question now is how and where to unify.

The public hearing for this petition (as required by law) will be held at the San Rafael High School auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, March 30, to determine if there is sufficient interest in this educational study of the whole county.

'Ham' Operator Jams TV Channel

Independent-Journal:

What can be done about a local "ham" radio operator who jams the KRON-TV frequency on Wednesdays and weekends usually. He states his call numbers but they are jumbled and too fast for interpretation.

He talks to one person named Andy and another named Mike but their parts of the conversation don't interrupt the program.

I believe him to live somewhere in the Reservoir Road area as he mentioned this street one night while talking with Andy.

Eisenhower, Macmillan Agree To Use Force At Berlin If Necessary

WASHINGTON—The chief unannounced result of the Eisenhower - Macmillan talks was a semi-final agreement on a Berlin contingent plan.

A Berlin contingent plan is official jargon for a conditional plan of military operations, which would be carried out if and when Nikita Khrushchev gives the signal to his East German puppets to renew the Berlin blockade. Washington and London have been deeply divided on this problem. Hence the Anglo-American agreement is a major step forward, although the agreement will not be final until it has been approved in Paris and in Bonn.

THE PLAN THAT was agreed upon calls for the use of force, if the need arises, to defend the Western right to use any and all access routes to Berlin, on the ground or in the air. In the most extreme case that can be foreseen, if the roads to Berlin are blocked to the West's military transport, armed convoys will be sent to open the roads.

The decision to defend the Western right to use all the access routes represents a substantial concession by the British, who have preferred the less uncompromising plan of answering a renewed Berlin blockade with another air lift. At the same time the President's repeated insistence that "we won't shoot first" has been spelled out in practical terms. It means that the Western convoys will go peacefully about their business, using engineer troops if need be to remove physical obstacles placed in their way. No force will be used unless and until the other side uses force first.

A more important British objection to the contingent plan was also overcome by ending the debate about "risking war for a rubber stamp." It is not known whether the agreement that was reached here fully covered this point, or whether the British simply made a reservation on this point. At any rate, the British were not asked to commit themselves to "risk war for a rubber stamp," by which they mean forcefully resisting the use of an East German rubber-stamp instead of the Russian rubber-stamp that is already required on the travel documents of Berlin-bound Western convoys.

IN OTHER WORDS, the contingent plan both is as firm as necessary and as moderate as it can be, if it is to work at all. The importance of the plan really cannot be exaggerated. The Western leaders have agreed to go to the summit under threat of force. No one can negotiate under threat unless he knows quite clearly what he means to do if the threat is carried out. Nikita Khrushchev's grand design has been to split the West on the Berlin issue. His best hope of success lay in a row about the contingent plan. That hope has dimmed.

Sausalito First To Choose City Chief By Competitive Examination

THE APPOINTMENT of Howard Goerndt as Sausalito Police Chief marks the advent of a new era of sorts in Marin's city government. Goerndt becomes the first, so far as we can determine, to be appointed to head a city department in Marin as the result of a competitive examination. Most other such posts fall into the appointive classification by either the city manager or council as was the case in Belvedere when City Manager Bing Rey named Bill Woodington police chief when Gene Meyer became undersheriff.

MILL VALLEY has no civil service regulations as such, but has a mandatory retirement age of 70. However, it will likely be a few years before City Manager Almcrants will be making any department head appointments. Veterans in the police department, for example, who have less than 10 years to go include Chief Jim McGowan, Capt. Joe Canet, Sgt. Ben Hartwell and Officer Tony Quadros. While Fire Chief "Nook" Armager probably tops them all on seniority, he has a lot longer to go to reach retirement age. When the time comes for appointments, however, Almcrants will probably hold competitive examinations within the department.

MRS. MARGARET GRANT, Mill Valley's Greyhound ticket agent and purveyor of newspapers (including the I-J), magazines, soft drinks, candy and large quantities of cheerful information, is in the throes of a major remodeling and enlargement of her quarters at the Lytton Square bus terminal. Just a cursory inspection of activity at the depot would dispel any ideas that bus traffic is diminishing. We would guess that if other travel agents adopted some of Mrs. Grant's techniques, it would probably be a fine thing for Greyhound as well as the agent. The place is really jumping most of the time.

WHILE NOT EXACTLY in the Easter spirit, a temporary stand erected on the sidewalk adjacent to the Easter "barnyard" near the Mill Valley bus depot last week bore the unusual designation of "Zeke's distillery." Closer inspection disclosed that the beverages being dispensed were beer of the root variety. Proceeds went to a fund being accumulated by the Tam high senior class for approaching events.

WHEN THE MILL Valley Commuters Club stages its annual potluck dinner at the Outdoor Art Club Friday evening, it will also honor the commuter from the Mill Valley area who has been making the transbay trip for the longest continuous period and is still commuting. We understand that the front runner is one who started in the spring of 1908 and is still at it. Any challengers should make themselves known at once to the commuters club officials.

Sacramento Observer Tells Views On Golden Gate Authority Plan

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The proposal by Senator John M. McCarthy, (R-Marin County), to create a Golden Gate Authority which would encompass air, rail and sea facilities for travel in the San Francisco Bay area, is an ambitious program, which probably some day will be enacted.

Whether the time is ripe for the Authority now, or whether it must be discussed for another few years remains to be seen, but Senator McCarthy is pushing ahead and attempting to get the plan into effect with the least possible delay.

BRIEFLY, THE plan contemplates the creation of the authority, representing nine Bay Area counties. Eventually the authority would control all of the toll bridges in the area, the seaports and the airports.

From the revenues available, present facilities would be improved, and a plan for a tube under San Francisco bay from San Francisco to Oakland to be constructed out of revenues, is a part of the program.

The authority would be a non-taxing district, financed solely from revenues on probable long-term bond issues.

The plan is in line with the growth and development of California. It disregards sectional control of any area, and at the same time, the measure contemplates the representation of all areas on the controlling authority.

IT IS ONLY natural that objections to this far-sighted plan would be raised. Objections could hardly be labeled provincial, because the plan for improvement is hardly known as yet. Generally, the objections are expected to come from people who have axes to grind, or who are afraid of transferring authority from themselves to another agency.

But many civic leaders believe the time not only has come, but is well past, when considerations for improvements must be viewed on an over-all basis instead of at a sectional level. Competition between facilities owned by the public appears fruitless, for as Edgar F. Kaiser, president of the San Francisco Bay Area Council, says,

"Instead of trying to take business away from each other, these facilities should be competing with the rest of the nation to bring business to all the ports of our harbor and to both of our airports."

Remember That Baby Gymnast Of The Newsreels Years Ago?

I've been talking with a retarded, crippled teen-age boy. I feel like weeping. He can't think clearly. His speech is jumbled. His movements are jerky. While we talked he had a grand mal epileptic attack. He has them daily.

You may have seen pictures of this boy years ago. He was a baby gymnast. As an infant he was hanging over the sides of skyscrapers. He clasped his father's fingers and laughed. Soon he learned to stand erect in his daddy's hand. He was tossed into the air. He waved his tiny, chubby arms like a diver. His mother would catch him, several yards away. He performed for newsreels. Did you see him?

Hsi folks were careful. They practiced on a net. They rehearsed with him daily. They planned to make money on their gymnast baby. Can you guess what happened? His mother slipped, and failed to catch him. His little head hit a hardwood floor. His skull was fractured and damage was done to his brain. In an instant a bright, capable little guy became a lifelong mentally retarded cripple.

His mother told me that even now, years later, she has dreams of the accident. She hears the muffled scream which died as he lost consciousness. His father bowed his head while we were talking. He said, "May God forgive us." Then he asked me to publish this report as a warning to other parents.

Do you know of any folks who do gymnastic stunts with their baby? If so, please clip this column. Show it to them.

(Q)—"It it true that you said children shouldn't be forced to clean their plates at every meal? Why do you say that?.. —MRS. T. D.

(A)—I say it because better attitudes toward food come when children are expected to eat a reasonable amount, but not to clean their plates at every meal. With the better attitudes come better eating habits and better health.

Marin Mothers Help Prepare Dental Survey

Approximately 80 Marin County mothers of school age children will be attending one-hour orientation meetings this week to receive instructions for their duties in carrying out the forthcoming school dental health survey scheduled to start April 6.

The survey is to obtain an up-to-date accurate picture of the dental needs of school children as a basis for building a dental health program, and to provide a baseline for measuring the future progress of dental health programs.

Requested by the county health department, the survey will be carried out by the Marin County Dental Assn., county schools, including parochial schools, the Parent-Teacher Assn. and parent clubs. The state department of public health is providing the technical direction and assistance. In each of the 25 schools included in the survey, team of three parents will be working with the local dentists, members of the Marin County Dental Society, who are contributing their time to make the dental survey.

All parent volunteers are asked by Mrs. Albert Hahn, chairman of parent participation, to attend one of the four orientation meetings.

First meeting was this morning at the county health department. Others will be at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at the Mill Valley School District office, 26 Miller avenue; at 9:45 a.m. Wednesday at Pacheco School in Raphael Village, and at 9:45 a.m. Thursday at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo.

Dr. Edward Ludwig, regional consultant in public health dentistry of the state Department of Public Health, is conducting the orientation meetings.

Under consideration as the League's local project are a study of Bay Area problems and their possible governmental solutions; a study of a tax-supported mental health program for Marin County; a study of consolidation of school districts; or a study of voting procedures with an aim to helping all eligible Marin voters to register in their proper precincts.

Nominees for 1959-60 officers are Mrs. Osborne White, president; Mrs. Lawrence Goldberg, first vice president; Mrs. Ross Turney, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Gregg, treasurer; Mrs. John Chambers, secretary; Mrs. Charles Secor, Mrs. Edward Zeller, Mrs. Alan Bartholemy, Mrs. Robert Allport, Mrs. Duval Jaros and Miss Huldah Moorhead, directors; Mrs. Wadlewski, Mrs. Robert Forscutt and Mrs. J. WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States Information Agency (USIA) is having better luck getting its broadcasts through ever-increasing Soviet jamming.

USIA Director George V. Allen said in the agency's semi-annual report to Congress that the Voice of America is piercing the interference by making fewer broadcasts and concentrating the power of more transmitters to carry them.

"The Soviet government continued to compliment the programs by trying to jam more heavily than ever," Allen said in the report made public last night. "But there is reason to believe that the Soviet authorities are finding it awkward to explain their refusal to allow the Russian people to hear news of the outside world."

RAF Quits Iraq

The withdrawal has been expected since the Iraqi government of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem formally withdrew last week from the Baghdad Pact.

Clampdown In Hungary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports reaching Washington tell of a brutal, all-out Communist drive to collectivize land in Hungary.

Refugee circles in the free world first received the reports. Word now reaching diplomatic missions here tells the same story.

Kite Flier Killed

MILLBRAE (AP)—Robert Satrap, 14, tried using wire instead of string to fly his kite Easter Sunday.

A neighbor told police Robert was knocked six feet when the wire struck a high voltage power line.

He was dead on arrival at Peninsula Hospital.

LAS VEGAS (AP)—"Miss Taylor is here to rest and I'm here to work."

Mickey Jr. Christened

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The three-month-old son of actress Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay was christened yesterday at the church where the couple was married.

Nagasaki Opens Shrine

NAGASAKI, Japan (UPI) — A repository for the bodies of 2,500 persons, who were among the victims of the atom-bombing of Nagasaki 14 years ago, was opened here yesterday. A place was reserved on the second floor for a statue of Kannon, Buddhist goddess of mercy.

7 Children Die In Fire

Back In Church

UXBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — One of the proudest Easter paraders yesterday was Elizabeth (Lili) Sargin, 8, although she had to use crutches.

Easter, a year ago, the child touched off a cigarette lighter on her return home from church and set her clothing afire.

She was burned over 81 per cent of her body. After 56 operations Lili was discharged from a Worcester hospital Easter Eve.

Burns also said that Hawaiian Gov. William F. Quinn told him last week he would schedule Hawaii's first national primary elections for the third week in June and final elections for the third week in July.

Iraq Executes Rebels

BEIRUT (UPI)—Baghdad Radio announced today that four air force officers convicted of taking part in the recent anti-government revolt at Mosul were shot to death by a firing squad today.

The four officers were condemned to death last night by the Baghdad "peoples court." They were Col. Abdullah Naji, Capt. Kasim Mohammed Ali Azzawi, Lt. Ahmad Mahdi Salif Aahur, and Lt. Fadil Nasir.

They were the first prisoners condemned by the court to be executed since the anti-government revolt was quashed by the government in early March.

Fewer On U.S. Payroll

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Civilian employment in the federal government dropped by 2,596 jobs in February, the result of a falloff in military agencies, the Joint Congressional Economy Committee said today.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) reported that total federal civilian employment in February was 2,335,224.

David Home; 'He's Going To Be Fine'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Little David Stewart returned home last night with a big smile for the thousands of Bay Area residents who donated $10,000 so that he might have a normal life.

When David left Chicago, his complexion was blue and he couldn't even sit up. But when he returned last night, the little boy laughed and waved as he hugged his father and kissed his 7-month-old brother on the head.

Mrs. Stewart said the doctors assured her David could look forward to a full life after several months recuperation.

"He's going to be fine, just fine," she said. "He eats twice as much as before and he's so happy."

"Now he'll be able to do anything but play football," beamed her husband. "Nobody will ever know how wonderful this is—or how grateful we are to everyone who made it possible."

Deadly Cobra Stolen From Car In S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Attention all cars, Twelve-foot king cobra, alive and deadly, stolen from an auto between 12:30 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. this date," crackled the police radio.

The reptile, belonging to Scott Lamb of Morgan Hill, was in a small wooden box labeled "deadly poisonous snake" the report said. It had not been defanged.

Lamb told officers his car was parked in front of a downtown theater (Paramount) when the snake was stolen. He collects reptiles.

"One drop of venom from that cobra is enough to kill an elephant," said Lamb, 50.

He said he was delivering the snake, along with another cobra and a diamond back rattler, to a customer in Grants Pass, Ore. Only the one cobra was stolen, he said.

Ex-Minister Dies; Wine Was Poison

"Don't drink that, it's vile stuff," Rev. George F. Patterson told his wife after sipping from one of the glasses he had poured. Then he collapsed and died.

Police said he had mistaken a bottle of wood alcohol for wine.

Egg Roll Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The traditional Easter egg roll on the White House lawn was canceled today because of rain.

A short time after 9 a.m., the scheduled starting hour, press secretary James C. Hagerty said it was being called off.

Marin Youth Orchestra To Give Concert

Marin's Youth Symphony Orchestra will present a free concert at 4 p.m. Sunday in Dinkelspiel Auditorium at Stanford University.

Conductor of the 60-piece orchestra is Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for the San Rafael schools, who is studying for a doctorate at Stanford's Department of Music.

Soloists will include Linda Salvisberg, principal cellist, who will perform "Allegro Apasianato" by Saint-Saens; Rosemary Von Bima, pianist and flutist, who will play Chopin's piano concerto in A Minor; and Claudia Colburn, mezzo-soprano, who will sing "O Don Fatale" from Verdi's "Don Carlo."

Both Miss Salvisberg and Miss Colburn are seniors at Tamalpais High School. Miss Von Bima is a junior at San Rafael High School.

Rinaldi has been director of the Marin Youth Symphony since its founding in 1954. A professional violinist, Rinaldi is a member of the San Francisco Symphony and the Marin Symphony Guild orchestra. He studied violin under the late Naoum Blinder, concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, and conducting under the late Alfred Hertz.

Wins Polk Award

NEW YORK (UPI) — Joseph Taylor of United Press International has received the George Polk Memorial Award of the Overseas Press Club for his courageous coverage of the overthrow of the Venezuelan government of Marcos Perez Jiminez.

The Polk award, named for a Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent killed in Greece and consisting of a plaque and $500, is presented for the best reporting requiring exceptional courage and enterprise abroad. Taylor was cited for great risks he took in getting the story of the government overthrow, transmitting it through heavy censorship and continuing on the job at great personal danger.

PLANNING CAMPAIGN FOR KQED

Elks To Present Life Memberships

The San Rafael Elks Club will present life membership to Frank Donohue and J. T. Creighton at an installation dinner Wednesday at the Elks Lodge, Fifth avenue and B street.

Cocktails will precede the 7:30 p.m. dinner. Lodge officers for the 1959-60 year are to be installed.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Loss By Flood, Fire Deductible On Return

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Casualty losses are deductible.

The loss of your property by reason of flood, fire, storm, shipwreck and other casualty, or by theft, is deductible. If the property was used in your business, the deduction is taken on separate Schedule C.

Peter J. Wikel

If the property was personal the deduction is taken on page two of the tax return form. This deduction is lost if you file short form 1040 or 1040-A, or take the standard deduction.

In the case of a residence, the damage to the residence, ornamental fixtures, trees, shrubbery, lawns, tools, fences, equipment or any property you owned is deductible. Of course, it is important to be able to prove you owned the property, and the amount of the loss.

Where the loss consists only of damage, then ordinarily the cost of repairs would be the amount of your loss. In other cases the loss is the difference between the fair market value of the property before the loss and the fair market value of the property after the loss.

Any insurance recovery must be deducted from the amount of the loss before you make the deduction on your tax return.

Also, the loss can never exceed the cost or other basis of the property regardless of the fair market value at the time of loss.

If the loss is any greater than your income for 1958, then you would carry the excess back to 1956 and apply it against 1956 income and file a claim for refund of the income tax paid for 1956. If the amount of the loss was such that your 1956 income did not absorb the excess, then any unused loss could be carried forward to 1957 in the same way, and if the 1957 income did not absorb all the loss, then any excess could be carried forward for the next five years and applied against the income of those years.

In other words, if you sustain a very large casualty loss you would apply it first against 1958 income, then against 1956 and 1957 income, and then carry forward any unused excess for the next five succeeding years, or until the loss was fully covered by income, but not longer than five years.

It is important to get all your bills, pictures, and other information together at the time of filing your tax return and keep them with your copy of your tax return so that you can prove your loss if necessary.

Mary Martin Performs Delightfully, Virus And All

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Martin offered the home audience two hours of grand entertainment on NBC-TV yesterday on her first television appearance in more than a year.

She presented an afternoon show designed primarily for children and an evening program for adults.

Unknown to the viewing audience, she performed delightfully after suffering from a virus infection that struck 36 persons in the production last week. There was no need for the stand-in who waited tensely throughout both shows. Miss Martin sang, talked, danced and flew through the air with the greatest of ease.

Although it was largely a solo performance, Miss Martin presented an excellent new dancer to the TV audience in Dirk Sanders.

Her songs and narrations were staged with a pleasing informality for children in the afternoon. To judge from the reaction of the younger audience, "Peter Pan" is as close to being a TV immortal as anything can be.

The evening program recalled that musical biography of Mary Martin covers an astonishing range of modern popular music. In this beautifully staged show, everyone must have found some favorite.

The television version of "The Human Comedy" on CBS-TV Saturday night was a drama of fine sensibilities marked by the outstanding performances of two young actors, Michael J. Pollard as Homer Macauley, and David Francis as his little brother, Ulysses.

In adapting William Saroyan's novel for "Show of the Month," J. Lee Pogestin presented the story in 17 associated vignettes.

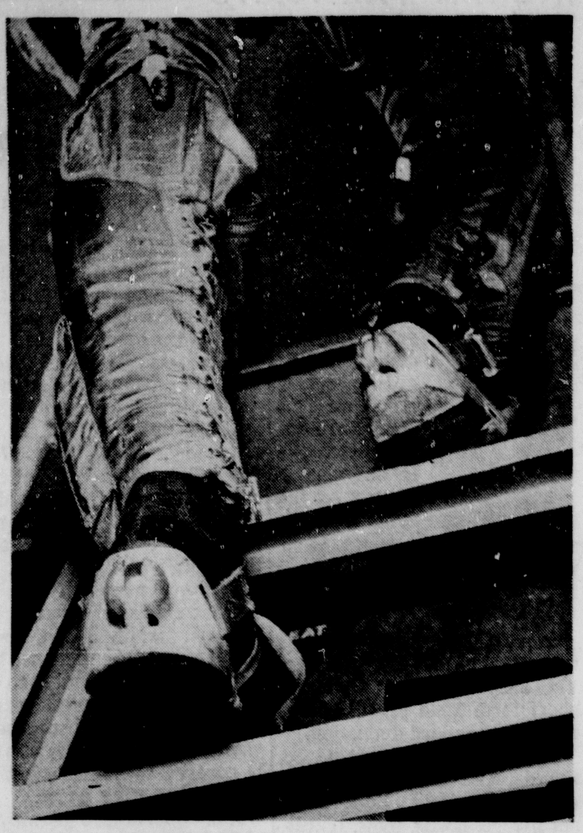
'Starfighter Suit' Tailor-Made For Each HAFB Pilot



BOOTED AND SPURRED — The F104 Starfighter is the latest thing in transportation, but it takes spurs to ride it, just as if it were a bronco. Chaps, too—as shown on legs of "anti-G suit" pilot is wearing as he climbs into plane.
(Air Force photo)

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

The well-dressed Starfighter pilot at Hamilton Air Force Base has an outfit this spring to suit any occasion. The style, however, is dictated by function rather than fashion.

The pilot of the F104 jet wears the latest thing in "P-suits," but the design is the result of research for greatest practical use to the wearer rather than the whim of a couturier.

When flying a mission above 50,000 feet (that's 10 miles UP) the pilot's outer garb is a pressure suit, otherwise known as an "MC4" — mission completion. It is in a color which is good season after season — drab. There are zippers fore, aft, and on the sides. A man can get himself in and out, but simpler with the personal equipment specialist who is always on hand to help.

SPECIAL HELMET

The "foundation garment" is of cotton knit. It is worn to protect the skin from being pinched by the P-suit, which is made of a non-slip material. Topping off the external outfit is a special helmet so that the whole body—except the feet, which are protected by boots—is pressurized.

Each suit is "tailor made" for the individual pilot and once issued, is the pilot's wherever he goes. If a long-time-no-see-buddy's greeting is "you haven't changed," that's good, because a five-pound gain or loss in weight could mean being refitted for a P-suit.

Wearing the pressure suit properly takes some instruction. When initially fitted, pilots get a three-day orientation class at a physiological training center. It is reported that the garment is comfortable in its intended use, but restrictive to movement.

GEAR ESSENTIAL

Millady's handbag, gloves, or stole are called accessories, meaning they're nice but not necessary. Items worn atop the pressure suits, however, are essential. Because these pilots of the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton make all their takeoffs and landings over water, the bright yellow "Mae West" life vest is always worn. A paracute pack goes on the back. Each parachute is inspected every 10 days and repacked every 90 days.

On the legs of the pilot are items resembling chaps and spurs. They are so named. The former is part of an anti-G suit which is worn over a regular flying suit. This in turn is worn when the pilot is doing "ordinary" flying (if flying the world's fastest jet may ever be called ordinary).

GRAVITY EFFECT

The "G" refers to an increase of the effect of the force of gravity on the pilot's body due to the plane's rapid change of direction. The anti-G suit, which laces tightly on the lower body, counteracts the centrifugal force action on the blood and forces it to the upper part of the body. This is a great help in a tight turn or hard pull-out.

The "spurs" are separate metal attachments which hook into the airplane part of the ejection seat. They automatically pull and hold the feet in position in the event of ejection, which is downward out of a 104.

Pressure suit equipment is stowed in a special room kept at a constant temperature. Inspection and maintenance of this gear is the prime responsibility of the personal equipment specialists.

A SUIT FOR EVERY OCCASION—Lt. Richard Quigley and Lt. Edgar Grischkowsky of 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base get into their spring suits (also summer, fall and winter)—"P-suits" for riding F104 Starfighters above 50,000 feet (10 miles, to you).

In the gold rush to California in 1849, there were 42,000 overland arrivals, plus 33,000 by ship and 9,000 via Mexico.

Tiburon Property Owners To Meet

"Know Your Fire District" will be the theme of a public meeting of the Tiburon Property Owners Assn. at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Tiburon Firehouse.

Fred Kaiser of Tiburon, member of the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, will speak briefly. Problems of the Tiburon Fire Protection District will be the subject of a panel discussion by district commissioners. A question period will follow the discussion.

The seven candidates for election to the fire commission will be introduced and asked to give their qualifications.

AF To Host Mill Valley Civic Clubs

The 666th Air craft Control and Warning Squadron atop Mt. Tamalpais will host a joint dinner of Mill Valley civic clubs in the squadron dining hall April 16.

Approximately 70 members of the Rotary, Optimists and Lions clubs are expected to attend, said Lt. Col. John P. Byrne, commanding officer. City officials and chamber of commerce directors have also been invited.

Featured speaker will be Brig. Gen. Curtis R. Low, commander of the 28th Air Division, which includes the Mill Valley station. Also on the program is an informational presentation on the Polaris missile by Fred B. Du Bridge of Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

Concert Planned At Redwood High

The first spring concert to be given by the Redwood High School Instrumental Department will be presented Friday at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Theme of the concert will be "Here and There—Then and Now." The performance will mark the first public appearance of Sidney Gordon, band and orchestra instructor for the new school.

Gordon was graduated with honors in 1950 from San Francisco State College. He held several teaching positions in Northern California before coming to Redwood High.

2,700,065 WESTERN MOTORISTS ARE PAYING MORE THAN THEY NEED TO FOR GASOLINE

If you are one of the millions of drivers in the West now paying for premium gasoline, you may be able to save 4 to 5 cents a gallon and still get premium gasoline performance.

Union Oil's New 7600 Gasoline is here.

New 7600 has the highest octane of any regular in the West. Octane so high it now makes premium performance possible at regular prices for 2,700,065 of the cars that had to use premium until now.

And more: New 7600 contains Union's exclusive additive NR76. It cleans your carburetor chemically; reduces engine maintenance measurably.

Wouldn't today be a good day to try New 7600 and start enjoying premium performance at regular price? A whole tankful, preferably, so you can prove the power of this new kind of gasoline without a shadow of a doubt. New 7600—another first from Union Oil, The West's most experienced gasoline refiner, who has never made a "dirty gallon."

*(If your car is the 1 in 5 which needs an ultra-high octane premium gasoline, use Union's new Royal 76, the West's most powerful premium.)

NEW 7600 GASOLINE

Powered like a premium...priced like a regular!

Now at your Minute Man station—the sign of the 76 where you know you always get The Finest
